

CONTENTS OF VOLUME VII.

	PAGE
ARTICLE I.—On the Primitive Formations in Norway and in Canada, Part I. By Thomas Macfarlane.....	1.
II.—On the Shore Zones and Limits of Marine Plants in the United States. By the Rev. Alex. F. Kemp....	20
III.—Contributions to Meteorology for the year 1861, By Charles Smallwood, M.D. LL. D.....	34
IV.—On the Mammals and Birds of the District of Montreal. By Archibald Hall, M.D. Part II.....	44
V.—Note on the Taconic System of Emmons. By T. Sterry Hunt, M.A., F.R.S.....	78
VI.—Notes on the Flora of the White Mountains, in its Geo- graphical and Geological relations. By J. W. Daw- son, LL.D., F.G.S.....	81
VII.—On the failure of the Apple Trees in the neighborhood of Montreal. By John Archbold.....	102
VIII.—On an Erect Sigillaria and a Carpolite from the Joggins, Nova Scotia. By J. W. Dawson, LL.D., F.G.S....	106
IX.—On the Primitive Formations in Norway and in Cana- da. Part II. By Thomas Macfarlane.....	113
X.—The New Spectrum Discoveries.....	129
XI.—List of Diurnal Lepidoptera from the vicinity of London, C. W. By W. Saunders.....	130
XII.—An account of the Botanical and Mineral products, used by the Chipewyan Indians. By Bernard R. Ross.....	133
XIII.—List of Mammals, Birds, and Eggs, from the McKen- zie's River District. By Bernard R. Ross.....	137
XIV.—Notes on Chemical Subjects. By Prof. S. P. Robbins..	155
XV.—On the date of the Report on the Geology of Wiscon- sin. By E. Billings.....	156
XVI.—On the Primitive Formations in Norway and in Cana- da. Part III. By Thomas Macfarlane.....	161
XVII.—On the Mammals and Birds of the District of Montreal. By Archibald Hall, M.D. Part III.....	171
XVIII.—On the Extraction of Cobalt Oxide from Iron Pyrites. By Thomas Macfarlane.....	194
XIX.—List of Entomologists in Canada. By Rev. Charles J. S. Bethune.....	199
XX.—On the Chemistry of the Earth. By T. Sterry Hunt, M.A., F.R.S.....	201
XXI.—Description of a new Enaliosaurian from the Coal Mea- sures of Nova Scotia. By O. C. Marsh, B. A.....	205
XXII.—A Lecture on Force. By Prof. John Tyndal, F.R.S..	241
XXIII.—On the Utilisation of the Power involved in the Rise and Fall of the Tides.....	252
XXIV.—On the Primitive Formations. From the German of Naumann, by Thomas Macfarlane.....	254
XXV.—On Aphis Avenæ . By George Lawson, Ph. D., LL.D.	264
XXVI.—On the footprints of Limulus , by J. W. Dawson, LL.D., F.R.S., &c.....	271