Rippling Rhymes

IDLE DREAMS.

If I were not so weighty, and if my wintry years were not so close to eighty, I'd scrap like seven steers. You would not see me sitting here in an easy chair, while martial lads are hitting each other everywere. I'd like to be a flyer, and mount an aeroplane, and soar up high and higher than you'd consider sane. I'd chase the Prussian birdmen with patriotic glee, and show them they're absurd men to mix things up with me. To Potsdam I'd go flopping on my large duplex wings, and there they'd see me dropping a lot of bombs and things. I'd spoil the Kaiser's palace, and leave it pounded flat, or else I'd bust a gallus and likewise break a slat. And then I'd work my pedals, and soar back whence I came, and have a lot of medals hung on my hero frame. And Pershing, Foch and Joffre, would cry "Parbleu! Gee whiz! Did ever mortal duffer see valor such as his?" And every pretty maiden within a dozen miles, would come, with barrels laden and hand me wreaths and smiles. My picture would be printed in all the magazines; "this man," it would be hinted, "has spilled the Prussian beans!" Alas, an old guy's dreaming is vain and futile now; I hear the housewife screaming, "It's time to milk the cow!" For me no tilts or tourneys, to shake the tyrants' thrones; on little niffling journeys I stir my ancient bones.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE.

Victoria, June 20.—R. W. Perry was chosen at a Conservative convention last night as the candidate in the provincial bye-election on June 28.

SOLDIER EMIGRATION
By Courier Leased Wire

London, June 20.—Sir R. A. Cooper, Unionist member of Walsal., asked in the House of Commons:

"Does the Government propose to pay the passage of soldiers and sailors desiring to settle in the Dominions after the war? Will they be given the same financial assistance beyond the passage money as returned soldiers Will the decision regarding their suitability for settlement in the Dominions be made in England or on arrival in the Dominions?"

Hon. W. A. S. Hewins, for the government replied that it was impossible to make a statement on this subject at present. It raised very important questions of policy on which parliament and the Dominions must be fully consulted.

WERE CARRYING TELEGRAMS
By Courier Leased Wire.

Washington, June 20. — Postal inspectors to-day arrested a number of travelling agents of the Western Union Telegraph Company between Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington and seized several cases they were carrying filled with messages filed for transmission by telegraph.

This practice, which is said to have been in operation by the telegraph company for some time, is considered a violation of postal laws forbidding persons not connected with the postal service from conducting a traffic in communications over regular post roads.

The facts discovered will be presented to grand juries and officials of the telegraph company will be summoned to explain the practice. The penalty for violation of the postal laws is a fine of more than $500 or six months' imprisonment

PLAN HOLIDAY BY SEASHORE

A holiday by the sea shore is the cherished desire of thousands of city dwellers. The big Atlantic combers, dashing into spray on rocky shores, or spending their force on broad sandy beaches, the bathing, the fishing, the boating and the bracing sea breezes combine to make an irresistible appeal. Why not, therefore, take that seashore holiday this year? Accommodation can be secured at a minimum of expense. The Grand Trunk Railway System has just issued a booklet of information that will help you plan your tour and choose your hotel, cottage or boarding house. This publication is "Portland, Casco Bay, Atlantic Seacoast and Maine Resorts," and describes one of the greatest holiday territories in America, a summer playground with mountains and lakes in addition to seashore delights. Copy of booklet and all information may be had on application to any Grand Trunk agent, or to C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.
