AT OSGOODE HALL.

Interesting Decision in a Real Estate Deal —Action on an Unsigned Covenant.

Osgoode Hall, Nov. 6, 1895.

Mr. Justice Street has given judgment in the three following cases: 1, Kimmitt v. Larkin, tried without a jury at St. Catharines. The plaintiff sought to recover $2700 as compensation as accountant and confidential agent of defendant, who counter-claimed for money paid plaintiff for defendant's use. The learned judge dismisses action with costs and allows counterclaim at $148, with costs. E. A. Lancaster (St. Catharines) for plaintiff. D. McCarthy, Q.C., (Toronto) and R. Gregory Cox (St. Catharines) for defendant.

2, Larkin v. Gardiner. Action for specific performance tried at non-jury sittings, Toronto, on Oct. 21 last. The plaintiff placed certain freehold property in the hands of J. A. Nesbitt for sale. Defendant went to Nesbitt on April 22, 1895, and offered to purchase for $1900. Nesbitt said he would submit the matter to plaintiff and defendant signed at 7 p.m., an acceptance of an offer prepared by Nesbitt, reading as follows: "I, Jane Larkin, * * * agree to sell through John A. Nesbitt as my agent, and I, David Gardiner, agree to buy," etc., etc. Next morning Nesbitt procured plaintiff's signature, but before he notified defendant, the latter, about 1 o'clock on April 23, gave Nesbitt written notice that he withdraw his offer. Held that the instrument was a mere offer by defendant and its acceptance not having been communicated to him before he withdrew it, he was not bound. See Brogden v. Metropolitan Ry. Co., L.R., 2, H.C., at p. 691. Action dismissed with costs. H. E. Irwin for plaintiff. James Bicknell for defendant.

3, Burton v. Burden, tried at the non-jury sittings, Toronto, on Oct. 24 last. In 1890 plaintiff sold certain land to R. W. Goode, taking back a mortgage for $1715, balance of purchase money. Goode then sold to David McAlden, subject to the mortgage. McAlden on April 4, 1890, conveyed the equity of redemption to defendant, the consideration being "the assumption of the existing encumbrance and $840," and after habendum it was stated as follows: "Subject also to $840, portion of existing mortgage, (being $4 a foot frontage), with interest which party of second part hereby assumes, and agrees to pay off according to terms thereof." This conveyance was not executed by defendant. Defendant never repudiated this conveyance, though aware of it. The plaintiff sues on an assignment from McAlden of covenant and his right to indemnity from defendant. The defendant alleged that he took the above conveyance as security for a debt owed to him by one Ottaway upon the understanding that he was not to be liable for the encumbrance. Defendant does not know McAlden, and alleged that McAlden had no rights against him to assign. The learned judge holds that defence fails, first, because it is not shown that McAlden was a party to the defendant's arrangement with Ottaway, and, second, because on the evidence it must be held that defendant must be taken to have been aware of the terms of the conveyance to him, and has accepted the benefit of it, and if not bound on the covenant is bound in equity to indemnify McAlden in absence of agreement with him to contrary. Under the authorities he holds that the direct liability of defendants to McAlden is assignable to plaintiff, though McAlden is not directly liable to plaintiff. Judgment for plaintiff accordingly. Consult British Canadian L. & I. Co. v. Tear, 23, O.R., 664, C. R. W. Biggar, Q.C., for plaintiff. R. U. McPherson and J. M. Clark for defendant.

At the non-jury sittings before Armour, C.J., C. W. Kerr for plaintiff, obtained judgment in Harcourt v. Power in terms of consent minutes.

Harris v. Bank of Toronto was continued and concluded. The learned Chief Justice found that there had not been an actual and continued change of possession to satisfy the statute, and without calling upon defendants directed judgment to be entered for defendants with costs. D. M. Defoe for plaintiffs. Wallace Nesbitt and R. McKay for Bank of Toronto. George Lindsey for defendant Moyle.

At the conclusion of this case counsel in the other cases on the peremptory list were not ready to proceed. Registrar Macnamara, with his usual forethought, had been keeping the temperature of the court room at 60 Fahrenheit. By some means the 6 had had become inverted. The thermometer now showed 90! The learned Chief Justice remarked that during his long practice at the bar he had never been out of court when a case of his had been called. After a short delay counsel in Walsh v. McCarthy were ready. It was an action by James J. Walsh, broker, of Toronto, against William Charles McCarthy of Toronto, a barrister, upon a mortgage made by defendant to plaintiff for $1000 and interest. The defendant admitted the execution of the mortgage, but claimed that the plaintiff, who had sold him the property, had not kept his agreement to do certain work upon it before the transaction was to be completed by deed. Afterwards the first mortgagees sold under the power of sale in their mortgage, and defendant says that the purchaser, John L. Coffee, acted in collusion with plaintiff to defraud him. Defendant claimed a refund from plaintiff of $800 paid to plaintiff on account of the mortgage sued on, and $500 damages for breach of the agreement and for $26, a rebate of taxes for year 1894, which plaintiff obtained from collector of taxes for 6th Ward, and to benefit of which defendant was entitled. J. Kelly for plaintiff; W. G. McWilliams for defendant. Judgment for plaintiff for $1044.60 and full costs of suit.

Then Mitchell v. Mitchell was upon application of J. A. Paterson, fixed for Tuesday next at 10 a.m.

Curtin v. Toronto Railway Co., an action against the railway for infringing a patent for cleaning dirt, etc., from tracks, such as are used by defendants, was on motion of Mr. Loftus for plaintiff, upon consent of defendants, adjourned to next sittings.

Rands v. Crocker not being ready, the court adjourned until Thursday, Nov. 7, at 10 a.m.

The following is the peremptory list: 1, Watson v. Macrae; 2, Fitzpatrick v. City of Toronto; 3, Rands v. Crocker; 4, Macdonald v. Beal; 5, Farwell v. Jamieson; 6, People's Loan & S. Co. v. Dale.

At the opening of the court judgment will be delivered in Quennville v. Semple.

The following cases are set down for argument before Street, J., in Single Court on Thursday, Nov. 7, at 10 a.m.: 1, Woodruff v. St. Catharines, and Niagara Central Railway Co.; 2, De Siorac v. Booth; 3, Du Cailland v. Booth; 4, re Solicitor (two cases); 5, Cameron v. Gauthier; 6, re Standard Milk Co.; 7, Moyer v. Canada Typograph Co.; 8, May v. Drummond; 9, Traders' Bank v. Maltby; 10, Vansickle v. Vansickle.

In the Court of Appeal it is expected that the argument in the Niagara Falls Park case will be concluded on Thursday, Nov. 7. The following is the peremptory list for that day: Commissioners of Niagara Falls Park v. Howard; re Brewers' and Distillers' Licenses.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief, and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.
