THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN.

"The Conference would give expression to its sense of the high importance to all the interests of our Church, that our Connexional Organ, the PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN, be well sustained in its career of usefulness, and earnestly resolves to employ the utmost effort to render this indispensable instrumentality increasingly efficient, by enlarging its sphere as widely as possible in every Circuit, thereby making it more extensively auxiliary in the diffusion of Christian intelligence, and the cultivation of the religious home-life of our people."

We copy the above resolution from the published minutes of our late Conference, held in this city in June last; and we wish to call attention to it as our warrant for the special appeal which we now make on behalf of this paper.

The resolution intimates first; that it was, in the deliberate judgment of the Conference, regarded as a matter "of high importance to all the interests of our Church, that our Connexional Organ, thr Provincial Wesleyan, should be well sustained in its career of usefulness; and 2ndly that the Conference "earnestly resolved to employ the utmost effort to render this indispensable instrumentality increasingly efficient by enlarging its sphere as widely as possible in every Circuit."

This if it means anything binds, we suppose, every member of the Conference to put forth his utmost effort this year to increase the circulation of the paper; and as one half of the Conference year has already well nigh passed, we take the liberty of reminding our brethren that this utmost effort should be at once made.

An examination of our order book seems to show that this effort has as yet commenced on only very few, andthat it surely has not been completed on any one, of the one hundred and thirty-eight Circuits and missions of the Conference; for we find that the new names added to the lists of subscribers since the 1st of July have scarcely more than sufficed to fill up the vacancies caused by discontinuances.

We suppose that the early winter is generally regarded as the most favorable time to prosecute successfully athorough canvass for new subscribers; and that, therefore, most of the members of the Conference have been waiting for the arrival of this most favorable time in which to make the pledged utmost effort. But this time will now very soon be gone and the effort should now be commenced and continued until it is certain that there is no possibility of further enlarging the sphere of our Connexional Organ in any Circuit or mission.

If the resolution is faithfully carried out the number of subscribers will undoubtedly be increased on every Circuit. If the solemnly recorded determination is properly embodied in honest, earnest action the number of subscribers on many circuits will be more than doubled.

One of the very few who were beginning the effort last month, a preacher on trial, laboring on one of our Home Missions, who has already sent the names of six new subscribers with the advance payments for each, says:

"I think I will have [other new subscribers soon. I had not the remotest idea when I began the canvass that I could so soon succeed in getting five new subscribers for the Wesleyan, but i have learned that a great deal can be done when faithful efforts are made. I think that the circulation of the paper would be far more extensive if the proper efforts were put forth by its agents. I feel determined to do what I can for it."

There are, we are confident, more than a hundred more promising fields in the Conference for a canvass than the one in which this good brother is making his utmost effort; and if we could hope that all others would do as well as he is doing, we should assuredly count upon adding at least a thousand new names to our lists for the new volume which begins with the new year.

Now, then for a general united utmost effort all along the line on every Circuit and mission throughout the Conference!

☞ We will send the numbers of the paper for this year published after the advance payment for next year is made, to all new subscribers free.

☞ We will give a copy of FOSTER'S CYCLOPEDIA OF ILLUSTRATIONS, (either prose or poetry,) to any person who will send ten dollars as advance payments for new subscribers before the 1st of February next.

☞ Or we will allow to all our agents a premium of twenty-five per cent., payable in Books from general Stock, not including Sabbath-school or Hymn Books or Bibles, at our marked prices, on all advance payments made by them for New Subscribers before the 1st of March next.

Agents making payments after the 1st of March will be entitled only to Commission as for payments on account of Old Subscribers. We trust that the Brethren, while pressing the canvass for new subscribers, will not neglect the duty of collecting all sums due from old subscribers, both arrearages and advance payments. We shall be glad to receive frequent reports from each agent during the ensuing month or two.

☞ Every subscriber making a payment either directly to the Office or indirectly through our Agent, should look for an acknowledgement in the WESLEYAN within a month at the latest after such payment.

☞ All monies sent to the Office by Mail should be in Post Office Money Orders or in Registered Letters. Money sent otherwise must be considered at the risk of the person sending it.

EDITORIAL NOTES, &c.

1. We have received from the Proprietors, Messrs. McAlpine and Barnes, a copy of Belcher's Almanac for 1873. This Annual is too well known throughout Nova Scotia to need any introduction or commendation. All who are interested in this sort of literature,—(and who is not?)—will hasten to provide themselves with this in order to be ready for the rapidly approaching New Year.

2. We have received from the publishers, Messrs. John F. Potter & Co., of Philadelphia, an advance sheet of what is to be POTTER'S COMPLETE BIBLE ENCYCLOPEDIA, edited by Rev. Wm. Blackwood, D. D., LL. D. This advance sheet looks well—but we will be better able to express an opinion upon the Book—when we receive it as we suppose we shall do when it is completed.

3. MUSIC FROM O. DITSON & CO.—VOCAL.—"I Leaned out of the Window," one of Jean Ingelow's sweet late songs, set to music by Claribel, neither of which names needs a word of commendation, more than is already universally awarded them.

"Mother's dead and gone," a very pretty Ballad with Chorus, words by P. H. Mowry, music by Henry Percy.

"The Message from the Battle-field," by John Haliah.

"The Wreck of Hope," a sad, minor song both in words and music by Joseph Barnby.

INSTRUMENTAL.—"The Stars and Stripes," with variations by Ch. Grote.

"Steven's March," composed by Gustavo Rossari played with great effect by Brown's Brigade Band.

"Birdie's Song," a very pretty little Nocturne by J. C. Doulin; this will be much admired and eagerly practiced by young scholars of but two or threeyears who want a piece of music that popular in the drawing room.

We would call special attention to the following, suitable for the festive time now so near.

"Angels from the Realms of glory," solo and quartette for Christmas, Music by F. Venia, arranged, and adapted to English words by R. C. W.

"Hark! the Herald Angels sing," Anthem for Christmas, by Henry Wilson. This is a very beautiful anthem and will more than repay a competent choir, for the necessary practice it would require to be properly rendered.

4. We happen to known that the Book Steward will be very much pleased to receive remittances from any and all persons indebted to either the Book Room or the Wesleyan Office. Money is just now much wanted.

5. HOME MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY MEETINGS IN HALIFAX.—Sermons are to be preached, and collections taken up on behalf of the Home Missionary Society in the Wesleyan Churches of Halifax on Sabbath next. The Anniversary Meetings are to be held on following evenings throughout the week, commencing in the Grafton Street Church on Monday evening the 9th inst. We would earnestly bespeak for these most important services general attention and liberal consideration.

A CERTAIN AMOUNT of stimulus is necessary for the healthy play of all the faculties of man—and the best is work. But every organ of the body if over-stimulated, becomes weak and loses its power. (Hugh Miller became insane through continued and excessive brain-toil.) It is the same with all stimulating compounds which are so potent that they are said to give greater power of endurance to the brain. They only wear it out by over stimulation. Dr. Baxter's Chalybeate supplies an element which is absolutely necessary to the life of the body, and which element is often lessened by disease, over-work, anxiety, toil, &c.
