SAVE ONE CHILD.

How can we help when we have planned so much work and pledged ourselves to give to our utmost already? This is the question asked by many churches and individuals who long to give to the Chinese Famine Fund. Perhaps the actual experience of one whose heart was touched by the need will answer the question.

Belonging to a small struggling congregation which had just bought a lot, and planned to build a new church, knowing that every member was already giving and working to what seemed the limit of their ability to keep up their home and foreign offerings, it seemed useless to attempt an appeal for anything more, and yet—the children were dying.

With the help of several children and members of the family, slips of paper were prepared, bearing this clause: 'Five cents will keep one child alive for a week—will you give five cents?'

Space was left below for ten names, and those slips were offered in the Sunday school to those who cared to take them. The result more than justified the effort, for in one week over thirty dollars was collected.

Those who had slips hardly needed to ask for the money, for not only their own families, but friends, neighbors, and acquaintances hearing of the fact, brought the small sums they had longed to give, yet had hardly felt to be worth sending.

All gifts will be acknowledged in these columns.

Address all contributions to the Famine Fund, care John Dougall and Son, 'Witness' Block, Montreal, Que.
