LIBERAL CONVENTION.

To the Liberals of York County.

It being evident that a general election of representatives to serve in the Parliament of Canada is near at hand, and a number of Conservatives called in convention, having nominated the Hon. Geo. E. Foster, who has abandoned his present constituency of Kings, to contest the seat for the County of York, a number of Liberals met in consultation and appointed the undersigned a committee to summon a

Convention of the Liberals of York,

To nominate a Candidate representing the views of the Liberal party. The undersigned do therefore, pursuant to the authority given them, request and summon a Convention of the Liberal Electors of the County of York, to assemble at the

IN A QUANDARY.

Dr. McLeod finds it Difficult to give the Prohibitionists an Answer.

The York Prohibition convention met again Thursday afternoon to hear Rev. Dr. McLeod's answer, whether he would or would not accept the nomination offered him for Parliament. Dr. McLeod, however, did not make a definite declaration, and his friends gave him till Monday next to further consider the matter. The Doctor in addressing the convention said he was in a difficult position, having been nominated by the conventions of York and Kings counties. He had thought about it a great deal during the week and he was present at the meeting much perplexed. Quite a feeling seemed to exist throughout the country that he should contest some constituency in the coming federal contest. But there were considerations pressing on his mind that made it hard for him to come to a decision. He was a preacher of the gospel and expected to live and die such, and therefore he felt that it would be inexpedient for him to follow any course that would interfere with his duties as a preacher. The offer from Kings and York had been weighing on his mind all week and he dare not decide today because of the element of uncertainty which hovered through his mind. Should he decline to accept the nomination, and the charge was raised against him that he had deserted the party in the hour of need, it would be very galling to him.

T. H. Colter, ex-M. P. P., addressed the convention, urging Dr. McLeod to accept the nomination. Speeches in the same strain were made by W. T. L. Reed, D. W. Estabrooks, B. N. Goodspeed, Wm. Smith, W. L. McFarlane and Mr. Estabrooks of Marysville. Dr. McLeod said it was impossible for him to give a decided answer. He felt that the convention should not extend longer time to him for decision; they had already waited long enough.

M. Lemont thereupon moved, and B. A. Everett seconded, that Dr. McLeod be given until Monday, the 25th inst., to finally decide what he would do, and this was accepted.

Commercial Men.

The Montreal Herald publishes an excellent sketch of the Dominion commercial travellers' association, and accompanies it with photos of the officers and members. Among the latter we notice looming up, the pleasant and familiar features of our esteemed friend and fellow citizen, Geo. Y. Dibble, the Agitator as he is sometimes called. In sketching some of the leading members of the association the Herald says: Geo. Y. Dibblee, Fredericton, N. B., the maritime representative of Messrs. Rattray & Co., wholesale tobacconists, Montreal, has been with his present employers for six years. He is quite an experienced hand in his profession, having been on the road for fifteen years, during which time he has travelled exclusively in the Maritime Provinces. He was formerly representative of Messrs. H. Haswell & Co., wholesale druggists, Montreal, then for Ganong Bros., and afterwards for the St. Croix Soap Co., St. Stephen.

J. Herbert Porter, representative of the Bissell Carpet Sweeper Company, is a native of Fredericton, N. B. He started business in the dry goods' establishment of J. J. Weddall, of that city. After twelve years in the dry goods and gents furnishing business he took to the road as a manufacturer's agent, travelling in the Maritime Provinces, representing various lines. He is now with the Bissel Carpet Sweeper Company, Grand Rapids, Mich., looking after their large Canadian business.

Mr. O'Mally Injured.

On Wednesday afternoon, says the Montreal Star, W. J. O'Mally, of D. McCall & Co., met with a serious accident at the warehouse of the firm, Notre Dame street. Mr. O'Mally was standing at a door in the rear of the building, which overlooks a small court which communicates with the basements of the surrounding buildings. Some way or other he lost his balance and fell to the court below, which is of concrete, a distance of about 25 feet. When picked up Mr. O'Mally was unconscious, but recovered by the time medical aid arrived. He sustained a severe fracture of the leg and was badly bruised and shaken. He was conveyed to the Royal Victoria Hospital. [Mr. O'Mally is one of the best known travellers doing the Maritime circuit, and has lots of friends in Fredericton who regret to hear of his misfortune.—HERALD.]

