Latest from Havana.—The New Orleans Bee contains Havana dates to the 10th inst

There was a verbal report that more than a hundred negroes had been shot at Matanzas, for having taken part in the late insurrection. A large number of prisoners were still in confinement at Havana. The subjoined letter from our correspondent furnishes the principal items of news:—

HAVANA, April 10th, 1844.—A man from the American brig Mary Pennell, from New York, was shot yesterday, by the sentinel at the wharf, for not obeying immediately his order to take away the boat from that place. The name of the murdered seaman was Michael Murphy, a naturalized citizen, aged 22 years. The Mary Pennell, Merryman, master, belonged to Portland, Maine, and arrived at Havana on the 7th inst. from New York. The outrage was committed in the presence of hundreds of spectators of all nations, who denounced it as the foulest deed they ever witnessed.

In less than half an hour after it was committed every foreign vessel in port had its colours at half mast, and the same mark of indignation was repeated the next day.

We are pleased to see that the Captain General promply arrested the authors of this outrage, and that upon the representations of the American Consul the whole affair would undergo a legal investigation.

HALIFAX, April 30.

From Newfoundland.—The steam packet North America, which sailed from hence on Friday the 19th inst. returned again on Saturday last, having made the voyage, including the stoppage at Newfoundland, in less than eight days. The North America was only 2½ days on her passage to St. John's, and made the passage back in 70 hours.

The business of the Legislature was drawing to a close. It was understood that the Bill for altering the Constitution of the Colony would not be passed during this Session.

The dwelling house of Mr. David Garland, at Harbour Grace was consumed by fire on Wednesday morning the 3rd April about 6 o'clock. Melancholy to relate, out of seven persons who retired to rest on the preceding night, three fell a prey to the flames.

ST. GEORGE'S FESTIVAL.—Nearly one hundred members of the St. George's Society and their guests, dined together at the Hotel on Tuesday evening last. The Banners of the Society, which had been carried in the morning's procession, were tastefully arranged in the Saloon, and a new and handsome transparency representing St. George and the Dragon, was placed over the entrance, and lit up during the evening. The Rifle Band was in attendance, and answered the Toasts by appropriate airs. Lockyer did his best for the occasion in furnishing the substantials and delicacies of the season. Toasts and songs wiled away the time until 12 o'clock, at which hour the President left the table, and soon after the company separated. The following are the Toasts given from the Chair, which were all drank with enthusiasm:

1. St. George and Merrie England.
2. GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.
3. The Queen Dowager, Prince Albert, Albert, Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family.
4. CHURCH AND STATE.
5. THE BRITISH CONSTITUTION—may its integrity ever be preserved, and may it be our happiness ever to enjoy its blessings and our Glory to defend it.
6. The Right Honorable SIR ROBERT PEEL and Her Majesty's Ministers.
7. His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor General. May the firm stand he has taken in supporting the Royal Prerogative, secure the just rights of the People, the dignity of the Crown, and the Unity of the Mighty Empire of which the Provinces under His Government form so essential a part.
8. His Excellency the Right Honble. Viscount Falkland, Lieutenant Governor of Nova-Scotia. May he continue to assert the true interests of the Province.
9. His Grace the Duke of Wellington. No Eulogy can add lustre to his name.
10. The Army and Navy.
11. The Viscountess Falkland and the Ladies of our Land.
12. The Right Revd. and Honble. The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, and the Clergy of all denominations.
13. The Honble. The Chief Justice, the Bench and Bar of Nova Scotia.
14. Lieut. General Sir Jeremiah Dickson, and the Troops under his command.
15. Vice Admiral Sir Charles Adam, and the North American Squadron.
16. Our late worthy Lieut. Governor, His Excellency Sir Colin Campbell
17. The Mayor and Corporation of the City of Halifax.
18. The Charitable Societies of Nova Scotia, may harmony ever prevail amongst them.
19. The Land we live in, its Agriculture, Commerce, and Fisheries.
20. Englishmen and their Firesides, when they forget their hearth stones, may their Country forget them. [Times.

