The Night Owls of the Senior League have been strengthened all round for next Saturday's game on the Old U.C.C. grounds with the hustling Cadets. In the last two games the Birds have been hopelessly outclassed, and it all depends on their showing Saturday whether they will be retained in the league or not.

The Crescents and Park Nine will clash for the first time this season on the Old U.C.C. grounds on Saturday, and a battle royal should be the result. Hickey will pitch for the Crescents, and either Pearson or Stevens for the Park Nine.

The Park Nine have secured the Collegiate Rink, where they will practise nightly, starting at 6.30 p.m. to-day.

St. Kitts Has Strong Team and Will Make Even Brantford Hustle.

J. M. Cameron of the St. Ctaharines Athletic Lacrosse Club Executive is in the city, and talks glowingly of the prospects of his team for the coming summer. He named over the list of St. Kitts players, all home-brewed except McLean and Cornett, from Shelburne, who may not make the team, and declares taht St. Kitts will make even Brantford, with their Dade and Henry, hustle. Mr. Cameron thinks the Tecumsehs on paper look none too strong, but on the whole expects a great season for the C.L.A. and some hot games in the senior series. The Athletic availables are as follows:

Toronto Won—Social Talk.

Manchester, May 13.—(Telegram Cable.)—The Torontos played an extra match to-day against the Midlanders at Fallowfield.

They go to Belfast to-night and play their first Irish match on Thursday. G. R. Simpson, the Newmarket, Ont., player, who came over as spare man with the Torontos, sailed to-day for home, business compelling him to leave earlier than he had intended.

Some members of the Toronto team have been telling Manchester people that the two best players Toronto had were left behind owing to their social position not being good enough to qualify them for a trip to England.

J. Melrose Macdonald acknowledges the London interview, in which it was stated the Torontos were composed principally of bank clerks, but he could only name two, Simpson and Grey, and the latter is not with the team.

Toronto won to-day's match at Fallowfield by 18 goals to 8. It was very much of a fiasco, and only 250 persons were present.

They will take the car leaving the C.P.R. crossing, Yonge-street, at 1.30 p.m. A special rate has been secured, and any supporters wishing to accompany the team had better see the secretary not later than Thursday night to obtain this rate.

Football Fast and Furious.

Elora, May 13.—A fast and furious football match was played in Fergus to-day between Elora and Fergus High School teams, resulting in a victory for Elora. Score 1 to 0. The Fergus club have the makings of a good team if they would study the rules of the game.

Erne's Defence Lamentably Weak

The fight between Frank Erne of Buffalo and Joe Gans of Baltimore in the arena of the International Athletic Club of Port Erie last night was a distinct disappointment to everybody, with the possible exception of Joe Gans and his manager, Al Herford, says The Buffalo Times. Even Gans' most ardent admirers complained bitterly because they didn't get a run for their money. They wanted action, but got none. The fight was over in exactly one minute and 40 seconds, at the end of which Kenner: Gans was lightweight champion of the world, while Erne was ex-champion.

The end came so suddenly that every one of the 5000 was amazed. They could not realize for a moment that Erne had been knocked out. But he was, and he did not regain possession of his senses for several seconds after his handlers had picked him up and carried him to his corner, where they did everything possible for the dethroned champion.

It was an awful blow that put Erne down and out. It was a straight right jab, and it caught Erne in exactly the right spot on the chin, just under the left corner of the mouth. Gans knew when he landed it that the fight was over. He stook back, and, with a scornful curl on his lip, watched his white rival writhe and struggle on the resin-besmeared floor, while Charley White, the referee, counted off the seconds.

Erne's defence was lamentably weak. He was certainly guilty of a gross piece of carelessness when he dropped his guard and allowed Gans to cross him. The lightning-like character of the defeat struck consternation into the hearts of the thousands of Erne men at the ringside. They were dumbfounded. Their champion had met defeat before he had fairly begun to fight.

Presentation at St. Michael's.