Came For a Wife.

Among the arrivals in the city last night, was Malcolm McLeod, the stalwart, good-looking editor of the Charlottetown Guardian, who has come to Fredericton for a wife. The ceremony will take place at the Methodist church at 11 a.m., Tuesday, and the bride will be Miss Blanche Thompson, daughter of J. A. Thompson, Regent street. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Grace Thompson, and both will wear blue serge travelling suits. Arthur Thompson, brother of the bride, will support Mr. McLeod, and Rev. Mr. Tippett will perform the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod will leave at once for their home in Charlottetown, followed by the good wishes of many friends in Fredericton. Mr. McLeod, besides being a very worthy fellow, is a real live grit editor, and is to be congratulated on being about to secure a bright, capable and popular young lady for his helpmeet. The Herald in advance exends its felicitations.

A Warning to the Dominion Government.

In the Orange grand lodge at Moncton on Thursday the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

That inasmuch as an effort is being made by the Roman Catholic ecclesiastical authorities to force the federal government of Canada to grant special legislation on behalf of the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba and to force separate schools upon that province, thus interferring with provincial rights and trampling upon the principles of civil and religious liberty, which are ever dear to the enlightened citizens of this country.

Therefore resolved, that we do pledge ourselves not to vote for or in any way support candidates at the next federal elections who will not on or before the day of election pledge themselves to oppose any interference with the legislative rights of Manitoba and the unjust demands of the Roman Catholic church.

In 1867, says the Halifax Herald in reviewing past events and leading men in that city, Halifax boasted of two great builders, George Blaiklock and John Brookfield. They were both Englishmen, knew their business thoroughly and were looked upon as two of the most competent men in their line. Some of the most stately and substantial structures in Halifax were erected by them. They were men of character, square in all their dealings and consequently esteemed by all who knew them. [Mr. Blaiklock, now deceased, was the father of Mrs. Harry Beckwith, Mrs. Godfrey Godkin and Mrs. Dibb of this city.—HERALD.]

In the Legislature Thursday evening, Hon. Mr. Mitchell committed a bill amending the act relating to shorthand reporting in the courts. At present the reporters received $800 a year, which was felt to be too small. Under the present bill the maxium rate was fixed at $1,200. The bill also provided that the reporters should be employed in the divorce court.—It was agreed to. The gentlemen who get the deserved raise in their salaries, are F. H. Risteen, of this city, Fred Devine and W. H. Fry, of St. John.

The House and galleries last night enjoyed a lively rally between Mr. Killam and Mr. Powell, in which the popular Moncton representative downed the man from Tantramar. We have never heard Mr. Killam speak so spiritedly and effectively as he did last night. He was very warmly cheered.

DEAF AND DUMB SCHOOL.

Some Extracts from the last Annual Report of Sup't Woodbridge.

The Financial Balance Sheet.

The Herald has received the report for 1894 of Prof. Woodbridge on the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Fredericton, and we make some interesting extracts therefrom, as follow:

The Fredericton Institution, for the education of the Deaf and Dumb of this Province, was established in 1882, amid numerous difficulties and with little prospect of overcoming the opposition from various quarters which beset the inception of the work on all sides, but having a strong faith in the righteousness of our cause and fully believing in the needs of our Province for such an institution, we pressed forward to the gaol which lay before us, which was to establish the Institution on such a firm and solid basis, as would last for all time and be of benefit to the deaf mute children of this and future generations.

During the past twelve years the work has steadily progressed, enlarging its sphere and circle of friends year by year, overcoming every obstacle and discouragement and attaining that prosperity in which we see the Institution today.

In congratulating you, gentlemen of the committee, and all friends of the Institution, on the success which has attended the work, we looked forward to the attainment of better results, a greater growth and a more complete realization of our aims.

