NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

IF YOU LIKE KHAKI HELP THE WEARER

Convert Your Admiration and Pride Into Tangible Form and Send World Sox.

YOUR CHANCE IS NOW

To Know a Soldier's Gratitude, Become Identified With "Sox Day" Campaign.

Now is the time to show your patriotism. Every real Canadian is patriotic at heart and especially so are Torontonans. We know what it is to be proud of the khaki uniform that throng our streets—but the thing is to give expression to this feeling of pride. Some are too shy or just don't know in what way to proceed—all are willing enough. The World has provided an outlet in the form of a huge sox campaign for the Canadian boys in the trenches. Many hundreds have responded generously and to the best of our ability in boosting the campaign working for it and donating to t. Many more have signified their intention of helping and are preparing large donations for Monday and Tuesday.

Are you one of these or are you by any chance a laggard? Don't mind just get busy now. There are three more days. If you are a good knitter spend Sunday in hustling along a pair. It is a just cause and an urgent one. If you are not a knitter send in a pair of sox.

Men Assist Campaign.

Several men came yesterday with donations and they were not sorry that they had found the knitting room on the fourth floor. Red Rose Tea aplenty, was waiting for them! There was a room full to over-flowing with the type of women that "keep Toronto ahead," and there was a piano, and numerous pianists and vocalists too. Then best of all was the flag-draped table on which were placed the "royal" sox, knit specially by the Duchess of Connaught for The World "Sox Day" campaign. Also the sox sent by Lady Hendrie, Miss Yorke and Miss Enid Hendrie were on exhibition. Sox simply poured in, and it was all we could do to take down the names of donators. One woman came twenty-one miles by train to bring twenty-six pairs of beautifully hand-knit sox. This donation will be announced in the lists later with all the others. Today is the last chance for school girls to do their bit. Will you bring your pair of sox today to The World or send them addressed to Miss H. M. Ball, "Sox Day Convenor, World Building, 40 West Richmond street. Phone Main 5308.

CAN BE SAVED AND CURED OF DRINK

Good News to Mothers, Wives, Sisters.

To have seen one you love going down this road to ruin, and to have heard him try to laugh and joke away your fears, while you watched the drink habit fasten on him, is to have known suffering and to have borne a sorrow to which physical pain is nothing. And when at last he comes to that turn in the road that, sooner or later, must come, and wakes to the fact that he is a slave to the drink, you think everything will come right. He will fight the habit, and you will help him escape it, but he cannot do it. Drink has undermined his constitution, inflamed his stomach and nerves, until the craving must be satisfied. And after you have hoped and then despaired more times than you can count, you realize that he must be helped. The diseased condition of the stomach and nerves must be cured by something that will soothe the inflamed stomach and quiet the shaking nerves, removing all taste for liquor.

My marvelous remedy—Samaria Prescription—has done this for hundreds of cases in Canada. It can be given with or without the patient's knowledge, as it is tasteless and odorless and quickly dissolves in liquid or food. Read what it did for Mrs. G. of Vancouver:

"I was so anxious to get my husband cured that I went up to Harrison's Drug Store and got your Remedy there. I had no trouble giving it without his knowledge. I greatly thank you for all the peace and happiness that it has brought already into my home. The cost was nothing, according to what he would spend in drinking. The curse of drink was putting me into my grave, but now I feel happy. May the Lord be with you and help you in curing the evil. I don't want my name published."

FREE—SEND NO MONEY.

I will send free trial package and booklet giving full particulars, testimonials, etc., to any sufferer or friend who wishes to help. Write today. Plain sealed package. Correspondence sacredly confidential.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

NO OFFER OF PEACE MADE TO BELGIUM

Rumors of German Overtures Officially Declared to Be Unfounded.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The Belgian legation announced today that the rumors which have been circulated to the effect that peace proposals recently were made by Germany to the Belgian Government are devoid of foundation.

Recent information gathered in government circles in Berlin is to the effect that Germany holds that a portion of Belgium will be annexed to Germany in any settlement of the war which is undertaken.

This view is directly the reverse of the recent report, coming thru Italy, that Germany has offered to evacuate Belgium as a condition of a separate peace.

There is no confirmation of the report of Germany's willingness to evacuate Belgium, but the contrary view, that Germany desires to retain part of Belgium, probably will be made known in confidential advices going to the American authorities, indicating a less favorable outlook than had been expected.

CONSTANCE BOULTON ON RECRUITING TOUR

On Thursday evening Miss Constance Boulton of Toronto, who is making a recruiting tour and delivering addresses in many parts of Ontario, had a very successful meeting in Berlin.

A warning was held out when Miss Boulton told her audience that Canada's fate was to be settled in Flanders. "If Germany is victorious in this war Canada is certain to be the prize," the audience was told. "It won't be that the war will be settled within our shores. Our destiny will be decided thousands of miles overseas and it is up to us to see that it is settled rightly."

