LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

The government steamer Stanley will be laid up at Pictou on March 1st in order to have her boilers cleaned.

See Weeks & Co's advertisement. We believe there is no better place in town to get good honest goods at fair prices.—3 in.

John Schlayer, foreman of Kinlem's furniture factory at Fredericton, N. B is in prison charged with an outrage on a girl of twelve years. He is a middle aged man and has a large family.

By reference to another column, it may be seen that the old tobacco making firm of Hickey & Nicholson are still prepared to supply users of the weed, with the choicest article in that line. Their goods are so well and favorably known that it would be superfluous for us to say anything about them.

The Eastern Assurance Company held their fourth meeting in Halifax on Thursday. Some of the stockholders wanted the business wound up immediately; but after a long discussion it was resolved that the business of the Company be continued for another year, and that the question of winding up be then considered, if deemed necessary.

Edward Bok's successful article in the January "Cosmopolitan" on "The Young Man in Business" has been reprinted in a tasteful and handy booklet form at 10 cents by the Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia. To this reprint Mr. Bok has added some 14 pages of editorial matter answering "Three Uncertain Young Men."

The damage to the stock in Mr. Peter Doyle's grocery store, on the occasion of the recent fire, has been appraised at $954.88. The appraisers estimate that the stock covered by insurance at the time of the fire was $1225.41. Mr. Doyle was insured for $300 in the Imperial Insurance Company. The appraisers were W M Coffin and Donald Nicholson.

Some couples who had determined to enter into the bonds of wedlock, were sadly disappointed when on enquiring at the Provincial Secretary's office for marriage licenses, they were informed that no such licenses could be issued until a new Governor would be appointed. The law does not allow marriage licenses to be issued while there is no governor of the Province.

A rather unusual occurance—a marriage in Lent—took place in the cathedral at St. John, N. B., last week. The bride and groom who were both prisoners in jail had been arrested a few days previously on the charge of larceny. The bride was about to become a mother and hence the marriage. After the ceremony the complainant in the case refused to prosecute and the couple were allowed to go free.

The city police marshal of Moncton also occupies the rather undignified position of dog hangman. Dogs whose owners have not paid their taxes, or that have in any way become a nuisance, are taken to the lockup and hanged by the neck until they are dead, a miniature scaffold having been rigged up for the purpose. The city authorities should be able to devise some better method of getting rid of the undesirable dog population.

The funeral of the late Governor Carvell took place on Friday. His remains were removed from Government House to St. Peters Church in the morning and remained there till 3 o'clock in the evening when the funeral service took place. When the body was being removed from the church a salute of fifteen guns was fired from the fort in Victoria Park. The funeral procession, which was a large one, formed at the church door and thence it proceeded to St. Peters Cemetery where the body was interred.

The Halifax Critic, which has built up a most enviable reputation as the exponent of the mining, manufacturing and commercial interests of the Maritime Provinces, is to enter upon an advanced field of usefulness, and made its last appearance as the Critic with its issue of February 9th, having been absorbed by a limited company with ample capital and influence to maintain and rapidly promote the high aims of the founder of that journal. It will hereafter appear as the "Canadian Colliery Guardian Critic, and Journal of the Iron and Steel Trades." When paid in advance the subscription price will be $1.00, otherwise $1.50

The bandmaster in charge of the march at the festivities of opening and closing of the Nova Scotia Legislature appears to be somewhat of a wag. Last spring when the provincial law makers assembled to consider the granting of the Dominion Coal Co'y Charter, the populace was greatly amused to hear the strains of "Down in a coal mine," enliven the air. On Monday the 12th inst., at the prorogation of Parliament our musical friend was equal to the occasion and wound up matters by playing "Will ye no come back again?" The significance of this will be apparent when it is understood that the Elections come off in March, when some of the members will likely lose, for a time at least the privilege of representing their Counties.

Thursday evening as Wm. L. Peck was crossing the Memel bridge at Albert, N. B., with a three horse team load of wood, the bridge, some 100 feet long and fifty feet high, collapsed with a load crash taking the load, team and driver with the falling timbers to the depths below. Men brought there by the crash were surprised to find Mr. Peck conscious and able to talk. He was taken to his home and medical aid summoned. No bones were broken and though much bruised and severely cut on one thigh he is doing well and expected to recover. Two of the horses were killed in the fall and buried in among the timbers of the bridge. The third horse it is thought will recover though hurt considerably. That Mr. Peck was not killed is the great wonder.—Maple Leaf.

Said a Lady

to us a day or two ago, "You folks have got your name up for selling goods very cheap."

"We're going to keep it up," said we in reply.

The old-fashioned way of doing business was to charge as much as possible;—the new way, the way that draws the crowds, the way that is building up our big business, is to sell as cheap as possible.

