ST. JOHN MAN IN TROUBLE AT HARTLAND

McAdam Woman Claims Theft of Sweater — New Newspaper for Carleton.

Special to The Standard.

Hartland, Nov. 7.—Officer A. R. Foster received a telegram today from Mrs. Wm. McKenna, at McAdam, asking him to arrest Theophilus Lavigne of St. John, on the charge of having stolen from her a $7 sweater. Lavigne was located at a Chinese laundry here and under promise of immunity from arrest produced the garment, which was returned by the officer to the owner. "Jimmie," as he is known here with another pal, have recently been masquerading in the uniform of the medical corps.

New Newspaper.

Ever since the recent by-election there has been an insistent demand for a newspaper in Carleton and Victoria counties that would handle the news without personal bias, and at the same time deal with political questions in a clean, manly manner. The people want less mud-slinging and to this end a movement is on foot to establish a good, clean weekly paper which will support the present administrations at Fredericton and Ottawa. A meeting of leaders of the project was held on Saturday night and the formation of a joint stock company was favored, with a capitalization of about $5,000. After the preliminaries are attended to a new plant will be purchased and set up in Hartland. The plant will be up-to-date in every respect, and will have a book and job department in connection. The new paper, it is expected, will make its bow to the public about the first of December.

The ladies of Hartland Temple Pythian Sisters, as a part of their altruistic work, have knit and forwarded several pairs of socks to members of Brighton Lodge, Knights of Pythias, who are now serving their king and country at the front.

The Standard is now on sale after the arrival of the noon mail every day at the fruit store of T. G. Simms.

Mr. Percy Tilley, of Victoria, left last week for Amesbury, Mass., where he has a position in an auto factory.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Nevers on Saturday went to Fredericton for a few days' visit with friends.

The price of potatoes on Saturday went up to $3.50 here and as high as $3.65 at Florenceville. While a considerable quantity go to the Upper Canadian market, the major portion of the shipments are to the Cuban markets.

Pie socials were held at Simonds and Somerville last week in aid of the Belgian Relief Fund, and about $150 was raised between the two events.

CANADA SHOULD AWAKEN

Sir George Foster Says Canadians "Sound Asleep" in Preparations for After The War Period.

Toronto, Nov. 7—"If the bells of peace were to ring tomorrow, the war machine, great as it is, would stop dead, and nine-tenths of it would be idle," said Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, in an address to the Empire Club today on the subject of "Trade Preparation for Coming Peace."

He knew of no country in the world today which was so sound asleep as Canada in the matters of preparation for the afterwar period.

"Many of you," he said, "during the war have been turned out of your old peace-time customs. You have had your pockets stuffed with war orders which have come to you, but when these war orders are stopped you will have to turn out and hustle for the business you have not known for two or three years. Is it better to wait until that time comes, with its maze of confusion, or to begin now to prepare for it?"

"Go over to England and you will find that in that country, from its heart to its very rim, in spite of war activities, busy minds are engaged in working with capital and business ability at plans of preparation for the period after the war."

The fair will be continued for one week with door prizes each night and a grand prize at the end of the week.

Soldiers' Comforts.

The monthly business meeting of the Soldiers' Comfort Association will be held Wednesday at three p.m. in the Centenary church parlors.

ADVANCE IN EGG-DRINKS AT SOME SODA FOUNTAINS

In at Least One Place Fifteen Cents is Charged Instead of Ten—High Price of Eggs Said to be Cause.

"An egg-nogg, please," said the young man as he stepped up to the refreshment counter in a local confectionery store. "What flavor will you have," inquired the soda dispenser. "Chocolate," replied the thirsty individual. After drinking the liquid served he laid down ten cents on the soda slab and started for the door. "Hold on, there," called the clerk. "I want another nickel." "That's a ten-cent piece," answered the young man. "I know it is, but egg drinks are ten cents now. "Thank goodness," said the young man, "I did not bring a girl with me, as I had only twenty cents."

On making inquiries a reporter learned that since the 2nd of November the price of an egg drink, in which there is required only one egg, has been advanced in some stores to fifteen cents in place of ten. Two eggs in any sort of an egg drink will now cost twenty cents, where it formerly cost but fifteen.

At no time in the history of the Dominion has the necessity for increased production of eggs been more apparent than at the present time.

The reason given for the shortage in Canada is that this country is exporting large quantities of eggs to England and other European countries. Between seven and eight million dozen of eggs were shipped to Great Britain last year, and measured by the shipment which left New York last week for Europe, it looks as though the number exported last year would be materially increased this season.

If the farmers continue to ship their eggs to foreign markets as they have been in the past few years, Canada will, at no distant date, be importing the same number of eggs she is now exporting.

As it is now only the wealthy can afford the use of eggs for cooking purposes, as the price ranges from 45c. to 55c. And by all accounts another advance is pending.

Electric Headlights.

The Boston train which leaves St. John at breakfast time has indulged in an innovation. When the locomotive headlights are turned on in Maine the illumination is produced by a battery. As soon as the change can be made all of the passenger trains running between sunset and sunrise in Maine on the lines controlled by the Boston & Maine and Maine Central will have electric headlights.

WOMEN TAKING PLACES OF MEN IN LOCAL BANKS

At Present they are Merely Replacing Men who have Gone to Front, but Experiment, so far, has been Success.

One of the most notable changes brought about by the war is the presence of women in the banks, occupying positions which it was popularly supposed could only be filled satisfactorily by men.

So many of the men engaged in the banking business have enlisted, that as a last resort it was decided to try out the employment of women, and all the banks today have women on their staffs. They are engaged in all branches of the business with the exception of the teller's cage as far as this city is concerned, although it is understood that in some of the Upper Canadian cities they have even been seen in that position.

The managers of several of local banks were interviewed yesterday on the subject, and were unanimous in declaring that while the employment of women was first tried with fear and trembling, the experiment had been a decided success, and the women had established for themselves a place in the banking world. Questioned as to what effect this would have on the after-the-war problems they would not express any opinion saying it was one of the things which would have to be settled then.

One manager said: The women in their employ were engaged on the understanding that it was only for the period of the war, when the men returned they were to get their positions back, and no woman would be kept by them who was taking the place of a returned soldier. At the same time he believed that the experiment of employing women had been a success, and more of them would be found in the banking business in the future.

One thing against their employment in large numbers was the fact that they could not be transferred from place to place as readily as the young men, and where a bank had a number of branches women would not be as desirable as men for that reason.

SERIOUS RIOT BREAKS OUT IN QUEBEC CITY

Four Hundred Soldiers Participate in General Melee—Seven Seriously Injured.

Quebec, Nov. 7.—A row among some four hundred soldiers last night, on St. John street, developed into a riot where knives, belts, iron bars and almost every weapon except revolvers were brought into play and caused a riot call to the military pickets.

At least seven soldiers sustained serious wounds.

It appears that for some time men of the 171st Overseas Battalion have had resentment against a military pickets for arrests.

A number of bars, stores and the Y. M. C. A., were rushed, and the entrances badly damaged by the mob which, after an hour's fight, was brought to order. Arrests are expected.

KILTIES OPEN HEADQUARTERS IN TORONTO

Prospects Throughout Ontario and the West for Sir Sam's Own Very Favorable

Special to The Standard.

Toronto, Nov. 7.—Headquarters for the 236th Kilties Battalion campaign in Ontario have been opened in the C.P.R. building in this city. Spacious offices for carrying on the work have been placed at the disposal of the MacLean Kilties by the railroad officials and already sufficient funds for carrying on the recruiting campaign in Ontario have been subscribed by members of Clan MacLean, while they have also undertaken to raise the necessary money to provide kilts of the tartan of MacLean of Duart for those enlisted in this province.

Col. Guthrie Home Today.

Lt. Col. Guthrie left last night for Montreal en route to New Brunswick, and Major Frank Eason, adjutant of the 236th Battalion, is remaining here in charge of affairs. Yesterday Lt. Col. Guthrie was a guest of the Canadian Club when Sir George Foster was speaker at a luncheon and following a meeting of the MacLeans to prepare for the Kilties campaign, he addressed Victoria Lodge, one of the biggest of local Orange organizations, on the Gunpowder Plot.

Reports from northern Ontario show that the prospects for the MacLean Kilties there are also bright. The MacLeans have made Fort William their headquarters for that district and they expect to raise a company there. Lt. Col. Guthrie has been asked to visit Fort William and address a meeting there while on his way to the west next month and he will probably do so. Before leaving here he received word from Major C. G. Geggie, medical officer of the Kilties, that at Regina the party from Fredericton had been enthusiastically received and that Lieut. Col. Edgar, himself a former New Brunswicker, had promised to do everything in his power to assist. He suggested that there should be a full company raised with its headquarters in Regina.

Lt. Col. Guthrie is expected to arrive in Fredericton tomorrow at noon.

Thanks, old man, for telling me about

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

It has given me back my old time vigor and made me strong and well

This is the way people feel about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It arouses the enthusiasm of those who use it because of its remarkable restorative and up-building influence.

It lifts them out of the tired, nervous and helpless condition resulting from exhausted nerves, restores health and vigor and makes life worth living.

Sleeplessness, irritability, nervous headache, indigestion, and all the warning symptoms of nervous collapse disappear when this great food cure is used to nourish the nerve cells back to health.

Nervous Collapse

Mr. Victor Higgs, Windham Hill, Cumberland Co., N.S., writes:

"My case was a peculiar one. It was one of those strange nervous diseases which are so difficult to describe. The doctor said that my nervous system was all run down. I experienced that uncertainty in walking which indicates the approach of paralysis and locomotor ataxia, and I now realize that I am greatly indebted to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the great good it has done me.

"I could not work, read or write, or do anything requiring energy or the concentration of mind. Before using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I could not get an hour's sleep all night. My brain and nerves seemed to be all unsettled. I sleep well now, and believe that my nervous system has been fully built up by this splendid medicine."

Sciatic Rheumatism

Mr. W. J. Talbot, Edenwold, Sask., writes: "It is a great pleasure for me to recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a cure for sciatic rheumatism. The pain I have suffered from sciatica has been well nigh unbearable. It would start in the hips and run down the legs to the toes, gradually getting worse. The nerves contract until one is practically useless. My doctor tried many different treatments, but could only afford relief for a time.

"For about five years I was subject to this trouble, with severe attacks which would last about two months. The last attack I had was shortened to two weeks by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills used in conjunction with it. This treatment was continued until I was satisfied that the cure was lasting."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. H. E. Wooley, J.P.

It rests entirely with you as to whether you benefit by these experiences of others. If you could talk with persons who have used this treatment and note their enthusiasm you would not be long in putting it to the test in your own case.
