A BRIGHT BASEBALL PARK.

OPENING OF THE NEW GROUNDS OF THE TORONTO ASSOCIATION.

Four Thousand People Witness a Rattling Game Between Toronto and Rochester —The Grand Stand and Its Fair Occupants—General Sporting News.

The Kingston road, in the vicinity of the Don Bridge, on Saturday afternoon recalled memories of one of the palmy days of Woodbine. About four thousand people crossed the Bridge and made themselves comfortable and happy in the ample stands on the new grounds of the Toronto Baseball Association, only a few yards east of the Don. It was the opening day at the new park, and the Directors' invited guests and the general public appeared in their best. A description of the grounds and the stands was printed in The World on Saturday, and it is unnecessary to say further on that score. Suffice it to remark that they cannot be beaten, if even equalled, on this athletic-loving continent of America.

Directors Ryan, Felcher and Stark, Sec.-Treas. Bennett and Representative Hamburger fairly walked in the air over the auspicious opening, while President E. S. Cox, arrayed in a "glossy plug" and a bunch of primroses and roses, could scarcely have been envious even of Grover Cleveland. The weather, to use a hackneyed phrase, if it had been made to order, could not have been more suitable. It was superb. The grand stand was made attractive by the presence of many leading ladies of Toronto, and His Honor Lieut.-Gov. Robinson, always ready and happy to lend his presence to the encouragement of manly and legitimate sports, was the prominent feature of the Directors' box, situate immediately in the centre of the grand stand. The box wore a May-day appearance, being handsomely dressed in flowers and flags, including of course the Stars and Stripes. His Honor, when game was called, tilted the white sphere to the field and managed to send it past the plate, amid cheers.

The band of the Royal Grenadiers enlivened the time before play began with a selection of lively and popular airs, while the Toronto's Mascot, whose plumb ebony figure was encased in a suit of smiling blue, profusely trimmed with gold, disported himself on the green to show off his new togs. The grounds were in capital shape for play, thanks to the untiring exertions of Director Felcher. Mr. Felcher has hardly slept night or day for two weeks, so anxious has he been to have them in presentable shape for the opening day.

These gentlemen occupied, as invited guests,

His Honor Lieut.-Gov. Robinson,
Capt Geddes, A D C.
A R Boswell, Thornton Todd.

The Directors' Box.

The gentlemen from Rochester reached the city Saturday morning, having crossed to Cobourg by the steamer Norseman, thence to Toronto by the Grand Trunk. They registered at the Rossin House. Among the ladies and gentlemen who occupied reserved seats in the grand stand were Mrs. E. S. Cox, Miss Evelyn Cox, Miss Perry, Mrs. R. G. Cox, Miss Cox, Miss Beaty, Mrs. J. G Worts, Miss Hargraft (Cobourg), Sheriff and Miss Jarvis, Mr and Mrs. Rykert, Mr Scaduto (Italian Consul), Mrs J R Robertson, Mrs B Jacques, H G Crowe, Mrs S Hamburger, Miss Loeb, Miss Spink, Mr A and Miss Boltz, John C Atkin of Montreal, Mrs Walsh, Ald and Mrs Piper, Mr and Mrs O Marsh, A F Virle, E E Sheppard, Mr and Mrs George Derby, Ald Allen, Ald Shaw, Ald Hunter, J E Mitchell, J J Cosgrave, Eugene O'Keefe, Wm Lount, Q C, Dr O'Reilly, Dr Duncan, Dr McPhederan, George Roach (President Hamilton Cricket Club), Mr and Mrs J G Beard, Mr and Mrs G H Williams of Rochester, John Mallon, Collector Stratton, the Misses Carmichael, Mr and Mrs J H Mead, A B Lee, G B Smith, Mr and Mrs Carlyle, E Fitzpatrick, J S Fullertin, H P Dwight, Hollis Gooderham and many others. Director Felcher presented Mrs. and Miss Cox, Miss Perry, Mrs Hamburger and Mrs Piper with handsome bouquets, which of course had a charming effect on the toilets of the ladies.

After the game had been finished the Directors invited a large number of their guests to their room below the grand stand, where an informal luncheon was partaken of. President Cox was in the chair, and proposed the health of the Lieutenant-Governor. His Honor replied in one of his happiest strains, and paid a high compliment to the sporting prowess that was continually being developed in Canada. In return he proposed the health of the United States and the visitors from Rochester, which found a happy responder in the person of Mr J. J Katz. His Honor also proposed the health of Mr and Mrs Cox, and Ald Piper wound up the brief toast list by proposing the health of Mr A R Boswell, an old and enthusiastic patron of out-door amusements. However, it was the first professional baseball game that the ex-Commodore had ever seen, and he was fairly carried away with it. "Jake" Weber, arrayed in fine linen, acted as steward on the occasion and gave the utmost satisfaction. Barring a couple of slight mishaps on the field, everything passed off as pleasantly as an evening in the leafy month of June. The Rochester visitors, of course, were somewhat disappointed over their defeat, but the hospitality extended them was so warm that they soon forgot to regret. Mr. Katz extended a cordial invitation to the Toronto admirers of baseball to visit the Flowery City on July 4 and he promised them a good time.