We prefer doing a big business and selling goods cheap, to doing a small business and selling goods dear.

It Pays Us to Make it Pay You.

to buy from us and that's just what we're doing.

Our Fur Goods are desperately cheap and the balance of our Jackets, Capes and Ulsters can be bought for the price of the cloth.

All kinds of Goods are cheap. You see we must have money to pay for the big stock of goods our buyer is now buying in the Old Country.

Buy now—the profits are yours not ours.

NOTICE!

Is hereby given that I have this day taken into partnership my brother, Mr. R. M. Johnson, Phm. B., and in future we will do business under the name of Johnson & Johnson. I take this opportunity to thank you for the liberal patronage extended to me in the past, and solicit a continuance of the same for the new firm.

A. S. JOHNSON.

Charlottetown, January 17, 1894.

Junior Alley lectured last evening before the B I S at Emerald in aid of their hall.

We understand that Mr. James R. McDonald of Cardigan Bridge will commence the construction of a new vessel, in the spring.

The Nova Scotia legislature has been dissolved. The general election will be held on March 15th. Both parties are busily placing their candidates in the field.

The voting for Mayor and Water Commissioner on Wednesday resulted in the election of W. E. Dawson, Esq., for the former office and Henry Smith, Esq., for the latter.

The validity of the New Brunswick succession tax is disputed. Three estates have refused to pay. The matter has been argued in the supreme court, and judgment deferred.

The steamer Stanley left Georgetown on Tuesday of last week and did not arrive at Pictou till Sunday morning. She was stuck fast in the ice during the intervening time.

At the third annual drive and dinner of the employees of the St John Sun Printing Co Saturday, Mr Richard Walsh, formerly of this city, and now on the staff of the Sun, replied to the toast of the St John Typographical Union.

Revd E J Grant, Baptist Minister of Sussex, N B, who was recently arrested on a charge of criminal libel against Justice Morrison, was on Monday committed to stand his trial in the Supreme Court. He was admitted to bail for $3000.

John Mallett of West Royalty, who was fined $50 for a breach of the Canada Temperance Act and decided to appeal to the Supreme Court, from the decision of the Magistrates, has since changed his mind and paid his fine.

The Daily Nor'-Wester, an eight page five column newspaper, is the name of a new Winnipeg journal. The paper is "Independent but not neutral." Mr. W. F. Luxton, late editor of the Winnipeg Free Press, is editor-in-chief.

John A. Macaskey, for seven years past license inspector for Halifax, has been dismissed by the city council, and H H Banks appointed to the position. Macaskey was blamed for the non-enforcement of the license law. Over one hundred and ten licenses were granted this year, and twenty applications refused.

The Emerald Branch of the Benevolent Irish Society intend to make their entertainment on the evening of St. Patrick's Day surpass anything of the kind they have heretofore held. An excellent programme has been prepared and the Revd. W. W. Brewer of Charlottetown is announced to deliver the address on the occasion.

Mr. Richard Hunt was yesterday elected chairman of the Summerside town council by acclamation. The following gentlemen nominated as councillors: Alex Campbell, P R Baker, James A McNeill, Ronald Campbell, James McLeod, John F Ramsay, J E Lefurgey, W H Brown, J H Locke, John Goss, H A Compton, W P Baker. Six councillors are to be elected. Tuesday next is election day.

Quite a number of gentlemen are spoken of as probable successors to the late Lieut. Governor Carvell in the office of Governor of this Province. Among those who are said to have a "good chance" to obtain the office are: Messrs. P Blake, F Brecken, W E Dawson, Judge Hensley, Senator Howlan, A Hunt, Dr Jenkins, Archibald J Macdonald, A U Macdonald, J T Mellish, L C Owen, George Peake and W Richards. Dr Jenkins left here Sunday night presumably in connection with this matter.

The Petitcodiac River, N. B., is at present frozen over at high water mark from the Moncton and Coverdale bridge to the head, a distance of fully three quarters of a mile. This is almost an unprecented occurrence, and has not happened since sometime in the vicinity of seventy five years ago. On the occasion in question it was before any bridge spanned the river and the ice was so strong that men and teams crossed between Moncton and Albert.

A young man named Robert Crawford had his feet badly frozen at Mermaid, Lot 48, on Wednesday night. He was attending a dance at a house in that place and he and two companions started to walk to another house near by. They took the wrong road and after walking about three miles separated, Crawford going one way and the two others another. Crawford wandered about for a considerable time before reaching a dwelling and when he did he found that both his feet were frozen.

