The Toronto Hunt.

Tuesday at 3 o'clock saw the hounds of the above hunt muster at O'Halloran's, Deer Park, where a strong contingent of Toronto's sporting element did "congregate," not omitting a good sprinkling of fair Dianas, a few minutes later, when the order to make a move is issued by the ever-courteous and popular master, Mr. George Beaumont, captain Allen whipped into by Munford and Phillip carried the horn; some ten couple of hounds, with coats blooming in the summer-like sun and looking wonderfully fit, with plenty of lush, were eager for the tray, a mile or so brought us to the trysting place, a few seconds the line was hit, the horn resounded to the tongue of the beauties, the music of which is to a huntsman's ear the only true music in the world. It was anything but a good scenting day, yet hounds stuck to their quarry in the gamest manner, and one had to sit down and ride to keep to their sterns, the fences wanted a good deal of doing, and not a few would have felt far more comfortable had another rail been taken down. However, the pels stuck to the beauties in workmanlike fashion, there being at least eight or ten up at our first check, after 32 minutes fast work, to the Don Flats; a few minutes' breathing time; we then trotted west for half a mile. Hounds were again laid on, and "forrard," away! to the music of the black and tan. We did some slow hunting down wind to a very indifferent scent, but to a practical eye no prettier sight could have presented itself, hounds working out the line and casting themselves when they found themselves in error. Warrior gives tongue; the whole pack joins in the chorus, and we had another 25 minutes' checking at Bedford Park; only a minute or two was wasted; the horn was again sounded; hounds picked up the scent like magic, swinging in an easterly direction, we galloped away up wind over a heavy plow country for 35 minutes, and ran into our quarry in the grounds of Upper Canada College. Considering the heat and the dryness of the soil no hounds on earth could have hunted better. Many's the regrets heard on every side that the season is fast drawing to a close, on such it is, and we must find pleasures anew until the curtain rises again in the fall, and the welkin resounds again to the music of the horn, and the hound. With our popular and deserving Master at the helm, may I be there to form one of the many to give him the welcome he so richly deserves. Veritas.

Jockey Coburn's Charge.

Charges made by Jockey Coburn at Memphis that Emil Herz of the firm of Durnell & Herz offered him a bribe to pull the horse Von Dare in order that Golden Rule might win, furnished the sensation of the Memphis Jockey Club race meeting. Coburn is employed by George C. Bennett & Co.

When the case came up to the judges it was a case of the jockey's word against that of Herz's, and there was no option with the officials but to consider the denial as good as the accusation. S. M. Montgomery, the president of the Memphis Jockey Club, is said to have taken the jockey's part and advocated Herz's exclusion from the turf. Others sided with Herz, and no action was taken.

"Boots" Durnell, Herz's partner, was so incensed at Coburn's charges that he assaulted the jockey. In the race in which Coburn claims the bribe was offered both If You Dare and Golden Rule were beaten by Semper Vivum, so that the firm of Durnell & Herz, who own Golden Rule, did not profit by the result, unless, perchance, they bet on Semper Vivum. The case has attracted much attention.

No More Bets on Cardigan.

The Toronto Turf Club reports that the interest in the King's Plate increases as race day approaches. Seagram's entry still rules favorite at 7 to 5, the heavy play on Ely-in-Amber from Wateroo accounting for this price. Scotland Yet is fancied by the Hamilton speculators, his individual price being quoted at 8 to 1, the stable at 3 to 1. Clancy's entry has receded to 20 to 1. Davies' entry, on account of Farmers' Foe's remarkable work causing a heavy play, the stable is now quoted at 12 to 1. Commissions from Barcelona, ranging from $10 to $100, have been booked on the Dyment trio. Montreal betters are down to a man on Cardigan, and, at the 15 to 1 is quoted against him straight, he is marked full, place and show. Following are the latest quotations:

Cardigan's Fast Work.

