HUNTING CAMPS

Numerous Hunting Camp Locations Now Open Along the Line of the CANADIAN NORTHERN ONTARIO RAILWAY

Parties going into that well-known hunting territory along the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway will find good camping locations at Mileage 200, 227½, 236 and 238, and also at many other points on the line. The individual hunter will find good accommodation, guides, etc., at Tom Brownell's new hotel at Bolger, Joe Zappa's at Porlock, McMillen's at Salines, and at numerous other hotels at the different stations.

SINGLE FARE OCTOBER 17TH TO NOVEMBER 9TH.
Good to return until December 12th.

SPECIAL TRAIN SERVICE.

A special train for hunters will leave Toronto Union Station at 11.00 p.m. on October 30th carrying sleeping and dining cars in addition to regular equipment. A typical hunters' meal—hot and satisfying—will be served for the nominal charge of 50 cents. Northbound, on October 28th, 29th, 30th and 31st, and November 1st, the regular morning train will leave at 9.00 a.m. from Toronto and will stop at all hunting camps north of Parry Sound. Southbound, the regular trains will stop only at scheduled points, but special trains will be run November 9th, 13th, 15th and 16th.

The territory immediately adjoining the Central Ontario Railway is also a well-known hunting ground. North of Millbridge, Coe Hill, Devil's Lake, Gunter Lake and Papineau Lake offers distinct advantages to the hunter. Deer are numerous and camp sites near the railway are available.
