SPECTATORS WATCHING W. J. TRAVIS DRIVE.

New York, June 9.—Three was no mistake about the quality of golf displayed on the Apawamis links in the men's metropolitan championship. Of the eight survivors from the ordeal each had to put his best foot forward to shake off his opponent. This was in the morning, and in the afternoon, in the semi-final round, the two victors had to go their very best to reach the final stage.

After being pressed to the limit Frederick Herreshoff, representing Westbrook, and Walter J. Travis, long the hope of Garden City, overcame all opposition.

Mr. Herreshoff in the semi-final hurricane golf disposed of Robert C. Watson, by 3 up on the sixteenth green, and W. J. Travis by consistency defeated Findlay Douglas by the same margin.

ST. JOHN'S ADVANCED THE EXPENSE OF F.A.O.H.; GAME WAS A FAIR ONE; SCORE 9-4

A good-sized crowd turned out last evening to see a struggle between the two teams at present in the rear division of the Inter-Society League standing and were rewarded for their faith by a very fair game of ball. St. Johns won easily with a score of 9 to 4, but A. O. H. did not die easily, scoring two of their runs in the fourth inning.

Downing was in the box for the Fairville team and although he made it rather difficult for Jack O'Toole to hold his erratic hurls, he had three strikeouts.

Cregan, after being given a pass by Downing, and reaching second on a passed ball, brought in the first score when Keefe proved a phantom at short and Breen, with the assistance of another passed ball, scored on Keleher's smashing two-bagger. Keleher was marooned after Doherty had sacrificed and Kelly had tipped a high foul which J. O'Toole held.

A. O. H. evened the score in their half. Downing drew balls, but was forced out at second by Joyce, who advanced one on J. O'Toole's sacrifice, and crossed the plate when Keenan smashed out the first of his two-baggers. Keenan arrived at third station when the ball got past Keleher, and made Fairville's second tally when Kelly hit. P. O'Toole reached first on a dropped throw. McKinnon put himself on first by Keefe swinging three times with nothing doing.

Hits by Cregan and Breen in the third round with errors by P. O'Toole and McKinnon enabled these two players to add a score apiece. Ryan was let onto the bases when P. O'Toole dropped the fly directed in his section, and he and Murphy and McGuiggan did the circuit on a mishandle by Downing, a passed ball by J. O'Toole, and McGuiggan's safe single to right.

Harrington, who had a hit at each time up, started A. O. H. on a little scoring burst in the fourth. Downing had a life on Cregan's error, and was sacrificed ahead by Joyce. Harrington got in on Conboy's slow handling of J. O'Toole's grounder down the base line, and Downing arrived a little later on a boost furnished by a two-bagger from Keenan.

Each team went out in one-two-three order in the final inning of the game.

Morrissey showed his ability as a quick stabber in his first appearance at second, he and J. O'Toole making two pretty put-outs at second station.

NOVA SCOTIA FIRST, P.E.I. SECOND, NEW BRUNSWICK THIRD, IN TROPHY MATCH AT BEDFORD, N.S.

Special to The Standard.

Halifax, N. S., June 10.—The twenty-fourth annual contest for the inter-Maritime trophy at the Bedford Rifle Range today resulted in Nova Scotia winning, which makes the twelfth time for this province since the establishment of the competition in 1886. New Brunswick has won eight times. Next year the shoot takes place there.

The Scores.

The eight New Brunswickers present were Major Perley, score 80; Captain Forbes, score 90; Captain Golding, score 81; Captain Pratt, score 83; Lieutenant Chandler, score 94; Sergeant Gladwin, score 83; Sergt. Archibald, score 83; Sergt. Sullivan, score 87. Total score 681.

Nova Scotia led with 729; Prince Edward island having 719.

Lieut. Chandler, of New Brunswick, made the only possible, scoring thirty points at five hundred yards. As New Brunswick for the past two years had had one member of the permanent corps on its team, the regulations are to be amended to permit this in future, as permanent men are fellow Canadian citizens which was not the case when the original rules were drafted in 1886, which the nonly permitted active militiamen to participate.

RING NOBS.

Kid McCoy is trying to break into the promoting game in Paris.

Al Kubiak and John Willie will hook up for six rounds at Philadelphia June 16.

Jim Kendrick, the English bantam, and Patsy Brannigan are to meet at Johnstown, Pa. June 15.

Club managers at Terre Haute have secured an injunction restraining the mayor from interfering with their shows.

Young Peter Jackson, managed by Sam Fitzpatrick, [illegible] after a match with Sailor Burke before a California club.