OUTBREAK AT CALGARY WILL BE INVESTIGATED

City Has Quieted Down After Rioting of Thursday Night.

CALGARY, Feb. 11.—After a night of excitement caused by the raiding of two restaurants by soldiers Calgary is peaceful today. There will be a double investigation—one by Gen. Cruickshanks, the officer commanding, and one by the civil authorities. Both Gen. Cruickshanks and Mayor Costello express deep regret for the occurrence, and they, with Chief of Police Cuddy, promise there will be no further disturbances.

Mr. Naegel, proprietor of the two restaurants, is consulting with the lawyers to learn what redress he can obtain.

MAJOR BOEHM GIVES ADVICE TO WOMEN

Girl Who Stops Boy From Enlisting is Playing the Game of the Enemy.

FILL PLACES OF MEN

Emergency Corps Will Start Registration Among Gentler Sex Next Week.

A most encouraging meeting of the Women's Emergency Corps was held yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings in the chair.

The president reported that investigation had been carried on in banks and other places of business with a view to finding out how women and girls might fill the places of men, with a view to relieving men so that they might enlist for active service. In one bank, it had been ascertained that two hundred men had left. Branch banks in some cases had to be closed. Several managers had expressed the wish for educated girls with trained minds, who, with a short period of coaching, might be available to replace the men during the war period.

The minutes read by the secretary, Miss Florence Boland, showed that districts Nos. 2 and 3 had held meetings during the week. The dates of other initial meetings to take place next week will be announced thru the press.

Methods of recruiting and the need for more men were outlined in an address given by Major Boehm.

Game of Enemy.

The experience of the speaker was that wholesale houses and manufacturers generally were willing to give recruiting officers every opportunity. In one instance, that of the Canada Foundry, the entire plant had been closed for an hour at a loss of $5000, and the men summoned to attend the recruiting address. Married men were found to be more responsive than single men, the proportion recruiting being 61 married men to 39 single.

Appealing to the girls, the major told them that "if there is anyone here who is even trying to keep back one-fifth of a man, she is doing her utmost to give her country to the Huns. The speaker told of a retired bookbinder who is willing to take a man's place and give his earnings to the family of the soldier as long as the war lasts.

The principal reasons why men do not recruit were laid down by Major Boehm to be five in number. Canadians do not think the matter serious; this is not Canada's war women folk hold the men back; Canadians are too proud to fight; all want to be officers. The fallacy of all these impressions was shown by the speaker.

Major Boehm advised employers to engage no man who could not show a certificate of physical unfitness or show that he was over military age.

Miss Elizabeth Boulton and Miss Margaret Davidson of the Technical School, reported on registration amongst women, blank forms are being drafted and will be ready to begin the work on Wednesday next week.

WRONG IMPRESSION WAS GIVEN REMARK

Mrs. Huestis Merely Said Would Not Mind Donning Duck Suit in Summer.

Mrs. A. M. Huestis was the speaker at the monthly meeting of Ste. Anne's Women's Guild, held in the parish house, the president, Mrs. Skey, being in the chair.

Mrs. Huestis spoke on the work of the local council and especially of its activities in regard to "Mother's Pensions."

The speaker also corrected the impression regarding the "sweeping the streets" controversy.

"I was talking to a reporter about things in general," said Mrs. Huestis, "and having in mind the number of women who have called on me with arms and knees terribly swollen from rheumatism, contracted from scrubbing the floors of the city hall, I merely remarked that I would not mind on a summer's day donning a suit of white duck myself, and cleaning the street with my brush and cart."

In connection with the patriotic fund, Mrs. Huestis deplored the fact that no form of visiting the families was carried on.

MR. KIHL'S RECITAL.

Doctor Advised Operation As Only Cure for Piles

Wife Objected to Use of Knife and Cure Was Effected by Use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Here is the affidavit of a well-known fruit grower, who was cured of bleeding piles some years ago by using Dr. Chase's Ointment.

His doctor could do nothing for him and recommended a surgical operation as the only means of cure. Luckily his wife had heard about Dr. Chase's Ointment and complete cure resulted from this treatment.

It is by the cure of extreme cases like this that Dr. Chase's Ointment has won the reputation of being about the only actual cure for piles—itching, bleeding and protruding piles.

Mr. Samuel Parker, fruit grower, Grimsby, Ont., has made the following declaration before Mr. W. W. Kidd, Notary Public, of the same place: "I do solemnly declare that I was troubled with bleeding Piles and was advised to go to the hospital to have an operation performed. My wife said, 'No, get a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment.' I did so and have used it according to directions while living in Manitoba, and obtained a complete cure, for I have never been troubled with Piles since. I am now 70 years of age and want to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to all sufferers from Piles. My wife has used it for itching skin and obtained complete cure."

