Many people stayed away from Tecumseh Park Saturday afternoon because of the moist-looking clouds that hung about all day. The 200 faithful fans who did go saw a well-played, interesting game, with plenty of batting and full of exciting situations. Like a good novel, it had a sensational climax, and unlike most modern novels, a satisfactory conclusion. The climax occurred in the eighth inning, when the Hams got a line on Seiver and kept the outfielders busy while the visitors tallied five runs. The conclusion was satisfactory, because the Cockneys finished with one run to spare, and again taking their place at the top of the Canadian League. Seiver and McCann both pitched a good steady game. They were pretty evenly matched. Seiver had the advantage in speed, while McCann had a trifle more art. For five innings it looked like a shut-out for the visitors. Not a man reached the third sack. They couldn't get the ball beyond the infield. In the third inning McCann took two sacks on a drive to left field, but he died at third. Seiver issued his first pass in the sixth to Hagerty. Dean followed with a splendid drive to left, away over the track, scoring Hagerty and taking three bases. Schrall fanned out, Elton flew out to center, and McCann, having already gone out at first on a grounder fielded by McFadden, Dean did not get away from third.

In the sixth inning McCann flew out to Reed. Hagerty and Dean both hit safely to left; Schrall drove a fly in the same direction, which was pulled down by Jones; Elton made a clean drive to center, scoring Hagerty. Cope fumbled a slow grounder by Congalton and lost the chance to retire the side with only one run. A three sacker to center by McKevitt scored Dean, Elton and Congalton. McKevitt scored on a wild pitch. Collins flew out to Mohler, retiring the side in time to save the game. In the next inning, long flies by Conwell and Hagerty to right field were pulled down by Franck, and McCann struck out.

The Cockneys went into business early in the game. Jones singled in the second inning and stole second; Cope fanned out and Franck flew out to Hagerty. Then Lohman drove the ball to right field scoring Jones. Seiver singled and Mohler flew out to right field. There was only one little hit to short in the third inning, but the Cockneys tallied one run. McFadden reached first on fielder's choice, Reed being forced out at second; Babbit drew a pass. Jones failed to hit safely, but reached first on an unsuccessful attempt by Collins to cut Babbit off at second, McFadden going to third on the play and crossing the rubber on Cope's out in left field. Babbit stole third and Jones stole second, but Franck went out from Hagerty to Dean and closed the inning.

The two runs in the fifth were due to a surprising muff by Congalton. McFadden drove the ball to left for two sacks, Babbit flew out to McCann, Jones sent a high fly to Congalton, which the latter failed to hold and the latter scored. Cope went out at first; Franck singled to center and Conwell let the ball get by him on Congalton's long throw to cut off Jones at the plate. The latter scored and Franck took two additional sacks on the error.

The locals should have scored in the sixth inning. But for want of coaching Seiver was caught at third in trying to take two bases on Mohler's single to center. A moment later Mohler was caught in an ill-judged attempt to steal second.

In the next inning McFadden drew a pass and stole second; Babbit bunted safely; Jones was instructed to bunt, and in an unsuccessful attempt to do so, struck out. Cope drew a pass. A short hit to left by Franck scored McFadden, and Babbit came in on Hagerty's error. Cope tallied on Lohman's out at first. Seiver struck out, leaving Franck on third. The eighth inning was of the one, two, three order. Congalton made a beautiful running catch of Mohler's short fly to center. Reed fouled out and McFadden flew out to Schrall. Score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

We lead.

Twenty-eight out of thirty games on the home grounds.

The games here on Friday and Saturday with Hamilton had singular coincidences. Dean and McKevitt got triples in both games, the only long hits secured by the visitors. McKevitt's triples were made in the eighth and ninth innings, and each time the bases were filled three runs scoring.

Babbit was the only Cockney to strike out on Saturday. Baker struck out one man in Friday's game.

"Read the riot act!" yelled a rooter to Collins, of Hamilton.

Pete Lohman should reserve his curtain lectures against his players until they are in their dressing-rooms. It is unpleasant to spectators, besides mortifying to the players.

That error of Cope's in the eighth was the costliest ever made by Tommy since he donned a London uniform.

Was ever such a record made by a ball club as 28 victories in 30 games played on a home ground?

The Cockneys will have to forfeit a game by 9 to 0 on the home ground to learn what defeat is like.

Popkay did not want to umpire on account of his injured leg. Hugh McLean was asked to officiate, but Popkay finally consented to umpire.

