Shipping Notes.

Schooner George Calhoun, Prince, master, which arrived at this port last evening with a cargo of flour from Portland, has made the round trip including discharging and loading days, in 11 days. She cleared hence for Portland, with empty oil barrels, on the 11th inst., arriving at that port on the 12th, after a run of 25 hours, discharging cargo and took in her return freight, arriving at this port on the 23rd.

Schooner Monsita, Reynolds, master, which arrived at this port yesterday from Cienfuegos, with a cargo of molasses, has made for her owner, M. Pomares, in the short space of about four months the neat little sum of about $7000 in gold, since she sailed from this port for Cardenas on the 22nd of October. The Monsita is a new vessel, three masted, and registers about 256 tons. She is as handsomely modelled a craft as sails out of this port, and to all appearances is likely to prove remunerative to her owner. She has again been chartered for Cuba with shooks, and will proceed as quickly as possible. Having encountered severe weather on her passage home she will require a new topmast and other slight repairs.

The Brigantine Chimboraza made another attempt to leave port yesterday but was obliged to put back.

Brigt. Belle Watters, Shaw, master, hich arrived at Cardiff on the 5th inst., from Rotterdam, had been in collision in Penarth Roads, and lost anchors and chains.

Bark Ermina, Phillips, master, which cleared at Tybee on the 9th inst. for Brunswick, G. A., previously arrived at St. Thomas, Buenos Ayres on the 28th ult., and sailed the same day for Tybee. The entire trip, from her arrival at St. Thomas to her clearing at Tybee only occupying 12 days. The Ermina was built at Yarmouth, N. S., and is owned at that port and by Robt. J. Leonard of this city.

The schooner Humming Bird, Finley, master, which arrived at this port with flour from Portland, has made a quick round trip. She sailed from this port about the 6th inst., with lumber for Boston, arriving at that port on the 9th, where she was detained until the 19th, when she sailed for Portland, took in a cargo of flour at that port and arrived here on the 23rd, making the run from Boston to this port, including loading days at Portland, in 4 days.

The steamer New Brunswick made an extra trip to this port, arriving yesterday morning. She brought on a large quantity of Grand Trunk and Ocean Steamship freight which has accumulated there. Having discharged she sailed again in ballast at 10 o'clock last evening, and will leave Portland at 12 o'clock to-night, arriving here early Wednesday morning in time to connect with the steamer Scud for Digby and Annapolis. She will leave on time for Portland on Thursday morning.

LIFE LIKE AND MORE DURABLE THAN OIL.—J. Hinch, Prince William street, is now producing enlarged photographs, finished in India Ink, that are marvels of beauty and finish. Portraits by this process are exhibited in the window of Messrs. Barnes & Co., Stationers. tf

Two Bold Burglarious Attempts Defeated.

On Thursday night a lady and her husband living on Mecklenburg street were aroused from their slumbers by some unusual noise outside. The gentleman jumped up, looked out and saw a man on a ladder, which rested against the house, trying to force open the window. He went as quickly as possible to assist his midnight visitor in his endeavors to enter the house, but, strange to say, the individual did not appreciate his kindness.

"Not an instant stopped or stayed he,
Not the least obeisance made he,"

but was down the ladder and off as quickly as he could make his legs do service. Next night the servant, who was awake, heard a noise about 12 o'clock, and, with the thoughts of the night before in her mind, looked out, and saw a man across the yard trying to effect an entrance into a neighbor's house in the same manner as was tried the previous evening. She quietly informed one of the inmates of the house, who put on his boots and went out. The prowler was alarmed in some way, and again made off, but was met at the gate by our friend armed with a stout stick. He caught the burglar and threw him down. The fellow jumped up and ran, but suddenly received a blow on the head which again brought him down, and which would certainly have broken his skull only that his head was protected by a thick fur cap. He again sprang to his feet, jumping at least twelve feet, and started determined to depend on his legs rather than his muscle. Through Mecklenburg street he ran, closely followed by his pursuer, fear lending speed to his limbs. The chase was given up at Queen Square. The man is described as being well dressed in close fitting brown overcoat and sealskin cap. For what purpose, whether for plunder, or with "Tarquin's ravishing strides" he came, the people of both houses cannot say. It certainly is the boldest and most determined effort to get into two houses that has been heard of for some time, and a certain gentleman is very anxious to find a man with a large lump on his head, which he knows must be there.

Runaway.

