Poetry.

WHICH DO I LOVE THE BEST

Which do I love the best?
Is it the mountain or the main?
The Land, with its sweet and poised breast,
Or the Sea with its wave-robed train?
I merrily tread where the green hills spread,
And talk to the flowers about;
But whenever I ride on the trickless tide,
The bells of my heart ring out
I like the wind and its noisy mirth
In the dark woods, far on the shore;
But I listen and think it plays on earth
The time of the Ocean's roar.
Oh! which can it be that its dearest to me—
The stir of the Forest or the dash of the sea?

Which do I love the best.
Let my spirit be honest, and say
That it worships the waves in their age or their rest.
And dreams of them—far away.
I know full well there's a holy spell
In waters that bind my soul;
For they speak in a tone that I hear alone
Where the flood and the foam-curl
I feel when I stand 'mid the marvels of Land,
As though angels were over the sod;
But I gaze on the Deep from the desolate strand,
And see more of the shadow of God,
Oh! there never was yet, and there never will be,
A shrine for my love like the broad blue sea.

COMMAND ME, MARY!

BY WILLIAM H. HOLCOMBE.

Command me Mary! with thine eyes,
But speak no word of praise;
And though my hand to linger tries,
My fluttering heart obeys.

Thy lips have breathed in earnestness,
And broken many a vow;
And though those lips again should bless,
I cannot trust them now.

But oh! the light of woman's eye
To each and all was given,
Like those sweet lights that fill the sky—
The sisterhood of heaven.

Then, though my reason should despise
Whate'er thy lips may say,
Command me Mary! with thine eyes,
And I must still obey.

A well-dressed young gentleman at a ball, in whisking about the room, ran his head against a young lady. He began to apologise. "Not a word, sir, it is not hard enough to hurt anybody."

Under the title of "An Odd Advertisement", a New York paper publishes the following:—"A young lady, perfectly competent, wishes to form a class of young mothers and nurses, and to instruct them in the art of talking to infants in such a manner as will interest and please them."

A missionary in Jamaica was questioning the little black boys on Matt. v., and asked. "Who are the meek?" A boy answered, "Those who give soft answers to rough questions." This accords with what Solomon says:—"A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up anger."

Wives who do not try to keep their husbands will lose them. A man does the "courting" before marriage, and the wife must do it after marriage, or some other woman will.

That's a pretty bird, grandma", said a little boy. "Yes," replied the old dame, "and he never cries." "That's because he's never washed" rejoined the youngster.

"Mamma," said a young lady, who was about to commence making her frock, "how shall I begin, for I don't know?" "So it seems, (sew its seams,) my dear," replied her punning parent.

"Sure, which is the entrance out?" asked an Irishman at the Coventry station the other day.

The subscriber has received per late arrivals, a large and varied assortment of GOODS, consisting of:—

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS, Cashmeres, Cassinets, Buckskins, Velvets Satins, &c. with a large assortment of MATTRASSES Hammocks, Blankets, Sheets, Rugs, a superior article of OIL CLOTHING, Glazed, Beaver, and silk HATS,—high and low crowned, latest styles; Cloth and glazed Caps; silk and lawn Covers for do; Belts and sheaths; Knives; Lambswool, Merino and Cotton Shirts and DRAWERS; Regatta and heavy striped do: White Cotton do., with Linen trimmings: Linen Fronts, and Collars; Red and Blue Flannel and Serge Shirts; with an assortment of Tailor's Trimmings, and almost every article in connexion, suitable for a GENERAL CLOTHING STORE.

And, as heretofore, having made up in the concern a great part of the Cloths into Fashionable Spring and Summer CLOTHING of the latest styles he is now prepared with his large stock of Ready made Garments of every fabric, style and finish, for the farmer or labouring man, the gentleman of fashion or mechanic, the seafaring man, and all others; which will be hereafter proffered for sale to the public at lower prices than ever before known.

It is almost unnecessary to point out to a discerning public the vast benefit arising to the Province generally by having your Clothing made up in the place. You may safely say that every imported garment you purchase, you are actually sending one fourth of the cost unnecessarily out of the country, not to speak of the great injury you are entailing on a large class of industrious people in your own city. It is high time to look seriously into this matter, and to tell those people who import that they are the real enemies of the country, and that their shops you do not want; but patronize home, and those only, who always get their Clothing made up in the City, and sell them at a cheaper rate than imported garments can possibly be obtained; and those Goods you will now find at the

CITY CLOTHING STORE,

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great English Remedy."

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING AND TRIUMPHANT.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. it is unrivalled. But the Proprietors so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid;—the agent or proprietors of other medicines dare not claim for their preparations a power like this; they know that in no case have such effects been produced:—the grand object and purpose of the common 'remedies' is simply to give relief—not to cure: this is easily done by an intelligent Physician or Druggist; but while dallaring with these delusive compounds, the patient rapidly declines, and every day places him farther and farther beyond the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a grand healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]

There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
