Narrow Escape from Death of a M. C. R. Baggageman.

The Chatham Authorities Claim to Know the Bank Thief.

Fatal Logging Accident—Expensive Indulgence in a Spree — A Lady "Jailoress."

ESSEX.

Mayor Milne, of Essex, has withdrawn his resignation.

Michael Strong, of Rochester, is richer by $1,100 by the death of a relative in Wales.

The Government inspector of high schools has decided that the plans of the proposed gymnasium for the high school in Windsor are not up to the requirements, not being large enough. New plans will have to be secured and then appropriation asked for.

Walkerville is to have a modern fire engine house.

Windsor as yet is not metropolitan enough to have a patrol wagon, and the police at times have a hard job getting their prisoners to the lockup.

The Windsor police commissioners decided that the salary of the men should be increased, and consequently $30 will be tacked on to their year's earnings.

ELGIN.

The death occurred at West Magdala on Sunday of Neil Campbell, a highly respected farmer, aged 40 years.

A fire occurred at Aylmer on Sunday morning in which the residence, with its contents, belonging to Charles Gormon, was completely destroyed. Loss is about $1,500; insurance $500. The fire was the work of an incendiary, as Mr. and Mrs. Gormon have been away for the past month.

The Y. M. C. A., St. Thomas, have now formed an orchestra for the men's meetings on Sunday afternoons.

James Johnston, baggageman, St. Clair branch, went out with a Courtright party of sportsmen Saturday in quest of quail. A fine bevy rising, one of the shooters blazed away, killing his birds and nearly killing Johnston. His hat was riddled. One shot passed through his ear, one lodged in his cheek, another entered near the eye, and altogether Johnston is now carrying around eight shots in his head and face. Fortunately he noticed the gun swinging around in his direction and he stooped partly or his head would have been blown off.

KENT.

A prominent citizen of Chatham, in speaking of the mysterious disappearance of money from the Standard Bank there, says that the authorities know who is the guilty man, but that they deferred his arrest in the hopes of finding a clue to the whereabouts of the money. The clerks of the bank are entirely exonerated.

Jas. McCughan, colored, a respected young farmer of Dover township, was fatally crushed while logging on Friday. He lived only six hours after the accident.

OXFORD.

Conductor Snider is conducting evangelistic services in the Dundas Street Methodist Church, Woodstock, this week.

Henry Hyatt and Timothy Carroll, two prisoners, charged respectfully with horse-stealing and criminal assault, will be tried at Woodstock on the 25th inst.

OTHER WESTERN ONTARIO NOTES.

Joseph Hall, an Indian from Alvinston, who indulged in firewater recently, has had a costly experience. Magistrate J. W. Torrance, of Melbourne, it appears, fined him $30 for being drunk, $10 for refusing to tell where he got the liquor, and $9 95 costs, with the option of 40 days in jail.

James Pringle was driving with his wife at Stratford on Friday afternoon, and while in the northern part of the city, the horse, a spirited animal, shied at a heap of gravel which was lying on the roadside. The sudden bolt threw Mrs. Pringle from the buggy. She received a severe scalp wound and a small bone in one leg was broken.

As yet no one has been appointed jailer at Walkerton, but the office is being ably filled by Miss Roether. This lady has the distinction of being the only "jaileress" in Ontario, and the inspector of jails and prisons has given a very favorabe report of the Bruce county jail as it is under her superintendence.

"UNSATISFACTORY EVIDENCE"

Causes a Second Adjournment of the Inquest on the Body of the Infant Found on York Street.

The adjourned inquest to inquire into the cause of the death of the infant found on a lot at the corner of York and Maitland streets on Friday evening was continued before Coroner Ferguson at the police station last evening. The lad who found the child said that it had not been there ten minutes and that he had never seen it before. His mother said that a note was found in the basket asking her to take good care of the contents. She did not recognize the handwriting or the basket and had no suspicion of who left it there.

Dr. Macarthur said that he was called to see the child about half an hour after it was found. He did not think that the child had been washed more than once after death, and then it had not been made perfectly clean. It had never breathed and had not been born more than 24 hours. He thought it was a white child, although part of the skin was colored and the hair very black. There were no external marks of violence. No physician had been in attendance at the time of birth.

A juryman—From the fact that that note was left in the basket asking that good care be taken of the child it was evidently alive when left there.

The coroner—Or whoever left it there wished to create that impression.

Ralph H. Ferguson was of the opinion that the child was colored. He judged from the face.

P. J. Watt, one of the jurors, objected to the evidence as unsatisfactory, so an adjournment was made until Friday evening to give the police an opportunity of making further inquiry and of obtaining new evidence.

Blow, blow, blow! That disagreeable catarrh can be cured by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the constitutional remedy.

Mother—Why aren't you and Georgie good boys as your little brother? Young hopeful—I guess it's 'cause you'd had the experience bringin' up boys w'en you commenced on him.

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills as they are extremely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

HELP FOR THE HELPLESS.

The Story of a Year at the Protestant Orphans' Home.

