Wingham, Oct. 26.—A well-attended convention of the Liberals of North Huron was held in the town hall this afternoon. Every municipality in the riding was represented. President Isbister took the chair. Mr. John T. Currie, of East Wawanosh, ex-reeve of the township, and ex-warden of Huron County, was tendered the unanimous nomination as candidate for the Legislature. Mr. Currie asked for five days in which to consider the matter, when he will give a definite answer. In the election of 1908, Mr. Currie made a very creditable showing. North Huron was gerrymandered to make a sure Conservative riding, but Mr. Currie brought the Conservative majority down to 171.

ARABS AT TRIPOLI DECLARE HOLY WAR

Inhabitants of City in Wild Panic, Fearing Wholesale Massacre.

London, Oct. 26. — Four hundred Italians were killed or wounded in the fighting around Tripoli on Monday and Tuesday, but all newspaper correspondents were forbidden to communicate the extent of the casualties, according to a news agency dispatch received here today from Tripoli which escaped Italian censorship by being filed at Valetta.

The situation at Tripoli, the dispatch adds, is serious. European residents fear a massacre, as a holy war has been proclaimed by the natives of Tripoli and Benghazi.

At Sharashett the left line of the Italian defence is reported as being hard pressed by the Arabs.

The Arabs who attacked the Italians' rear on Monday had entered Tripoli in disguise, and their outbreak caused a terrible panic. Firing in the streets was general. Non-combatant men, women and children were mixed up with the combatants. Crowds flocked to the shore and embarked in small boats. The consulates were packed with terrified Europeans.

Situation Serious.

The situation is described as precarious, and the Italian outposts are nervous. The military arrangements are bad. The whole force occupies a semicircle, whose ends rest on the seashore. There are no reserves in the town, and only two warships remain off the city. The left wing is still hard pressed, and if it be broken the situation will be as grave as possible. The consuls are realizing the possibility of the breaking of the left wing, and fear that a massacre will follow. They are arranging for Europeans to board ships if it becomes necessary.

Fresh troops to the number of 1,100, with thirty guns, arrived on Wednesday, and landed near Sharret to strengthen the left. It is reported that 5,000 Tuareg tribesmen are advancing on Tripoli and another battle is expected.

The Arabs today made a violent attack against the Italian positions between El Mesri and Bomellana. They were repulsed with heavy loss. The Italian casualties were only a few wounded.

Shelling Arabs.

Rome, Oct. 26.—Aeroplane reconnaissance revealed the fact that 6,000 Turks are strongly entrenched in Tripoli, ten miles beyond the Italian outposts which have been reinforced. The warships off Tripoli shelled the vicinity of an oasis where there were many Arabs, who were scattered.

In the town of Tripoli the Italians have discovered a million rounds of Mauser cartridges, in addition to many stands of arms. The ammunition was apparently destined for transmission into the interior. The search for arms continues, but in view of what has been discovered the Italians need not fear another attack from Arabs inside the lines.

Sitting in public in front of the gendarmerie barracks, a court-martial sentenced to death Russein Ben Ahmed, a native of Fezzan and "cavass" of the German consulate, who was found guilty of having stabbed to death a wounded Italian artilleryman in front of the consulate. Several witnesses were heard, including another "cavass" of the consulate, who swore he had seen Russein go out with a dagger, return with the weapon covered with blood and hide it in a heap of coal.

The governor having signed the sentence of death, Russein was conducted behind the citadel. His only words were, "It is not justice."