Talk is cheap with the Hamilton players. Collins was wagging his tongue to the stand continually.

Elton would like to buy a London bat. He tried several, but not at the plate.

The fielders back out when Jones goes to bat.

Two strike-outs only in two games.

Hamilton did not steal a base in either game. London got fourteen—eight on Friday and six on Saturday. The double steal was twice accomplished on Saturday by McFadden and Babbit and Babbit and Jones.

Pete Lohman kicks like he would if he was playing football.

Jones' throw to first base in the fifth inning, after he had caught McKevitt's fly out on the track, was the longest ever made on the home grounds. Congalton was on first base, and was almost doubled up. The ball landed in McFadden's hands.

Jones was instructed to bunt in the seventh, with two on bases, and bunted out. A strong batter like Jones should never be forced to bunt, as he has batted in runs in many games when they were needed. Franck followed in the same inning after Cope had a pass, filling the bases. He attempted to bunt the first ball and failed. A clean hit to right on the next ball pitched scored two runs.

LONDON'S CRACK TEAM.

It has always been London's boast that legitimate sport was sure to find plenty of encouragement here. In former years it was commonly said that if the London baseball club would only get together a first-class team, the citizens would make it worth their while by patronizing the game. The management took them at their word this year. Never before has London has so good a team, and never before has such superb ball been played on London grounds as the home team has been putting up this season. It's time the citizens showed their appreciation by liberally patronizing the game. Otherwise the management should, in self-defense, follow Hamilton's example and sell some of their best players. They have already refused several tempting offers from the bigger leagues in the expectation that London lovers of sport would show their appreciation of an A1 pennant-winning team.

NO GAME AT WOODSTOCK.

Guelph and Woodstock did not play on Saturday. Both teams were on the ground, but Guelph refused to play, as there was no umpire.

THE AMATEURS.

A good game of baseball was played on Queen's Park on Saturday afternoon between the nines representing the Bennet Furniture Company and the G. T. R. machine hands, which resulted in favor of the Bennet nine by a score of 14 to 5, the winning side playing a fine fielding game. Batteries—Bennet's, Ham and Martin; G. T. R., Heathfield, Maxwell and Cripps. Umpire—C. G. Morehead.

TOO MUCH CRAWFORD.

St. Paul, Minn., July 17.—The game Saturday afternoon was a case of too much Crawford. The young man from Chatham, Ont., was distinctly the whole thing. In the fourth inning he scored on his own triple and Frank's double, and in the eighth he hit for a triple, scoring Pickering, and got safe over the plate on Frank's long fly to right. The strangest thing about the game was the fact that seven errors were made, but not one of them had any effect whatever on the score. Cross had the Saints guessing every inning, except the second, when Glenalvin made a single and Isbell a triple, the latter going out trying to reach the plate on his hit. In the last seven innings the locals only made two hits. Fricken's pitching was excellent, nobody hitting.

BAKER SOLD TO BUFFALO.

"Heavy" Baker, the Hams' clever twirler, has been sold to Buffalo. Manager Collins on Saturday here stated that Baker would remain with the team until Saturday of this week, when Bradford is expected to be in shape again. The Hams have already signed another pitcher in Baker's place. Five hundred dollars is the price Hamilton was paid for Baker's release.

FOR THE FANS.

The Hams have an offer for McKevitt from a Western League club.

Crawford, formerly with the Chathams, won the game for Columbus on Saturday with two doubles and a triple. The Detroit Free Press of Sunday says: "The Canadian League player did it."

It has been suggested that after the Eastern and Canadian League seasons close that Toronto, Montreal, Hamilton and London play a series of games for the Canadian championship. It would be a good move, and officials of both leagues should take hold of the proposition. Crowds would witness all games played in London.

WORLD'S RECORD BY A BOY.

Norwood, Mass., July 17.—The world's mile record was broken Saturday by Joe Downey, a 16-year-old lad, of Jamaica Plain, who, paced by a motor tandem, made the distance in 1 minute and 16 2-5 seconds. The race against time was run on a public highway, the mile being straightaway and slightly down hill. Downey has won a number of local bicycle events and has lately entered the professional ranks. Elkes was the first to catch his machine, and he settled down to work with a will. In the fifth mile Pierce led for a while, but Elkes drew away again, and from the seventh mile to the finish it was a procession. Summary: Twenty-five miles paced race—Won by Harry Elkes, time 45:11⅗; second, Burns Pierce, time 46:06⅗; third, Earl Stevens, about a mile behind, time not taken.