This forenoon Mr. Frank Lewin's horse took fright on King street and ran furiously down the street, across the Market Square, and disappointed those looking for excitement by quietly stopping at his master's door. The proprietor of a city paper, in his anxiety to see the runaway, slipped and fell in front of Messrs. Manchester, Robertson & Allison's establishment, but was not seriously injured.

Auction Sale of Real Estate

Messrs. Lockhart & Chipman sold at auction to-day, a property belonging to the estate of the late David Jones. The property is situated in Indiantown, opposite Messrs. Price & Shaw's carriage factory. James Graham, Esq., was the purchaser, at $1400.

New Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Arrangements are now completed for instituting a new Lodge of this Order in Fredericton Tursday. Deputy Grand Master Alex. Robertson, Grand Secretary R. Radford Barnes, and other officers of the Grand Lodge of the Lower Provinces, go up for the purpose. An excursion has been arranged, and a large number of the members of Pioneer and Beacon Lodges will accompany the Grand Officers to take part in the ceremonies. Tickets are for sale at the Globe office and at the office of John E. Hughes, Esq., Prince William street, and members of the Order intending to go are requested to get their tickets or hand in their names as soon as possible, so that the committee can make all necessary arrangements. The gentlemen having the matter in hand at Fredericton are anxious to see as many of the members from St. John as possible.

Employment Wanted by an Immigrant.

A young man who arrived by the last mail steamer from England is anxious to get employment of some kind. He has a wife and three children depending on him, and is willing to engage in any honorable work that will support him. Having been a bandsman, he can act as instructor on several instruments, or as a drill instructor. Any one having work for him can address John Cunningham at the TRIBUNE office.

City Police Court.

The usual crowd of Monday spectators were disappointed at seeing only three in the dock this morning. After the prisoners had been removed the crowd still lingered longingly around as if expecting something more, but at last dispersed evidently dissatisfied.

Jobert J. Paul and William Wales were drunk on Market street, and Joseph Daly was in the same condition on Charlotte street. They were all fined $8.

Portland Police Court.

Judge Tapley had a larger number of cases to dispose of than he has had for some time.

James Barry, Patrick Murphy and John Sullivan were acting in a disorderly manner and using profane language on the streets; the two former were fined $10 each and the latter $8.

James McDermott was charged with behaving very badly in his mother's house and assaulting his mother and sister. The magistrate imposed a fine of $20 on him for his unfeeling and unbrotherly conduct.

Robert Burns was drunk at mid-day Saturday on Sheriff street. The magistrate fined him $6, partly for being drunk at such an unseasonable hour.

James Powers and John Johnston were brought before the court for attempting to make a sleeping apartment of the Indiantown Ferry Boat, against the will of the watchman on board. They were fined $4 each.

The Common Council to the Rescue.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

SIR,—By what, to use a very mild term, may be styled an adroit move, of one or two property holders, at a recent meeting of the Sessions, the City and County rate-payers will probably fail to secure, this season at least, even a moderate relief from the unjust system of taxation which at present obtains throughout the whole County. These remarks do not however apply with equal force to the City, as the Common Council may come to its relief and frame a more equitable law, so that the great burthen of taxation may not be thrown upon income, directly and indirectly, as at present by law provided.

Let the Common Council now attend to this matter, and, at the same time, take another step which our interests imperatively demand, viz: provide, by resolution of said Council, for the immediate and thorough valuation of all city property, for it is absurd to value this interest, as was the case last year, at less than $28,000,000, when the real estate and personal property of the city, will upon a fair estimate, taking the saleable value, reach an agregate in the vicinity of Thirty Millions of Dollars.

Freights.

NEW YORK, Feb 18—Our port has not been so bare of available tonnage for a long period, and with a similar paucity of supply at the outports, the freight market continues to have a very strong support, with business in consequence much restricted. With the exception of Provisions and Petroleum, there is not much pressure of freight for trans Atlantic ports. Considerable tonnage, mainly German, Norwegian and British, has been taken up to arrive, on speculation, at rates for the most part somewhat below those which would be paid to handy vessels. Small and medium sized tonnage continues in fair request for the West India and coastwise trade at full figures. For the South American trade vessels are in active demand, and to the River Plate higher figures are current. Long voyage business continues slow. Engagements to Liverpool, per sail, Bacon 30s; Lard 32s 6d; and per steam, Cotton 5 16 @ ⅜d; Apples, 4s; Flour 3s; Pork 4s 6d; Corn 6¾d; Wheat 7d; Oil Cake, 27s 6d.