Ad Wolgast and Teddy Peppers have been substituted for the McFarland-Knight contest at Kansas City, June 1.

Billy Clarke, of [illegible]wrence, is planning a trip throug[illegible]aine and Canada which will keep [illegible] busy for some time to come.

Jack McCormack, formerly a pugilist and wrestler, but more recently trainer of the Chicago National league team, is mentioned as an opponent for Jeffries at Pittsburg.

Young Erne, the Philadelphia lightweight, is another of the eastern mitt men to hike for the Pacific coast. He does not yet know whom he is to box, but it may be Chick Hudson.

Leach Cross will have his way about a New York referee when he boxes Dick Hyland June 26 at San Francisco. Billy Roche, formerly connected with pugilism in New York, will officiate.

Buffalo newspapers now claim that Sammy Smith, who boxed young Corbett at New York the other night, is really Billy Kaliska, a Central high school athletic, who played football on the school team in 1904-5.

The Battling Nelson-Ad Wolgast battle is on, Tom McCarey of the Pacific A. C. of Los Angeles, staging the contest for July 13. It will be a 10-round affair. Nelson is to receive $5,500 win, lose or draw, and Wolgast will be paid $1500.

DIAMOND DUST.

It is not at all certain that Chester Nourse, the Brown pitcher, will go to the Chicago Nationals. It would not be surprising to see Nourse and Raymond, his catcher, with the Boston Americans.

Daniel Coogan, coach of the Cornell baseball team, has signed another contract for a three years' term with the Ithacans. Coach Coogan has been at Cornell for three years, going there when Hugh Jennings, now manager of the Detroit Americans, a graduate of the school, gave up his position as coach.

McClure, of Amherst, has pitched three no-hit games this season. On April 1 he shut out Annapolis, 4 to 0, without giving the middies a hit. He duplicated this performance against Williams May 26, with the score 2 to 0, and June 6 he pitched his third no-hit game, defeating West Point, 3 to 0.

KING MADE HIT WITH AMERICAN HORSEMEN

London, June 10—Royal honors were bestowed yesterday afternoon on Judge W. H. Moore, of Chicago and New York, and Alfred G. Vanderbilt, when they were summoned by Lord Lonsdale to meet King Edward in the Olympic Annex, where the Moore and Vanderbilt horses are installed.

Later Judge Moore said:—"I am indeed much gratified that the King and Queen took such notice of my entries. I was sitting in my box with my family when an official came to me from Lord Lonsdale with a request that I should go to the Annex, where my horses are quartered, as the King and Queen were making a tour of inspection.

"On reaching my quarters I was taken in hand by Lord Lonsdale, who introduced me to the King. His majesty is the most democratic Monarch I ever hope to meet. The King instantly extended his hand, warmly congratulating me upon my successes, and the possession of such splendid horses. He then introduced me to the Queen, who also extended her hand and warmly congratulated me, adding her congratulations to those of the King.

"His Majesty is a splendid type of a thorough sportsman and it is no mystery that he is such an ideal among his people."

FERGUSON NEAR MANCHESTER, N. H.

Sandy Ferguson is quartered at a training camp at Lake Massabesic, near Manchester, N. H., where the McLean boys will personally attend to getting him into shape for the match with Joe Jeanette, which comes June 22 at the Armory A. A. Hugh McLean says that Sandy was never so anxious to get a return match with anybody as he is with the New Yorker.

MARATHONS AND CLIPPERS DISAGREE; NO GAME LAST NIGHT

There was no baseball game on the Every Day Club grounds last evening. The Marathons were present and so were the Clippers, there was also a good-sized crowd in the grand stand and about the field, but no game was played. The Clippers went on the field and had a half hour's practice which they claim to be entitled to by agreement and then walked off. An attempt to have an exhibition game fell through and the money was refunded to the spectators.

Two Sides

As in every dispute, there are two sides to the question. The Clippers' claim is that no agreement had been entered into for a game Thursday night, the advertising of a game last night had been done by the Marathons on their own responsibility, the Clippers went to the grounds merely for their regular practice.

Marathon Claim

The Marathon management claims that on Monday last in the presence of the official umpire and scorer, Wm. Gillespie of the Clipper management entered into an agreement to play Thursday evening. In accordance with that agreement a game for Thursday night had been advertised. On the field, however, James McBrine of the Clipper management repudiated the agreement and stated that he was managing the team.