The toasts were drank in sparkling cups of the Baron's "Red Label."

The Rochester visitors left for home at 12:20 yesterday afternoon via the Great Western.

The Game.

As might have been expected, the ground was very dead, a fact which, while it kept the ball from bounding, did not seem to greatly interfere with the lively manner in which the Torontos circumvented the bases. Game was called at 3 o'clock, with the Rochesters first at bat, Manager Humphries, for a change, having lost the toss. Veach and Humphries were the Toronto battery, both acquitting themselves remarkably well, Veach's head work being a study. The day being warm, his arm worked freely, and he gave the people an exhibition of pitching that thoroughly justified the opinion formed before he came here that he would prove a phenomenon. His delivery was not violent, and rarely speedy, but he seemed to have a knack of placing the ball just where he wished, and just where it would prove most puzzling to the batsmen. In fact hardly any two consecutive balls were pitched alike. But if Veach's work was good in the box Humphries' work behind the bat was also faultless, except only for one miss of a catch, due to the difficulties of the light. In fact, taken all round, it would be hard to find fault with the team. They won the victory on its merits and not by the errors of their opponents. A couple of grounders flew between Spill's legs at short, but the Anglishman could scarcely be held responsible for them, and then his performance at bat more than made amends. Fautz at first played a great game, and he batted also with admirable judgment, being once or twice called on to sacrifice. Maul of the Rochesters pitched what under other circumstances would have been considered a creditable game, but the Torontos got on to him for a total of fifteen. Warner's catching was absolutely errorless, it being the common subject of remark that he acquitted himself considerably better than he was known to do last year for the Torontos.

The game opened with Visner at the bat for the Flower City nine. Five balls were called off Veach, and it looked as if he were going to get a base, but the next three were strikes and Mr. Visner was forced to quit. Kinzie followed his example by striking into space, but Kennedy hit to left field, moved to second on Knight setting his base on balls and reached the plate on Darling muffing a fly from Caskins to left field. In the second innings the Rochesters failed to score, but in the third the umpire gave them a life by a close decision at first and they made two, Parker in running to third distinguishing himself by jabbing Smith of the Torontos in the eye. The latter, however, with one eye batted with vigor and avenged his injury that way. Only once after that did the visitors reach first base, the order of their going out in the last five innings being one, two, three with monotonous regularity.

The Torontos opened with a blank, but during the second innings they got their graft in. Veach obtained a base on balls, Spill drove the ball beautifully to centre field for a two bagger and Veach fell at third, or he would have got home. Humphries struck out and Darling sent a grounder to short. Veach started to run to the plate and was confronted by the ball. He ran back but Spill had got to his base. The catcher, ball in hand, followed Veach and threw to Whitney, the third baseman. That worthy muffed it, and both Veach and Spill raced home. Macklin hit to left field, and Darling scored the third run. Osterhout gave a fly to short. Morrison hit to centre, Faatz broke his bat hitting to short, and Macklin was forced out, Smith, with an eye bunged up, in the third innings, hit a smashing two-bagger. Veach hit to third and went out at first, but Smith got to third. Spill sent a daisy cutter to centre field and brought Veach home, and went out himself stealing second. Humphries gave the right fielder a chance which he accepted. The fourth and fifth proved blanks and the sixth yielded a single, thanks to an error by short and a base hit by Darling. Veach being enabled to score. Then came the fatal seventh and it decided the fate of the game beyond peradventure. Osterhout was the first at bat and he hit to first, who fumbled the ball. Parker had come down from second base and was on the bag at first. Osterhout in running collided with him, and rolling over and over finally laid out straight with a sprained ankle. Dr. O'Reilly was on the ground, and, after attending the sufferer, said with complete rest he would be all right in a few days. Humphries ran the remainder of the bases for the wounded man and Albert worthily took his place at right field. Then the run-getting commenced. A two-bagger by Faatz brought Osterhout, or rather Humphries, and Morrison home, a single by Smith rendered the same service to Faatz, and a three-bagger by Veach let Smith jog around. Then a wild throw from third on a grounder by Humphries gave Peek-a-Boo his chance to reach the plate, which, of course, he accepted. The eighth and last innings of the Torontos was blank, and a ninth was unnecessary.

Now that the splendid grounds of the Toronto Baseball Association have been opened, The World would respectfully suggest that they be appropriately christened. Some significant athletic title should be selected.

Buffalo 8, Hamilton 4.