A very pleasant gathering took place in the College Hall at St. Michael's on Tuesday last, when Mr. W. Collins was the recipient of a gold-lined mug, a gift from the Sophomores. A hand-ball tournament has been in progress among the Philosophers these last two weeks, and Mr. Collins was the successful winner. In recognition of this the other gentlemen who took part in the tournament presented him with the gift and an address. Mr. Ed. Kelly read the address, while Mr. F. Quinn made the presentation. Mr. Collins replied in a few well-chosen words, and the gathering, after congratulations, dispersed. It may, moreover, be remarked that Mr. Collins was also the recipient of a magnificent bouquet of American Beauty roses.

SEAGRAM NEW YORK STRING

Eight Under Charge of Frank McCahe Due to Arrive in Toronto To-Day.

WHICH IS BEST WATERLOO PLATER?

Maple Sugar Conceded to Be Hendrie's Best Trials at Woodbine Park.

While the forces of Seagram an Hendrie have not yet clashed on the track this spring their strength has been tested twice on the baseball diamond, with honors easy.

The Seagrams journeyed to Woodbine Monday and played the return game, defeating Mr. Ed. Whyte's team by the handsome score of 16 to 4. The players were:

Seagrams (16): Slosson lf., Tolton 2b., Graham rf., Goose c., Pram p., Smith 1b., Crawford ss., Dixon 3b., McDonald cf.

Hendries (4): McQuade cf., Ed. Whyte 1b., Tom Walker p., Gallagher ss., McAvoy c., Beamish lf., A. Moxley 3b., Basso rf., Dan Curtain 2b. Umpire—Mr. Tuskin.

The first game last week was in favor of Hendrie, and the rubber is to be played not later than next Monday at East Toronto. Both sides possess several crack ball tossers, and the team that gets into the best shape for the third game will likely prove the winner.

So in the big race for the King's Plate, to be decided one week from to-morrow. Out at old Newmarket they show the utmost confidence. Three of the four Waterloo Platers have been backed because they are good, and the stable, like the public, are busy guessing which is the best. Fly-in-Amber would get it on looks over Onetiros, who occupies the favorite stall at Newmarket, while Eastern Prince is credited with a trial of 2.16 on the track out there one morning recently, when no one was looking. Everyone seems to know that Maple Sugar is Hendrie's best, chiefly because she forced a driving finish for the Stanley Produce Stakes a year ago, when John Ruskin won the mile and a quarter race in 2.12¼.

The Davies people are sweet on Parisian Lady's chances, with her stable companion, Opuntia, also in forward condition.

Good judges say that Cardigan's work again yesterday was not impressive, while the Higgins horse was likely sent on a gallop, according to Trainer Gates' instructions.

Dr. Smith's Fernie ran in a 4½ furlong race at Woodbine last fall, finishing third to Plum Tart and Circus Girl. Time .56½, but Charley Wise says she will not do. And we are once more back to a duel between Seagram and Hendrie, with the chances all in favor of the former.

Word was received yesterday that Mr. Seagram's New York string had just started for Toronto, and would arrive some time to-day in charge of Frank McCabe. There are eight in the lot, as follows:

Basuto, ch.h., 4, by Masetto—Soon Ban. Cobourg, br.h., 5, by Himyar—Grace Lee. Dramatist, ch.c., 2, by Racket—Rosebud. Far Rockaway, ch.h., 4, by Faraday—Slipaway.

Gold Cure, ch.c., 3, by Goldinch—Allannah. Healing Salve, b.f., 2, by Dr. MacBridge—Faveral.

Pan Lougin, gr.c., 2, by Faraday—Katydid.

Pan Zagloba, br.c., 2 by Faraday—Safety.

At the Woodbine yesterday the weather was fine and bright, the course very fast and some excellent times were made by the different horses. Fast work was done by G. W. Cook's Orontas and Mr. Dyment's plate eligible.

Revelstoke and Barrie were galloped by Trainer John Dyment 1¼ miles, the full plate distance, in 2.17½. They stepped to the quarter in .25, the half in .51, six furlongs in 1.18½, mile in 1.46½, finishing strong, Revelstoke carrying 98 pounds, and easily leaving Barrie behind.
