Subscription Premiums.

Any paid up subscriber will receive 25 cents commission on each yearly subscription sent at $1.00. And anyone not now a subscriber, by becoming such, can get up clubs on same terms.

Through the voluntary kindness of a few of our best breeders, we are enabled to offer the following inducements:—

I hereby offer to the person first obtaining from this date twenty new subscribers to your POULTRY REVIEW at one dollar each, one pair of B.B.R. Games, to be delivered after 1st October next. They will be from my prize winning pedigree pair, "Mr. Henry" and "Jenny;" score of cock, 92½ hen 93.

Yours truly,

W. H. RICHEY, Jr.

Halifax, N. S., May 23rd.

I will give one setting of eggs, Brown or White Leghorn, to the person that sends you five yearly subscriptions to the Review; and a fine pair of Brown or White chicks,—to be delivered about October 15th, 1879—to the one that sends you 15 yearly subscriptions at $1 each.

Yours truly,

W. STAHLSCMIDT,
Preston, Ont.

Permit me to offer a pair of Buff Cochins, from Mr P. Breidings stock, and very nice birds too, to any one getting up a club of twelve yearly subscribers to Review, at $1.00 each. Birds to be shipped at any time after September 1st 1879.,

S. SPELLETT.
Lefroy, Ont.

For every five new subscribers at $1.00 each, I will give one setting of eggs from any variety I breed except Black Hamburgs.

SHARP BUTTERFIELD,
Sandwich, Ont.

BREEDERS ADDRESS CARDS of two lines in Review for $1.00 per year.

Mr. J. G. JONES, of Forest, Ont., has raised a fine lot of B. B. R. Game chicks, from his imported birds, this season.

We will get out a very large number of extra copies of September issue, for circulation at the fall exhibition. Those who have stock for sale will find it to their advantage to get their advertisements into that number. Send in copy early.

THE PROPRIETOR OF THE "QUEEN CITY BANTAM YARDS" PURCHASING AGAIN.—Mr. W. J. Way has just received from E. R. Spaulding, of Jaffray, N. H., two bantam cocks, one Silver and one Yellow Duckwing. Mr. Spaulding says, "They are two of the finest Duckwing bantam cocks ever bred in or brought to this country." Mr. Way pays $60 for them. We believe he can justly claim to have the finest collection of Game Bantams on this continent.

Editor Review,

Dear Sir,—Can you inform me, as to the standing of C. E. L. Hayward, of Peterboro, N. H. I shipped him fowls and baskets to the value of $23.00, taking him to be a gentleman, but my dealings with him have proved the reverse. I have written him three times but can receive no answer. I am of the opinion that he belongs to a certain class, the name of which occasionally appear in the "black list," or in plain words "a dead beat."

Respectfully yours,

DUNCAN KAY.

Drumbo, Aug. 4th, 1879.

Late of Galt.

We were favored with Mr. Hayward's patronage also. Our bill was returned with the following laconic note, without signature:

"Peterboro', June 11.
"Mr. H. has had bad luck, and all his fowls have gone into other hands, and he has gone West."

From another source we learn that Mr. H. is broken down in health and purse, and is now in Arkansas, but that an effort is being made to arrange his affairs and have him return.

BEST BOOK FOR EVERYBODY.—The new illustrated edition of Webster's Dictionary, containing three thousand engravings, is the best book for everybody that the press has produced in the present century, and should be regarded as indispensable to the well-regulated home, reading-room, library, and place of business.—Golden Era.