About 1200 people witnessed a poor exhibition of ball playing at Dundurn Park, Hamilton, Saturday. The fielding of both teams was miserable. The Buffalos found it very easy to hit McArthur, and, with the assistance of errors by the field, won the game hands down. McGlone in the eighth inning made a home run.

Fair Balls.

The game will be called between the Rochesters and Torontos this morning at 10 o'clock and this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The World did the Hamiltons an injustice on Friday. It only gave them credit for winning one game. They have won two.

The Metropolitans and St. Michael's College play a Senior Amateur League game on the College Grounds at 9 o'clock this morning.

A C Buckenberger has been appointed manager of the Maple Leaf Baseball Club by President Sleeman, and J W Millar captain of the team.

The Athletics did not show up Saturday to open the Amateur League Series with St. Michael's College, consequently the latter won by 9 to 0.

The International league matches to-day will be: Rochester at Toronto, two games; Buffalo at Hamilton, two games; Utica at Oswego and Syracuse at Binghamton.

The Rochester team is to be strengthened by the engagement of a new pitcher and third baseman. The new pitcher will probably be George Washington Bradley.

The employes of Ewing & Co. and Pure Gold Manufacturing Company played Saturday afternoon on the Exhibition grounds and Ewing & Co.'s team won easily.

Davis will pitch for Toronto against Rochester this morning and Veach this afternoon. Bakley will pitch for Rochester in the morning and probably Horner in the afternoon.

If Hamilton has run out of crape The World is happy to assure the much bereaved people of that city that a new mourning house just established in Toronto has an unlimited supply.

The batteries at Hamilton to-day will be: Morning game, Knight and Thompson for Hamilton; Welch and Smith for Buffalo; afternoon, Morrison brothers for Hamilton; Wood brothers for Buffalo.

The Metropolitans and Atlantics played the first game of the Senior Amateur League Saturday, the former winning by 11 to 0. Shepherd and Jones were the Mets' battery, and Goodson and Galloway the Atlantics.

Relying upon Rochester's well-known talent for milling a game out of the fire, President Wiman, after the fourth innings on Saturday, when the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of Toronto, telegraphed to Rochester "We've got 'em." But, and to say, they hadn't.

On Wednesday the Detroits play at Syracuse. They've got to do some hustling.

Reach Veach's analysis of Saturday's game: a b 3, r 3, b h 1, t b 3, p o 6, a 10, and e 0.

The Massey Baseball Club defeated the Singer Sewing Machine Company on Saturday by 26 to 10, making the fourth league team in succession.

The Olympic Baseball Club organized Friday, and elected the following officers for the season: Patron and Honorary President, E J Durham; Captain and Manager, S McHenry; Treasurer, A Addison; Secretary, S Durham, 169 Argyle street; and a Committee of W Washington, G Barlow and A Burrow. For a junior organization they are expected to prove more than usually strong.

Manager Humphries knocked two noteworthy fouls on Saturday. In one of them the ball made direct for the Directors' box and smashed a gentleman's handsome tile, and in the other, immediately following, the ball lodged on a beam in the grand stand, from which it was dislodged by an agile youth who recklessly disregarded even the Deputy-Chief's commands to come down before he had got up.

At St. Michael's College, on Saturday, the Primroses and St. Michael's Juniors played their initiatory game in the Junior League series. The first three innings were characterized by rather careless play by the Primroses, who allowed their opponents to cross the plate seven times. Glasspool, however, who twirls the ball with his left hand, was then substituted as pitcher, and the Prims did better. The latter part of the game was marked by good, clean playing on both sides. The Collegians surpassed their opponents both in batting and fielding. McGlone for the College, and Collins for the Primroses, excelled in fielding, though Clark and H. Bradley follow them closely. McGlone, Corr and Burrows did the best batting. The score was:

College Juniors, 2 5 0 1 1 0 0 0 1—10 r., 6 b. h., 11e.
Primroses, 0 0 0 0 2 1 0 0 2— 5 r., 8 b. h., 16e.

Lacrosse Tournament at New York.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The great lacrosse tournament for the Oelrich's Cup was commenced on the St. George's Cricket Grounds at Hoboken to-day. Harvard, the present holder of the trophy, and Princeton, Stevens' Institute, New York University and the New York Lacrosse Club were to have contested to-day, but the Tournament Committee received a note this morning from Harvard's Captain stating that the team had withdrawn from the competition. It seems that there had been some misunderstanding about the leave of absence granted the team, and the college faculty had peremptorily ordered the men back to college. All the members of the team expressed great indignation at the red tapeism of the faculty and then packed their valises and went home. The first game of the tournament was won by Princeton from the University of New York by four goals to one. The next game was between the New York Lacrosse Club and Stevens' Institute, but the latter made no stand against their powerful opponents, who beat them by a score of five goals to none. The winner of each of the two preceding games then played the final match, Princton thus playing the New York Lacrosse Club. A finer game was rarely seen than this. The first goal was won for New York in 2 minutes. Princeton won the next goal in 10 minutes. The two next goals were won by New York in 6 and 14 minutes. Princeton won the next goal in 14 minutes, the match thus resulting in a victory for New York by 3 goals to 2. The second section of the tournament will be played at Staten Island on June 5, when the winner of that section will play New York for the trophy.