Managements' Statement

The management of the two teams visited the Standard office last evening and made statements for publication. Mr. McBrine showed a document signed by himself and Mr. Gillespie for the Clippers and Messrs Tilley and Donald for the Marathons in which an agreement was made for a series of fifteen games to be played on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week and on five Saturdays to be agreed upon. Mr. McBrine based his action of last evening on the terms of this agreement.

The management of the Marathons stated that the agreement mentioned was but temporary until a schedule could be arranged, and contained a clause to the affect that dates for games were to be fixed by mutual agreement. Further it was stated that a disagreement between Gillespie and McBrine had caused the latter to repudiate Gillespie's agreement made Monday night.

Matters are Muddled.

At present matters are in a muddled condition. The Marathons say the agreement with the Clippers is null and void, also that the Clippers will be shut out of the Every Day Club grounds, and will have no practice privileges there. The Clippers on the other hand, claim that they will hold the Marathons to the agreement.

To Be Regretted.

It is greatly to be regretted that the disagreement has occurred. SSt. John likes baseball, and will support it. It will be a great pity if games between the Clippers and Marathons are to be called off.

May Go to Woodstock.

The Marathons may take a trip to Woodstock tomorrow. It is also possible that arrangements for games with other outside teams will be made next week.

INTERESTING CONTESTS ARE EXPECTED TOMORROW

The entries for the Every Day Club's sports which begin at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Victoria Grounds are complete and show that the event will be attended by more athletes from outside St. John than have the other events held this season.

Interest in Ten Mile Run.

The interest in the ten mile run is keen as Sterling who broke the Maritime record for five miles at Amherst the other day is entered, as is Cameron, of Amherst, who was second in the race. These two long-distance men alone should make the evennt interesting but in addition to these there are other well-known runners entered in this event.

George Stubbs' Case.

George Stubbs, of the Every Day Club, is entered for this event, but as he has been suspended by the M. P. A. A. A. it is doubtful if he will run. He has applied for reinstatement in the amateur ranks, and has communicated with Secretary Meyer and President Lithgow with regard to the matter. If his reinstatement is made in time he will run, otherwise his entry will be scratched.

The entrance of MacDonald, of Fredericton, who did such great work in the Interscholastic track meet into Saturday's sports is another fact adding interest to the event. MacDonalds 100 yards in 10 2-5 seconds on Wednesday is fast going for this section and as he is entered for senior as well as intermediate events on Saturday there should be fast time made in all and the winners will have to go the limit.

Five Mile Intermediate.

The five mile intermediate is also attracting great attention. All the best intermediate runners of the vicinity are entered. Entries from Chatham and Moncton have been made in this event.

The events and entries are as follows:

SENIOR

100 and 220 Yards Dashes

E. MacDonald, Fredericton; Geo. Blanche, Amherst; R. Wheeler, Algonquins; R. Garnett, Clippers; F. Grearson, Algonquins; A. W. Covey, E. King, Brown, R. Drynan, A. Rawlinson, E. D. C.

THE COOKVILLE CASE

Sackville, June 10—At the close of the inquest last night, Boyles and Mrs. Nesbitt were arrested on a coroner's warrant. They spent the night at Cookville and were brought to Sackville by Constable George Lawrence this morning. When they were brought before the magistrate for examination Mr. Trites asked for their remand as there will be no witnesses on hand. This was granted. The case will come up again Monday.

$2,420 FOR INKSTAND.

London, June 10.—The record price of $400 per ounce was paid today for a tiny silver inkstand of the period of Charles I., at an auction at Christie's. The total price paid for the article was $2,420.

Rev. Dr. Borden left yesterday for Avonport, N. S. He expects to return to Sackville in about a week's time and will then spend a few days here on business connected with the erection of the new wing of the Ladies' College. Mrs. Harry Wilson, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. B. Trenholm. She will remain in Sackville for about three weeks.—Sackville Tribune.

URIU BOOMS VASSAR; AND HE KNOWS

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 10.—Vassar girls make most amiable and lovable wives, according to Vice-Admiral Uriu of the Japanese navy, who married one of them.

"Your Vassar College is beautiful," said the Admiral to the students tonight. "To me it represents America, for you hear of it everywhere. Vassar young women are so well educated, so refined that they have their influence in all ways."

"Don't you think you were wise to marry a Vassar girl?" the Admiral was asked. He replied with a hearty laugh:

"Yes, for our home life has been very happy. Vassar girls are fitted to become the best wives. As such they are well to think of. And they are so very intelligent. Yes, I am very glad I married a Vassar girl. The Baroness and I can talk English and it is of great benefit to us."