Annual Gathering of the Board—Interesting Statements—The Endowment Fund—Officers Elected—An Exceptionally Healthy Institution.

The eighteenth annual report of the Protestant Orphans' Home Board says: "Once again we meet together at the close of the eighteenth year and before giving an account of some of the work accomplished since last we gathered here we would remember those who have been taken from our midst by death. One of our most devoted workers, Mrs. James Priddis, whose removal we deeply lament; also Mr. A. Johnston, for years a member of the advisory board.

"A number of improvements have been completed through the year and some are at present in hand, such as the heating of the building with furnaces, so long talked of and at last accomplished. With the new floors and the aid of a little paint the home is coming out in a new dress and very much improved.

"Though there have been changes made in the management, the institution in charge of our new matron, Miss Auld, promises to be as prosperous as ever, and the little ones in kind hands are, as usual, in the enjoyment of good health, which seems characteristic of the home children. One little boy died this year of erysipelas after being moved to the hospital. He had been in the institution for a very short time.

"Our Government returns show the number of children to be considerably reduced this year. They are as follows: Number of children remaining in home on Oct. 1, 1891, 35 boys and 15 girls; number of admissions during the year, including those in residence on Oct. 1, 1891, 48 boys, 26 girls; discharged during year, 23 boys, 8 girls; number of deaths, 1 boy, 1 girl; number remaining on Sept. 30, 1892, 24 boys, 9 girls—total 33.

"The school is in charge of Mrs. Oliphant, and her attention to the children has won the approval of the school committee. In April Mr. Carson kindly supplied us with books, and for all these favors the trustees are extremely grateful. Many of the children have been sent to homes, and we frequently receive encouraging letters from their adopted parents, and we sincerely hope that some of these little ones find true Christian homes. We cannot say that all do, for in spite of care taken, and the very best references secured, we have instances where the child has not received the treatment promised and the question as to when and where they should be sent is very hard to decide.

"Throughout the year the inmates have enjoyed several treats and excursions. One was given by Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons, when they were entertained at Glenmore. At Christmas, too, they were remembered in the bags, and Santa Claus did not forget to visit the home and gladden the little ones. Also in the Congregational Church the children were given a rare treat, and sent home happy, each with a bag of candy.

"Our good legal advisor, Mr. J. H. Flock, still continues to give us his services on many occasions, and Drs. Brown and Niven willingly give their time and attention in all cases of sickness.

"A word should be said for those ladies, who, for years, have carried the burden of collecting for the home. We feel that they deserve the united thanks of the board."

The report was adopted at the annual meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. parlors, when there were present: Mesdames Morphy, Gregsten, Jeffery, Webster, De la Hooke, Slater, Shaw-Wood, Cieghorn, Parker, W. Duffield, J. Duffield, Spencer Geo. McCormick, Robinson, Belton, Edge, Smart, Ward, Puddicombe, McCallum, Dr. Belton, Howell, Boomer, Dawson, Garlick, Welch and Sutherland. Misses Edge, Priddis and Fowler. Messrs. J. H. Flock, Parker, Thompson, Dr. Brown and McCormick, Rev. J. A. Murray, Canon Richardson and Sutherland.

THE TREASURER'S REPORT.

The annual report also referred to many donations and bequests which are given in the treasurer's report as follows:

RECEIPTS.

Balance on hand Oct. 1, 1891	$ 81 66
Income from endowment fund	997 50
Government grant	413 18
City Council grant	300 00
Payment of board	484 50
Collection per trustees, less $152 25 in last year's report	1,029 20
Bequest of the late Mrs. Wm. Clarke	159 00
Interest on same	7 50

No. 1 District Orangemen	10 75
Ahogrill Lodge, L. O. L., and True Blues	10 81
Owen Sound Orangemen	2 00
L. O. L., Brussels	1 50
A friend	16 50
Proceeds by sale of cows	50 00
Borrowed for improvement fund	202 21
Smaller donations amounting to	45 15
Total	$3,944 14

The disbursements amounted to $3,938 55, leaving a balance on hand of $5 89.

MEDICAL REPORT.

Dr. V. A. Brown reported that during the year the health of all the inmates had been exceptionally good, no deaths having occurred. Miss Dennis, one of the attendants, had died of disease of the brain. The infirmary had been opened in consequence of the existence of a few skin cases.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. Morphy.

Lady Patronesses—Mesdames Baldwin, Jeffery and Robinson.

Vice-President—Mesdames Col. Smith, Shaw-Wood, Belton and De la Hooke.

Secretary—Mrs. E. Garlick.

Assistant Secretary—Mrs. W. Fowler.

Treasurer—Mrs. Gregsten.

Additions to the Board of Trustees—Mesdames Howell, C. Leonard and Gentleman and Miss Orme.

Mrs. Morphy, president of the board of management, thought that bequests made by persons when making their wills should be added to the endowment fund. The advisory board, she said, should bear the expense of all improvements. Consideration of this matter was deferred. The council will likely be asked to increase the annual grant.