Mrs. William Schettler, Spy Hill, Sask., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment with great success as a treatment for Piles. About 15 years ago I had this ailment very bad and suffered greatly. By using Dr. Chase's Ointment a complete cure was effected and I have never had a return of the old trouble. It is undoubtedly the best Ointment made and no family should be without it."

Put Dr. Chase's Ointment to the test and it will not disappoint you. Sixty cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

BELGIANS KILLED SPY FOR BETRAYING NURSE

Nels de Rode, Who Delivered Miss Cavell to Germans, Shot in Street.

SOCIETY OF JUSTICE

Secret Organization Ferrets Out and Disposes of Traitors to Country.

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—Further details are reported from the Belgian frontier of the assassination of Nels de Rode, the Belgian who is alleged to have betrayed Miss Edith Cavell, the English nurse executed at Brussels, to the German authorities.

According to this story, the body of a young man who had been killed by two revolver shots was found in a street at Schaarbeek, a suburb of Brussels, early one morning. He was at once recognized as De Rode, a man of 25 years, son of a retired major of the Belgian army. The body lay before the door of the man's parents, but the father refused to receive it and it was taken to the public mortuary.

Immediately the German authorities heard of the case they gave strict orders that the affair should be kept as quiet as possible, but instructed the police at the same time to make every effort to discover the assassin. The news spread like wildfire, however, and before noon all Brussels knew that a man regarded by the Belgians as a traitor had been put to death.

Long Suspected Spy.

The slain man, it is said, had been suspected for a long time of spying for the Germans. It was reported that he, together with an individual of the same stamp, had made a specialty of enticing young men to take service in the Belgian army and then, when they were on the point of leaving the country, of delivering them to the Germans. But recently, it is stated, proof had been obtained that it was De Rode who betrayed Miss Cavell to the Germans, as well as the architect, Baucq, who was put to death with her. From that moment De Rode's death sentence was signed. There is, it appears, a sort of society in Belgium whose members have sworn to levy "justice" on those who do spying service for the Germans. Those who shot De Rode are said to have found papers on him that will enable them to trace other such spies.

In reply to this challenge, General Von Bissing, the German governor of Belgium, not only imposed a fine of $125,000 on Brussels, but levied a fine of $12,000 against Schaarbeek, where the deed was committed. Further the civil police of the latter place, 400 strong, have been disbanded, and the municipal council has to appoint 60 sworn and paid agents in their place.

BERLIN GIVES VERSION OF RAID MADE ON KENT

Bombs Dropped Freely on Harbor Works, Factories and Barracks.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—An official statement issued by the German general naval staff is forwarded by Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent as follows:

"On the afternoon of Feb. 9 some of our naval aeroplanes dropped bombs freely on the harbor works, factories and barracks at Ramsgate, south of the mouth of the Thames."

The official British account of Wednesday's daylight raid said bombs were dropped in the vicinity of Ramsgate and the neighboring Town of Broadstairs, and that the material damage was confined to the shattering of glass. Two women and one child were injured.

FATE OF MONTENEGRO IN HANDS OF ALLIES

King Convinced There Will Be Happy Outcome of Efforts.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—Montenegrin Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs Miouchekovitch, says, in an official statement issued thru the Montenegrin legation at France, like the kings of Belgium and Serbia the king of Montenegro leaves the fate of his kingdom in the hands of his great allies, convinced that there will be a happy outcome for their efforts. He concludes by saying that the king and government are not to be held responsible for what was done after their departure from Montenegro on Jan. 20, or for what may be done under the influence or authority of the invading forces.

WILLS PROBATED

The will of John Larman Linton, which was filed for probate yesterday, disposes of an estate of $33,769. The estate consists of 960 acres in Saskatchewan worth $15,000; 160 acres in North Dakota, promissory notes worth $15,006, and a small bank account. The sum of $100 is given to the trustees of Dundas Street Methodist Church, to be paid after his widow's death. The widow is to receive one-half of the estate and a life interest in the other half.

John Whyte, of 51 Belmont street, who died Jan. 10, 1916, left an estate of $8848. A brother, James C. Whyte, gets the property on Belmont street, the furniture and one-fifth of the rest of the estate. One-fifth of the remainder is given to the five children of a sister, two-fifths to a sister-in-law and the remainder to four nieces and nephews.

The estate of Miss Agnes Stock of Mimico, who died Dec. 28, amounted to $27,846. It will be disposed by administration, as no will was left.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Kirkby leaves an estate of $8079, bequeathing $2500 to her husband and inserting a provision that if any action be taken by him to contest the will, he should be excluded from participating in the estate. Friends and relatives of Mrs. Kirkby received bequests from the residue of the estate.

James A. McCloskey names no executor to his will of Oct. 9, 1910, which was filed for probate. The estate amounts to $1327, and the sole heir is his son, James A. McCloskey of Toronto.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M.
