LOCAL ANGLERS HOLD BIG PICNIC

Western Ont. Fish and Game Protective Assoc. At Pond Mills Saturday.

RUN OFF SPORTS

The annual picnic of the Western Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association was held at Pond Mills on Saturday afternoon. In spite of the somewhat cool and cloudy weather, a good turnout of members and their friends was on hand to enjoy the program of sports.

The earlier part of the afternoon was spent in taking all those who cared to go for a boat ride around the ponds. Several visitors from points near Detroit commented on the beauty of the scenery, and were surprised that a spot that lay so close to the city could be kept without any so-called "man-made improvements" to mar the natural beauties of the ponds.

The sport program started at 4 o'clock and resulted as follows:

Girls' race, 12 to 14—Mary Collyer, Grace Rennie.

Boys' race, 12 to 14—C. Axtell, Norman McLeod, C. Dowling.

Girls' race, 9 to 12—Irene Reeves, Phyllis Collyer, Helen Jackson.

Boys' race, 9 to 12—Albert Gillett, Fred. Purrott, Reg. Thomas.

Girls' race, 6 to 9—Ruth Collyer, Helen Jackson, Lydia Johnson, Bernice Rennie, Edna Johnson.

Handicap race, open—Ruth Collyer, Albert Gillett, Helen Jackson, Phyllis Collyer.

Mystery race—Reg. Thomas.

Single ladies' race—1, T. Copner, half dozen photos, donated by Hines Studio; 2, Margaret Smith, cut glass flower basket, donated by Hobbs Hardware; 3, Nellie Moore, vase, donated by H. R. Bourton.

Married ladies' race—1, Mrs. Johnson, glass dishes, donated by Wm. Smith; 2, Mrs. Sheridan.

Pear race—1, Mrs. Johnson, sterling spoon and fork, donated by Wm. Nutkins; 2, Margaret Smith.

A prize of a toy wheelbarrow, donated by Edward Jury, was awarded to Master Donald McLeod, 13 months old, for being the best looking boy on the grounds.

After the sport were over, supper was served on the long tables, and everyone enjoyed to their fullest capacity the good things that were provided. During the supper hour Mr. Chris Pink related several humorous stories that were heartily applauded. It was shortly after supper that the strains of an old-time song were heard coming from the direction of the dock and all went down to find out who the singer could be. It was Lew Stewart standing in a boat. Mr. Stewart sang several selections and his clear silver voice floating in from the twilight-lit water was a fitting climax to another happy gathering of the members of the association at Pond Mills.

ALERTS DRILL TONIGHT

Tonight, a real drill is in store for the Alerts, who captured Saturday's opening tilt with Windsor. Errors were conspicuously noticeable in several of Alerts runs Saturday, although heavy hitting did its work. On several occasions, however, an error, on what should have been the third out, paved the way to additional Alert scores.

The management is taking no chances on Windsor's repeating their misplay tactics, and tonight's drill should prepare the squad to play ball all the way.

If Alerts win tomorrow at Windsor, they will likely meet Guelph in the first game Saturday or next Monday.

WIN EXHIBITION.

A picked team from the C. A. A. A. League defeated the Murray Shoe team at Sunshine Park on Saturday afternoon. As the Murray Shoemen's regular hurlers were unable to be present Curly Brennan was sent in the box, and only allowed two hits in the six innings he pitched.

Kelleher hurled for the winners and kept the hits well scattered, letting the Shoemen down with five hits. In the fifth inning Brennan was injured when sliding into third base, and he had to retire from the game. Fitzmaurice sprained his ankle in the last inning. The game was called in the seventh inning.

| The score by innings: | | R. | H. | E. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| C. A. A. A. | 000 002 4 | 6 | 3 | 0 |
| Murray Shoe | 000 302 0 | 5 | 5 | 1 |
