On Friday last Mr. Martin Fox. Presi on Friday land the Martin Fox, Fresh, dent of the International Iron Mouldors Union, had an interview with Mr. Edward Gurney, of the firm of E. & O. Gurney, with the object of bringing about, if pos, alble, a reconcilation between the firm the men who went out on strik nearly a year ago. -A long conference was held during which the causes that led to held during which the cluses that red to the strike were fully talked over. It may be remembered that the Union took ex-ception to the employment of moulders' helpers at laborers wages—claiming that the object of introducing them was to get them instructed in the trade so that the from would in the end, be able to substi-tute for the Union moulders a class of cheap and poorly skilled worknen. On this issue the men went out. Mr. Gurney in his interview with Mr. For claimed to have all the workmen he required and to be satisfied with the quality and quantity of goods turned out. He said that the old employees were free to come back so far as he had work for them, but that he would not dismiss any of the men he had taken on during the strike, to make room for them. The conference, therefore, ter-minated without leading to any practical Ar the regular weekly meeting of the Single Tax Association, held at Richmond Hall last Friday evening, President Wood in the chair, the secretary reported several contributions in aid of the proposed monthly periodical, setting forth the prin-ciples of the Association. The principal forthest principals and the principal of the principal forthest of the Association. epics of the Association. The principles feature of the evening was an impromptu discussion upon the question "What is property?" in which Messrs. Armstrong, Corson, Bengough, Best, Lyon, Jones and property? I' in which Measta. Armstrong, Corton, Bengough, Beat, Jyon, Jones and Scott took part. The concensus of opinion was in Lavor of the view that production was the only true basis of property, that every man led an equal right to excess to natural opportunities, and that the value given to knab by the influx of pepulation rightly belonged to the public and should be taken by texation for public uses. An article on Father Huntington was read by Mr. Sain Jones, who was followed by Mr. Richard Lewis in a speech expressing enthusiastic commendation of thosoprogressus cand philanthropicchurchmon such as Fathers Huntington and McGlynn and Cardund Manning, who endeavored to accure justice for the poor.

—On the evening of Friday the 16th, Mr. Samuel Jones, assisted by some of his friends, will gave an entertainment entitled "An Evening with Tom Hood,' contraining readings, recitations and crayon a ketches.