Trinity University C. C. v. Hamilton C. C.

This game was called at 11 a.m on Saturday on the University Grounds. Hamilton brought down their prize battery of Ferrie and Gillespie, Mulligan being catcher for both, but were weak at the bat. Cooper opened the battery for Trinity and retired the Hamiltons in short order for 44 runs. Trinity were retired for 46 runs in their first inning, most of the team fanning the air, Allan being the only one to get in any three baggers. Hamilton was retired for 46 runs in their second inning, Allan having taken Cooper's place as pitcher. Trinity went to bat with 44 to make to even up. Trenayne struck out on Ferrie's first delivery. Bedford Jones struck at a vacuum and strained his bat, while W. W Jones was "shot" by Ferrie. Allan, and Guthrie caught on to the Hamilton battery and struck out Gillespie, three baggers being the order of the day. Stinson at third base fielded in great shape for Hamilton. Trinity won with 7 strikers to spare.

The O. J. C. Meeting.

We are not authorised to make the announcement, but, contrary to expectation, it is almost certain that the Jockey Club races will be postponed till July 1 and 3. The President, Chairman and Mr. Torrance were down at the Woodbine yesterday, and came to the conclusion that the track could not be warranted safe going at an earlier date, and a second postponement would be fatal. If Toronto and Queensburg are to clash, it will be bad for both; but it seems inevitable. As soon as Mr. Smith returns from the States the date will be advertised, and it is a guinea to a goose that Dominion Day has it. Holiday-makers will be glad, but racing men will receive the news with some disappointment.

Racing at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 22.—Weather hot; track fairly good; attendance very large. First race, 1¼ miles—Ascender won easily by one length, Brevet second, Hilarity third, three lengths off; time 1.58¾. Mutuels paid $16.60. Second race, the Pleasfoot Handicap, 1¼ miles—Lucky B. won easily by one length, Punka second, Keene third, four lengths off; time 2.53. Third race, 1 mile—Phil Lee won very easily by two lengths, Warrington second, two lengths in front of Leman, third; time 1.46½. Fourth race, 1 of a mile—Enchantress won easily by three lengths, Schiller P. second, Girofla a bad third; time 1.20. Fifth race, 1½ miles—At the end of the half-mile Ligan and Myrtle drew clear, Ligan winning by half a length, Myrtle second, Manitou a poor third; time 2.12½.

The Race for the Derby.

LONDON, May 22.—The betting on the Derby, which is to be run at Epsom on Wednesday, is 9 to 4 in favor of the Duke of Westminster's Two Thousand Guinea winner Ormonde, 11 to 2 against The Bard, 11 to 1 against Saraband, 20 to 1 against Minting, 25 to 1 against Heister and Tyrant, 33 to 1 against Button, Ar., 50 to 1 against Murdock and Doubjon. Only twice during the last half century has a Derby favorite started with similar odds. Sporting circles concur in the belief that it will be a one horse Derby, and that nothing can touch the favorite.

The game was closely contested all through, and although repeated efforts were made to get a goal by both sides, at the call of time no goal was taken and the match resulted in a tie, 0 to 0. The Ætnas were mere boys to the Normals, and only lacked the weights of their opponents to have ensured success. The Ætnas take two teams to Barrie to-day to play two teams of the Barrie Cyclones.

Well, Fred, I'll tell you: That dude that has so much cash called on Jennie the other night, and her mother got him to help her put up some pictures, and he drove the nails in and broke the plaster off their new walls, and she got mad with him and Jennie told me of it. I telephoned R. J. Licence & Co., cor. Bay and Adelaide, and they sent a man up and put up room moulding at my expense (and it only cost 25 dollars), and now I'm solid with the old lady. She thinks I've a great head. edx

WHITE STAR LINE

Royal Mail Steamers, New York to Liverpool, via Queenstown.

May 20th, Germanic, 4 p.m. May 27th, Republic, 12.30 p.m. June 3rd, Britannic, 4 p.m.

These steamers are fitted throughout with the Stemen's Swan electric light, and are celebrated for the speed and regularity of their passages. From their great sail power they are unusually steady in rough weather, and this, with their perfect ventilation, renders sea-sickness comparatively rare. An extreme southerly course is followed, and no attempt is made at competitive passages, comfort and safety being considered paramount to all other attractions. For rates, etc., apply to the local agents of the line, or to T. W. JONES, General Canadian Agent, 23 York st., Toronto. 246