The weather at the Woodbine yesterday was propitious, and, with a fast track, the candidates were out in large numbers. Some were only given useful gallops by their trainers, while others were sent along at a merry clip, to the delight of the rail birds, who were early on the scene. Cardigan, the second choice for the King's Plate, showed her speed by going a mile and an eighth in 2.11, but could have done much better, if allowed. Hugh Alexander's Ottawa candidate, Narod, galloped six furlongs in 1.25, while Doric, a Plate entry, was sent by Jockey Lendrum a mile in 1.55. Odds and Ends galloped mile in 1.54¼, while Mrs. Giddings' May King, accompanying Odds and Ends for six furlongs, covered the distance in 1.26. Davies' candidates Trustee, Farthingale, Penny Whistle, ran three-quarters of a mile in 1.26. Hendrie's horses were out in three sets, while his green hunter, Queen's Lady, with 140 pounds up, covered three furlongs in 39¾. Percentum was sent by Bunt Flint seven furlongs, the last six in 1.25. Murray Hendrie's Ten Below Zero galloped a mile in 1.57, and the last three-eighths in .44½, and Meagher's Procession a mile at a two-minute clip. Zola and Matt Simpson, steeplechase horses, were given useful work, while Dave Boyle's Witful Queen worked a mile in 1.50.

EXHIBITION GAMES OVER

Torontos Wind Up Practice Series by an Easy Victory Over Amateur Team.

ANOTHER PITCHER IS SECURED

Kissinger Comes From Manager Barrow and Detroit Drops First Game.

The champion Torontos wound up their exhibition series on Tuesday, and to-morrow they go up against Irwin's Bronchos at Rochester in a real game. Yesterday the amateurs were again easy prey, tho they secured a couple of runs.

While Toronto is away the grounds will not be altogether deserted, as the senior leaguers take possession on Saturday, when two games are on the program: Capitals vs. Cadets and Crippers vs. Crescents.

The Torontos leave to-night for Rochester, Manager Gardner taking along fifteen men—Pearson, Briggs, Hemming, Mason and Kissinger, pitchers, the last named having been released to Toronto yesterday by Manager Barrow of Detroit; Tort and Brennan, catchers; Massey, first base; Sailer, second base; Downey, short stop; Carr, third base; White, left field; Golden, centre field; Kuhns, right field, and Wiedensaul, utility man. McNeil, Hale and Brownell will be offered to Providence, and Ryan and R. O. Miller will probably be farmed.

Manager Barrow met with his first reverse of the season yesterday, Chicago scoring a victory over Detroit.

Final Victory for Toronto.

The Torontos wound up their series of exhibition games yesterday at Diamond Park and made the long string of wins complete. The professionals had another big day with the stick, the score ending 24 to 2. To-morrow the real article begins with Toronto at Rochester, and it is safe to say that the champions have the best record of straight victories of any team in any of the leagues. Tuesday's score.

Kept Out Kingston.

Burlington, Vt., April 28.—A baseball organization was perfected here, to be known as the International League. The cities in the league are Montreal, Burlington, Rutland, St. Albans, Pittsburgh and Malone. The city of Kingston, Ont., was represented, but was not included in the league owing to the distance teams would have to jump to reach there. The season of the league is to open not earlier than June 25 and to close not later than Sept. 10. Matters pertaining to the league were discussed at length, and a agreement was passed whereby the salary list of any club shall not exceed $1000 per month. Officers were elected as follows: President, Col. G. T. Childs of St. Albans; vice-president, J. A. Clark of Montreal; J. S. Colvin of Rutland, E. C. Ryder of Malone and R. H. Robinson of Burlington; secretary and treasurer, W. F. Holt of Plattsburgh. A meeting of the Executive Committee will be called by Col. Childs some time next week, when a schedule of games will be arranged.

Toronto Players in Regina.

Regina, April 28.—Play ball will soon be the word, and when the season opens up Regina will have more teams on the field than ever before, and if indications go for anything, of much higher quality. At the annual meeting of the club all the reports were satisfactory, the treasurer showing a balance on the right side. A local league will be formed, and a team entered in a league, to include Lumsden, Qu'Appelle, Moose Jaw and Medicine Hat. From the material in sight it is expected that Regina will be able to put a very strong aggregation on the diamond this season. The following officers were elected: Hon. president, Walter Scott, M.P.; president, W. Cummings; 1st vice-president, A. Jones; 2nd vice-president, M. J. Hughes; secretary, Lorne Sweet; treasurer, R. B. Ferguson; manager, B. Acaster; committee, R. Matheson, E. Trowbridge, T. B. Patton, A. L. Norris, N. McLean and R. Mullin. The practice game here last week resulted:
