FREDERICTON

Fredricton, June 26—The prettiest of home weddings as well as one of the most brilliant was that which took place at 4.20 o'clock this afternoon at the handsome residence of Mrs. Albert W. Edgecombe, when her second daughter, Miss Edith Knowles Edgecombe, was united to Mr. G. Fred. Baird, son of Senator Baird, of Andover. The lovely decorations on the house was the work of the girl friends of the bride. The ceremony was performed with the bridal party standing under a canopy of white daisies and ferns in the midlight window of the drawing-room and was banked with palms and roped off with white satin ribbons. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Fred. B. Edgecombe, was beautifully gowned in charmeuse satin with old duchesse lace and wore a veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Louise Edgecombe, cousin of the bride, who wore a pretty gown of pale blue ninon over white satin, made in Kate Greenway style, and trimmed with shadow lace and wore a large poke bonnet trimmed with plumes and rosebuds. The matron of honor, Mrs. J. Alexander Thompson, wore a lovely costume of pale pink ninon over white satin, with large pink sash and wreaths of tiny rosebuds. A white hat trimmed with rosebuds and feathers. The matron of honor and bridesmaid both carried baskets of pink roses. Mr. A. Herbert Baird, of Andover, brother of the groom, was groomsman. Mrs. A. W. Edgecombe, mother of the bride, was gowned in black brocaded satin one-sided effect trimmed with black lace over white satin. Miss Hazel Edgecombe, eldest sister of the bride, wore blue ninon over pink Dresden silk. Mrs. Baird, mother of the groom, was in king's blue and old gold trimmed with black lace and hat to match. After the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Neil McLaughlin, luncheon was served, the bride's table was out on the veranda which was enclosed in fir and the table was under a large floral bell. The souvenirs were tiny brides in full bridal costume. The bride, who is a general favorite, received a large array of costly presents. The groom's gift was a linked gold bracelet and to the matron of honor and bridesmaid he gave plain gold bracelets bearing the initials of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Baird left by I. C. An event of pleasing interest to a large circle of friends and acquaintances occurred in the R. C. church Wednesday morning, June 12, at 8 o'clock. The occasion was the marriage of Mr. Philip Dupuis, of the Shives Lumber Company, to Miss Laudia Vermette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vermette, with nuptial high mass. Rev. Father Laugton officiated, assisted by Rev. Father Cormier, Newcastle. The pretty bride, escorted by her father, entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Annette Thebergé. The bridal gown was a beautiful one of white duchess satin. The long tulle veil was caught by a bandeau of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Dupuis, after the reception, left on the steamship Canada for Gaspe, thence to Quebec and Montreal, and on their return will reside in Campbellton.