We would appeal to our Legislature for a compulsory law to ensure the attendance of children and for increased means to carry out those improvements and extensions which are necessary to make the institution what it should be, and enable it to do all the good it aims to accomplish.

The general health of the whole establishment has left nothing to be desired, not a single case of sickness having occurred during last year.

The services of S. Sheldon Pride, of the Normal school, have been secured as collector and assistant in the general work of the institution.

Miss Annie Crozier, of Welsford, Queens Co., has been appointed as supervisor of the girls. Miss Crozier, being an educated deaf mute, is familiar with the sign language and methods of teaching and has already endeared herself to the pupils in her charge. She entered on her duties in October last.

The large barn of the institution which was erected at a cost of upwards of $700, was destroyed by fire in September last. It contained the greater portion of the season's crop of hay, which had been placed there for the winter's use. Through the kind assistance of John A. Morrison and other neighbors the fire was prevented from spreading to the woodshed, carriage-houses and other buildings but a few yards away. The barn with its contents was a total loss. Having no place for the stock, and winter rapidly coming on, it became necessaay to proceed at once with the erection of another barn. The contract was given to Asa Nason, of New Maryland, who hewed the frame upon the place, and erected a good substantial barn.

Acknowledgements.

The sincere acknowledgements of the institution are tendered to our local legislature for the aid which has been extended to the work for the past twelve years. The grant of $500 which was made at the last session of the house was much needed and enabled us to clear off some of our most pressing claims. The debt of $4,000 which was incurred in the completion of the building, sewerage, waterworks, etc., still remains unpaid.

The Christmas and New Year's holidays were again spent at the institution. None of our pupils desired to go home, all preferring to spend this festive season with us. Everything was done to make them happy and we may truly say that we know of no family of children who had a more enjoyable time.

The large hall and the children's dining room were decorated with festoons of evergreens, mottos and paper flowers, the result being very pleasing and creditable to their taste. Boxes and parcels of all shapes began to arrive several days before. The Christmas tree occupied the place of honor and being loaded with toys and useful articles of all kinds it soon became the centre of attraction.

An address from the Principal, who spoke of the blessings which they enjoyed in their educational privileges, in their fine building and pleasant surroundings in their school life, robust health and possession of numerous friends, ended the happy Christmas day of 1894.

Our acknowledgments are due to the following friends who kindly sent Christmas presents: E H Wilmot, Fredericton, $10; Messrs W H Thorne, St. John, parcel of toys, pocket knives, etc.; J S Armstrong & Bro., St. John, box of biscuits and box of raisins; S L Gorbell, St. John, toys; John Hopkins, St. John, pail of mincemeat; Wm Bruckhoff, St. John, games; Hamm Bros., St. John, box of biscuits; J Harvey Brown, St. John, barrel of apples; H C Creed, Fredericton, four boxes of picture puzzles; the Misses Perley, Fredericton, fruit and confectionery; and Mrs S J King, St. John, Christmas cards.

New Year's day was an enjoyable one in many respects and the pleasure was enhanced by a cheering visit from G. T. Whelpley, Miss Whelpley, Prof. and Mrs. Downing. The pupils who were all looking well were drawn up in a line to receive them and manifested their welcome by clapping of hands and shouting. The children were afterwards addressed in a genial manner and wishes for a happy New Year exchanged on all sides. Numerous parcels of grapes, oranges, and confectionery, which our kind visitors brought, gladdened the hearts of our young folks and formed a a pleasing memento of their visit.

To The Electors of Fredericton

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I shall be a candidate for reelection to the City Council at the ensuing election, and respectfully ask your support.

During my eight years service at the Board I have endeavored honestly and fearlessly to do my duty by my constituents in Queens ward, and the citizens generally.

I had the honor of taking a prominent part in the movement which gives every Elector the right to cast his ballot for two candidates in every ward in the city, and I think I may appeal to the enlarged electorate as confidently as I have hitherto been justified in appealing to the voters in my own ward.

Soliciting your support and your ballots on polling day. I am Ladies and Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,
L. C. MACNUTT.