MELANCHOLY SUICIDE.—An Inquest was held on Wednesday upon the body of a young man found lying dead in the Tower Woods. The witness who discovered the body deposed that, on Tuesday afternoon he was walking up the road leading from the Five Gun Battery, towards the Tower and struck into the woods, on his left, for purpose of gathering Mayflowers, when he came upon the body of the deceased, and imagining it to be a person asleep he approached for the purpose of awakening him, and perceived that one end of a black neckerchief was fastened tightly round his neck, and that his countenance appeared to exhibit death produced from strangulation; he also noticed that the branch of a pine tree, which reclined immediately over the body, appeared to be borne down by some heavy weight. The witness then apprized several persons who were near the spot of the discovery of the body, and upon examination it was found that the deceased had come to his death from hanging, and that the end of the handkerchief, which had been fastened to the branch of the before mentioned tree had been undone by the weight of the body. Upon further testimony being produced, it appeared that the deceased was named Colin Lowrie; that he was a native of Dunfermline, in Scotland, and had arrived here a few months ago from the West Indies, suffering from severe illness; that shortly after his arrival he met with some friends, in this city, who formerly belonged to his native place, and who gave him a home, and did all in their power to restore his health; that he had been sometime anxiously expecting to hear from home, and upon ascertaining on Saturday last, after the opening of the mail from England, that there were no letters for him, he showed himself to be exceedingly low spirited and dejected, and after parting from his friends on that evening, was not seen again until his body was found. Verdict.—That the deceased hung himself whilst insane.—Halifax Recorder.

THE ARMY OF INDIA.—It is stated that Lord Ellenborough made his appearance in person on the field of Mahaijpore, Lady and Miss Gough were also present, and were frequently at the side of the General in the thickest of the fight.

We learn from good authority that the accommodations for the public offices in Montreal will be ready on the 15th May, for the Governor General on the 1st of June, and for the Legislature on the 1st of July. The Department will leave Kingston about the middle of May, and his Excellency will take his departure for the new metropolis at the beginning of June.

We believe that the arrangements for the formation of a new ministry are nearly completed. The cabinet will be composed of five, or at most six individuals, and there will be a reduction in the salaries of heads of departments, and other "reforms" which, no doubt, will be highly gratifying to the people at large. There is to be a Solicitor General for each section of the province—one to reside at Toronto, the other at Quebec. These gentlemen are not to have seats in the cabinet, but will go in and out with the ministry of the day.—Niagara Chronicle.

Their Worships the Printers.—Mr. Harper, one of the great New York publishers of that name, has been elected Mayor of New York. The Philadelphia Courier states that the Mayors of London, Edinburgh, Perth, Glasgow, New York and Washington, are Printers.

Major Bray, 39th, while leading the regiment at Gwalior, observed that his gallant son, an Ensign, who was carrying one of the colours, was struck down by a grape shot. The father paused for a moment, and that was to pick up the colour, and waving it over his head dashed on till relieved by Ensign Newport.

An idol was captured from a Chinese priest at the investment of Canton, while in the act of carrying it off, from the temple, by Lieut. Clerfeuvre Faunt, of Youghal, and several were sent home from the same country, by Lieut. M. Hayman, of the 18th Royal Irish.

Lieut. Warburton, 60th Rifles, ordered a detachment of his men out of Monaghan chapel, on Sunday last, when the Priest began to offer up prayers for Mr. O'Connell and the other Repeal traversers. —Limerick Chronicle.

PERSONAL ORNAMENT.—A highly interesting work might be composed on the various and dissimilar modes of Personal Embellishment practised among different nations, and the chapter devoted to the Teeth could not but prove one of the most attractive in the volume. Among many savage nations the practice is well known to prevail of dyeing the teeth black, which is esteemed a high degree of ornament; while, on the contrary, our Fair Beauties, relying on nature for their attractions, seek only to preserve the charms which she has so richly bestowed on them, and endeavour simply to preserve the white and pearly character of the Teeth. Among the various means suggested for this object, we would select the justly celebrated 'ODONTO' prepared by Messrs. Rowland, of London, as the most admirable and perfect Dentifrice yet submitted to the Public.