In discussing Lord Rosebery's remark on the probability of war Admiral Uriu said:

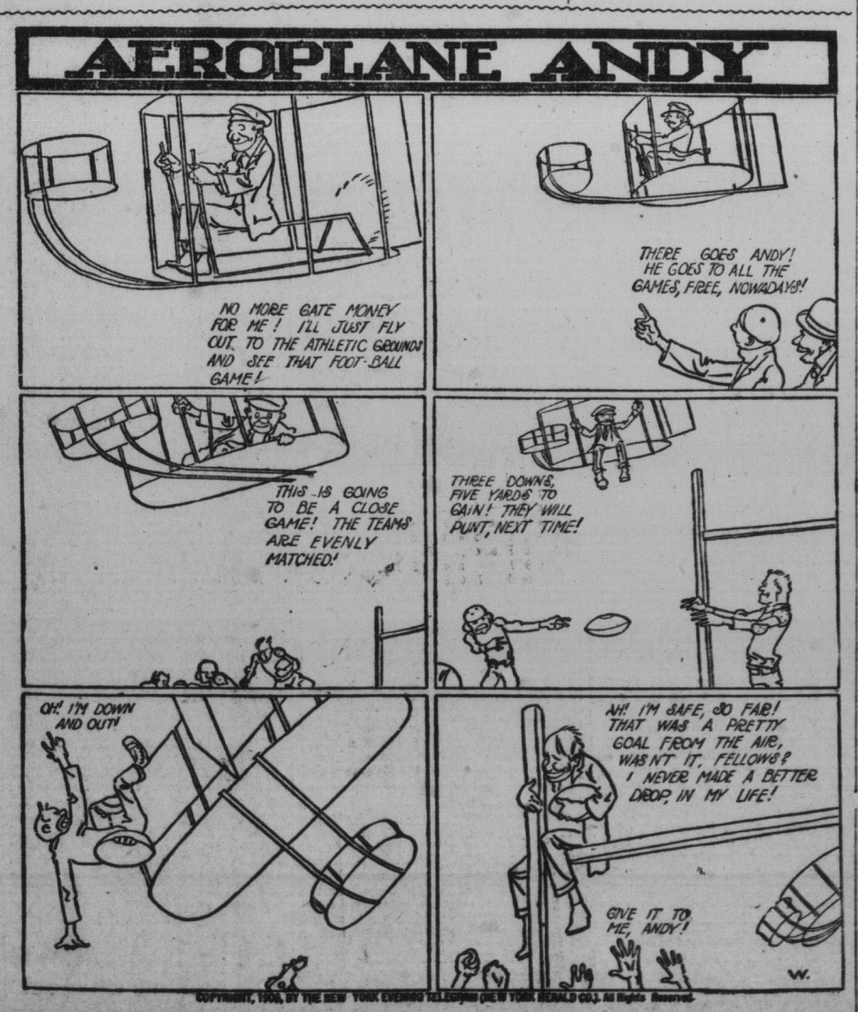
"I can see no outlook for war. Lord Rosebery must have been talking politics. Men are too wise to go to war. They know what it costs and that peace is best. But it is well for a great nation, even in time of peace, to prepare for war. All the nations are at peace now, but it is best to build big navies and be ready to fight should it be necessary.

"We in Japan are wise enough to want peace, for we know how many must be killed, and it is not good."

Admiral and Baroness Uriu are the guests of Prof. and Mrs. W. Bancroft Hill. Tonight they attended President James Monroe Taylor's reception. They will remain over tomorrow that the Baroness may attend the reunion of the class of 1881, of which she was a member.

PERRY GETS TERM IN THE STATE PRISON

BOSTON, Mass, June 10.—After pleading guilty to manslaughter, Herman M. Perry, was sentenced to not less than five nor more than ten years in state prison by Judge Sanderson in the Superior Court today for having shot and killed Miss Catherine McDougall, of Yarmouth, N. S., in a house in the South End on February 24th last. Perry, who is said to have formerly lived in Burlington, Vt., was indicted for murder in the first degree, but the state accepted his plea of manslaughter. Chief Dugan of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation stating to the court that he believed that Perry was temporarily crazed by despondency over business troubles. Perry, who is paralyzed from his hips down from the effects of poison which he took after the shooting, in an attempt to end his life, told the court that he bought the revolver to shoot himself and had no recollection of having shot the woman, with whom he said he had been on friendly terms.

DEVASTATED BY LOCUSTS.


Rome, June 10.—The countryside at Geraci Siculo, Sicily, is scourged with locusts. Entire crops have been destroyed.
