THEATRES

AT ALLEN'S.

Allen's Theatre presents a program this week that is indeed suitable for those who wish to forget the hot weather, and at the same time obtain an afternoon or evening of entertainment. "Paying the Piper," a picture in which Dorothy Dickson, supported by an all-star cast, makes her debut, is one of those films which does not give one a drowsy feeling, but which has such a breezy, light and interesting plot that one remains until the last foot of celluloid has been unwound. It is a story of New York and its high life, with a lesson that does not fail to strike home. The principals in it play with fire, but, like many others, get burned. However, their burns heal and all ends well.

"Snub" Pollard in "High Rollers" is every bit as funny as he has been in his hundreds of comedies previously presented. Allen news films and Chester outing pictures take on to all parts of the world, not a few of the scenes being those of shimmering lakes and rushing rivers, justs the kind to make one be oblivious to the fact that the thermometer is trying to reach the 100 mark. Screen snapshots of movie stars are also shown.

AT LOEW'S.

Seemingly as a direct answer to the critics of the screen, the most powerful "moral" moving picture drama that has been witnessed in London for months is being shown the first half of this week at Loew's Theatre. "A Message From Mars," featuring Bert Lytell and supported by a high-class company, challenges the most fastidious and discriminating to pick a flaw.

No promiscuous gun play, no vulgar sexology to annoy the sensitive ones, no suggestive clandestine lovers' meetings, but a strong moral, cleverly interwoven in an interesting plot. It is an old tale, perhaps, but it deals effectively with an old and prominent human failing—selfishness. Undoubtedly "A Message From Mars" is exactly what the censors ordered.

"Every act is good today" seems a commonplace, everyday expression, but nevertheless correctly characterizes the vaudeville offering. The bill is well proportioned. As tumblers and versatile athletes, Sifchrist and Darrell execute a number of daring and seemingly impossible turns with ease and dexterity born of thorough training and continued experience.

Arthur Terry, conversationalist extraordinary, and likewise rope handler and dancer, evidently from "out yonder" rattles off a pleasing flow of talk. Arthur has chosen topics most likely to harmonize with the feelings of the bulk of Londoners. He is an agreeable person and everyone seems to agree with him.

The person to exhibit unconcern to a rag-time "jazzy" colored troupe has yet to be encountered, and the Exposition Jubilee Four are winners in that particular line.

"Wedding Bells Out of Tune," a rip-roaring and rapid Mack Sennett comedy and the Pathe Weekly Review and News Budget completes the offering.

PROMISING MUSICIAN

DONALD MUNN, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Munn of Dresden has again proven his ability as a clever musician by passing the primary examinations held at the Ursuline Academy in Chatham. At 5 years of age he passed the introductory examination with first-class honors, also winning the Conservatory silver medal by obtaining the highest marks awarded to any candidate in Canada for this examination. At 6 years of age he passed the elementary grade with first-class honors.

SPRINGBANK PICNICS

A. O. F. PICNIC.

One of the most successful events at Springbank Park Saturday was the Princess Magnolia Lodge, No. 68, A. O. F. picnic, which was held at the end of the loop. Everything from sports to presentations was included in the program, the sports taking place before supper.

After supper H. Cassan, president of the lodge, delivered a short address and presented Mrs. Milton and A. Emigh with badges of honor. These awards were made for obtaining the largest numbers of members for the lodge during the past three months.

Dancing on the green to mouth organ music was followed by an exciting baseball game between teams captained by Mrs. Morkin and Mrs. Leigh. Both teams were awarded boxes of chocolates, although Mrs. Morkin's team won by a score of 13 to 12.

The winners of the various sporting events follow:

Girls, 5 and under—Bertie Morkin, Marguerite Berry.

Boys, 5 and under—Jack Morkin, Elmer Sherritt.

MANY NOVEL FEATURES TO MARK GROCERS' PICNIC

Baseball, Tournament and Carnival, With Cash Prizes, On Program.

One of the largest picnics of the season will be that of the retail grocers, which is to be held at Port Stanley on Wednesday, July 20.

Special attractions are being provided by the different companies at the lakeside. At 5 p.m. a novelty baseball match will be featured on the baseball diamond. Eight-thirty will see the opening of the carnival on the board walk, at which the wearers of the best fancy and comic costumes will receive cash prizes.

A reproduction of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight will be a novel feature, which should attract the sporting element.

Dancing, sports and baby show will also be added to the already long list of attractions, while the R. C. R. Band will favor the visitors with a special program.

The grocery stores in the city will be closed all day Wednesday to allow employers, clerks and their families to journey to the lakeside for their annual picnic.