Matthew Phelan, a Scott Act offender from Mount Stewart, who is at present serving out his sentence in Queen's County jail, made application to Judge Hodgson last week for his discharge on the ground that the warrant of committment issued against him was illegal. The case came up for hearing yesterday. Mr W S Stewart, appeared for Phelan and the Attorney General opposed him. After hearing the arguments of the counsel the learned Judge decided that the warrant was a valid one and ordered Phelan back to jail.

An Ottawa despatch of the 17th inst. says an order in Council has been passed re-establishing Prince Edward Island as a separate military district. Formerly this Island was a military district by itself, but sometime ago it was united with New Brunswick and the headquarters were located there. This arrangement occasioned our volunteers considerable inconvenience and strong representations were made at Ottawa to re-establish the old state of affairs. Fortunately the petitioners were successful. Lieut. Col. Dogherty commandant of the 82nd Batt. has decided to perform his claims for the vacant post of D. A. G.

At Notre Dame Convent, in this city, may be seen a sample of carving in marble, which for elegance of design, beauty of taste and perfection of workmanship surpasses anything the kind we have ever seen. It is a marble credence table, from the workshop of Mr. Wm. P. Lewis, stonecutter, of Cardigan Bridge who generously donated it to the good sisters of the Convent. The design is touchingly appropriate. In the centre are cut a few ears of wheat entwined with clusters of grapes, emblem-ing the bread "that came down from Heaven," and the wine "that germinates Virgins." Around those symbols is carved a beautiful wreath formed by the happy union of the Rose, Shamrock and Thistle. The clever sculptor here breathes his own pious feelings into the inanimate stone, which under his magic hand becomes instinct with life, and expresses most touchingly the desire that our Holy Religion, whose essence is the sacrifice of the Mass, may henceforth continue to flourish under the protecting shadow of the national emblems of our Mother Country; that as on her dominions the sun never sets, so may this Holy Sacrifice continue to be offered up the world over as foretold by the prophet Malachy: "And in every place there is a sacrifice and there is offered to my name a clean oblation." The outer margin of the table is hung with exquisite drapery, artistically chiselled and revealing in its folds the cross and shamrock. Mr. Lewis is to be congratulated on the piety and genius so beautifully displayed in this piece of work. The sisters of Notre Dame desire to thank him publicly for this magnificent gift, as well as for all his former manifestations of kindness and esteem.

A heavy snow storm set in early Thursday evening and continued during the night. The drift was heavy in many places particularly along the line of the railway. The mail special which left here Thursday night went off the track at Bradalbane and was not got on again till Saturday. She then proceeded on her way to Cape Traverse but was unable to get through till Sunday morning. The tracks between here and Souris and Georgetown were cleared Saturday. The line from here to Tignish was not cleared till yesterday.

As the beginning of the new year is the time, above all others, when people make it a point to settle up their little bills for the past year, we would respectfully request our readers to bear the Herald in mind when they are squaring their accounts. During the past year a great many of our subscribers sent in their money promptly and we now, wish to express our thanks to them for so doing; but there are some who have neglected to remit the amounts due by them. It is not that these persons cannot pay and much less is it that they will not. They just put the matter off from time to time, and consider that as the amount due by them is small the Editor will never miss it. Here, however, is where they make a mistake. Suppose two thousand of our readers owed but one dollar each and concluded that as the amount was so small the paper would not miss it, and failed to remit. This would amount to two thousand and the paper could not help but miss it. At present there are several thousand dollars due us in small amounts and we ask our subscribers who have neglected paying so far, to send in at once what is due by them.

McGreevy and Connolly, now serving one year in gaol for conspiracy, to defraud the government, have been denied a new trial.

An extensive conspiracy, having for its object the restoration of Poland's freedoms is said to have been discovered. The conspirators are said to include Nihilists as well as persons not usually found affiliating with members of that sect. A large number of arrests have been made. Among those taken in custody are the entire editorial staffs of two Warsaw journals and many Catholic priests. The conspiracy is said to have extended to many other places in Poland.

WHY HOOD'S WINS.

President Lincoln said, "You cannot fool the people a second time." They are too quick to recognize real merit or lack of it, and cling only to those things which they find to be what is claimed for them.

It is especially gratifying that the sale of Hood's Sarsaparilla increases most rapidly in those sections where it is best known.

The inference is plain. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven that it possesses genuine merit. It maintains a high standard, which others cannot even approach. It is the people's favorite blood purifying and building up medicine, and is more popular this year than ever before. All this because Hood's cures.

The world's standing armies and navies employ 9,000,000 men.

Prize History of the Fair.

We are pleased to learn that the World's Columbian Exposition Illustrated received the Highest and Only Award as the most Authentic and complete Illustrated History of the Great World's Fair.