"LOOSEN UP"

Start Normal Flow of Money.

There is plenty of money in the country—all the experts agree on that. People are also eager to buy if you make the effort to sell.

Many businessmen with a pessimistic viewpoint are missing a great deal of business through lack of trying for it.

To be successful—look prosperous—meet My Jeweler and wear diamonds. His new store is John A. Nash, My Jeweler, 182 Dundas street, "Where You Will Eventually Buy." b

FIREMEN EXTINGUISH BLAZE AT ADVERTISER

A small fire, which may have been caused by defective wiring, occurred in the stereotyping room of The Advertiser building shortly after 7 o'clock last night. A call was sent in to the central fire station when smoke was noticed and after ripping a portion of the floor up, the firemen extinguished the blaze by means of chemicals. The damage done was slight.

CAMPBELL CLAN HOLD REUNION BY LAKE HURON

More Than Three Hundred Attended Outing At Lake Valley Grove.

The Campbell Clan Reunion held at Lake Valley Grove on Lake Huron, was attended by more than 300 members of the clan and provided a most enjoyable and successful outing. The chairman, Duncan Campbell of Forest, called the gathering to order and after his opening address of welcome, letters were read from a number of the clan who could not be present. These included Rev. Fletcher of Chaplin, Sask., David MacPherson of Pasedena, Cal., Mrs. Haller of San Pedro, Cal., and R. B. Campbell of Middlemiss. Dr. Campbell of Brown City, Rev. Dr. McNair of London, Hugh Brodie of Caradoc, John R. Campbell of Ekfrid and others gave short addresses. John Brodie of Caradoc gave a brief history of the clan and mentioned that a total of 465 there were 249 present. A song by Robert A. Campbell of Melbourne added variety.

Poems Were Read.

Five poems composed by members of the clan were read. One by Mrs. J. Freeman and one by Colin Johnson, both of Bosanquet were written especially for this occasion and were entitled "Greetings to the Campbell Clan."

A cake, donated by a friend in Forest, was cut in four pieces and given as przes to (1) Mrs. C. Brodie, the oldest member of the clan present; (2) Colin Johnson of Appin, the youngest present; (3) Dr. Alex. Campbell, who came the farthest, and (4) Mrs. J. W. Lockwood Melbourne, who had the largest family present.

Mrs. C. Brodie, though 92 years of age, came over 50 miles to be present and who added much to the pleasure to the day.

Letters of Sympathy.

It was decided to send letters of sympathy to the families of Mac McPherson, and Russell Campbell, both of whom gave their lives in defence of home and country, one on the battlefield of Europe and one at home in Melbourne.

J. C. Elliott of London, ex-M.P.P. for West Middlesex, gave the address of the afternoon, dealing with Scottish character.

The program closed by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Mr. Gustin, the proprietor, stated that although there was a crowd of about 300 people at the picnic, there were no horses, but all came in cars.

Friends were present from Toronto, London, Sarnia, Melbourne, Middlemiss, Duart, Ekfrid, Caradoc, Dunwich, Duart, Southwold, Brooke, besides the Forest, Bosanquet, Warwick and Plympton end of the clan. It was five years ago since the clan last met and it was then held at the homestead of the Brodie's in Caradoc.

RECORD HONEY YIELD IN LONDON TOWNSHIP

Prices Will Be Made Lower Than For Some Time Past.

HYDE PARK, July 18.—Bee keepers of London Township predict not only a larger yield of honey than for many years, but a yield of unusually fine quality.

The season has been unusually favorable to honey production, and the heavy yield of white clover, which is to be seen in abundance even along the roadside and on lawns, as well as the basswood bloom, is taken as an indication that the honey will be of superior quality. Prices are much lower that in 1920.

Rev. Major Graham of London preached a splendid sermon to a large congregation in the Presbyterian Church yesterday, and at St. Paul's West London, in the evening. On Sunday, July 24, Rev. Dr. McDougal will occupy the pulpit at both Hyde Park and London West.

Misses Bessie and Frances Corcoran of Bridgeport, Conn., are spending the summer months with the Misses MacLachlan.

The cement culvert on the corner of Cameron's sideroad and the 4th concession, which was washed out during the recent heavy rain, has been temporarily repaired, and has been used for several days. It is expected that permanent repairs will be completed soon.

Important Sale Announcements for Wednesday Morning

Their importance to you can only be measured by the amount of money you can save on the articles you need, which is easily figured, without comparative figures, as in most cases the prices are half and less than half the former prices. As the summer advances the price cuts are more decisive, as in most cases it is the last of the line, and price is not the consideration, they must go.