This valuable work contains full descriptions of the Fair with 3,000 large, copper-plate half-tone, photographic illustrations of the Grounds, Buildings, Exhibits and attractions of the Exposition. The illustrations are from photographs, showing the laborers as they turned the first shovel full of earth when the great Fair was begun, and the progress of the Exposition Grounds and Buildings in all stages of construction from the swamp covered with brush and trees, to the world-famed "White City," filled with treasures of Art and works of Genius from the store-houses of the world, and adorned with its Spires, Turrets and Gilded Domes.

In all it is the richest and most valuable work ever published. It is the World's Fair on paper. By perusing its pages the great exposition can be savored in years to come. It should be in every library and home in the civilized world. Send 25 cents for sample number and full particulars. Reliable agents wanted. Address

J. B. Campbell, President,

Common Sense.

This invaluable quality is never more apparent in man or woman than when shown in his or her choice of periodical reading matter. First in order should come the Local Newspaper so that pace may be kept with the doings of the busy world. It should be a paper like the Herald which gives all the latest Home News as well as all the General News, Political News and Market News, with seasonable Editorials on current topics. No one can get along without his home paper. The newspaper should be supplemented by some periodical from which will be derived amusement and instruction during the evenings at home, where every article is read and digested. Such a paper to fill every requirement should possess these qualities.

First—It should be a clean, wholesome paper that can safely be taken into the family. It should be illustrated with timely engravings.

Second—A paper that is entertaining and instructive while of sound principles. Its moral tone should be beyond question.

Third—A helpful paper, one that tells the housewife of home life, thoughts and experiences, and keeps her in touch with social usage and fashion.

Fourth—A paper abounding in original character, sketches, brilliant sayings, unctuous humor, and brilliant wit.

Fifth—It should contain good stories and pleasing matter for young people, that the children may always regard the paper as a friend.

Sixth—Literary selections and stories suitable for older people should be given, for they, too, like to enjoy a leisure hour.

Seventh—In short, it should be a good all round Family Journal, a weekly visitor which shall bring refreshment and pleasure to every member of the household.

We offer to supply our readers with just such a paper; one of national reputation and circulation. It is the famous

The Detroit Free Press.

New Publications of Catholic Church Music received from J. Fischer & Bro., No. 7 Bible House, New York:

1. Missa di Angelis (Gregorian in modern notation), with Organ accompaniment. By C. P. Morrison. Price, 50 cents.

2. Missa Regina Angelorum, For Soprano, Alto, Tenor or Bass. With Organ accompaniment. By B. Hamma. Price, $1.00.

3. Seven Hymns. For the various seasons of the year (Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter Corpus Christi and May Devotions). By different composers. Price, 20 cents.

4. Regina Coeli. (Easter Anthem.) For four voices with Organ accompaniment. By M. A. Melvil. Price, 20 cents.

Missa de Angelis, the most popular of all Plain Chant Masses, is now published in a form which will make it very useful for juvenile choirs. The voice part is printed separate and the organ accompaniment is well and clearly written.

B. Hamma's new Mass deserves also a high place in the repertoire of every Catholic Choir. It is simple and melodious, yet dignified and thoroughly churchy in its character. The style of the seven hymns and Easter anthem is also devotional and ecclesiastical, and it is our pleasing duty to recommend them to such choir-directors who desire an unaffected and unsensational church music. Besides their intrinsic value, they have the great advantage of being easy in execution.

LIFE IS MISERY.

To many people who have the taint of scrofula in their blood. The agonies caused by the dreadful running sores and other manifestations of this disease are beyond description. There is no other remedy equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, salt rheum and every form of blood disease. It is reasonably sure to benefit all who give it a fair trial.

Positive economy, peerless merit and wonderful medicinal power are all combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it. Hood's cures.

WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

Entirely New. Abreast of the Times. A Grand Educator.

The successor of the "Unabridged."

Ten years were spent revising, 100 editors employed, and over $300,000 expended.

Everybody should own this Dictionary. It answers all questions concerning the history, spelling, pronunciation, and meaning of words.

A Library in Itself. It also gives the facts often wanted concerning eminent persons, ancient and modern; noted fictitious persons and places; the countries, cities, towns, and natural features of the globe; translation of foreign quotations, words, phrases, and proverbs; etc., etc., etc.

This Work is Invaluable in the household, and to the teacher, scholar, professional man, and self-educator.

The Globe, Toronto, says:—
This new dictionary is the best book of its kind in the English language. For every family, the members of which have neglected the art of reading, its purchase will prove a profitable investment.

The Times, Hamilton, says:—
It may well be pronounced the best working dictionary and the cheapest book in the world, and should be in every school and family in Canada.

Have your Bookseller show it to you.
