ENGLAND.

Mr. Vernon Smith. M. P., has, it is stated, received a ministerial appointment, and Sir W. Molesworth, has it is said been equally lucky.

The Earl of Derby, it is said, on his advent to office, will ignore protection altogether.

A young Mormon priest, while baptizing two converts in the Trent, was carried off by the stream and drowned.

The Limerick Chronicle states, several offices have refused life insurances in Ireland.

Father Mathew lies seriously ill at Cork.

A Mr. Anderson has returned from California with a fortune of £60,000. He was formerly a clerk and left for the diggins in 1848.

The Romish hierarchy is to be re-established immediately in Holland, with the consent of the government.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION FOR THE CAPE.—The abstract of the new constitution shows, that the parliament of the Cape of Good Hope is to consist of the Governor, the Legislative Council and a House of Assembly. The Legislative Council is to consist of the chief justice, as president, and fifteen elective members, eight of whom are to be chosen in the Western districts, and seven in the Eastern. The members are to hold their seats for ten years, unless the Council shall be sooner dissolved by the governor. A member of the Legislative Council must be thirty years of age, and must own landed property, unmortgaged, worth £1,000, or else landed property to that amount, which, though mortgaged, will, with his moveable property, constitute him the owner of not less than £2,000 over and above his just debts. Every candidate for the Legislative Council must be nominated by a requisition signed by twenty-five electors. The House of Assembly is to consist of forty-six members, to be elected for the term of five years. Every male person who shall have occupied, for his own use and benefit, within any electoral division, for the space of twelve months at least before the day of registration, any tenement of the value of £25, is to be entitled to be registered as a voter for members of that houses.

UNITED STATES.

The City Marshal of Providence, R. I., has reported 236 drinking places in Providence, 227 of which are kept open on Sunday.

The American papers contain reports of auction sales of men and women in the south of the Republic. A North Carolina paper mentions an auction sale in Edgecombe County, at which "twenty men sold at from $1,000, to $1,500 none, less than $1,000, and women at from $600 to $8000." According to the same authority, 193 pieces of this "peculiar" kind of property were disposed of at that sale. Georgian papers also state, that notwithstanding the tightness of the money market, the prices of negroes rule high. At a recent sale in Louisville one hundred and thirty-two were sold; and they brought in cash, an average of over a hundred and sixty dollars. They were of all ages from infants in the arms to very old negroes. These are all, mere specimens of freedom and enlightenment.

We translate the following narrative from a French paper. A capital execution took place at the commencement of last month in Porrentry in Switzerland. Hardly had the head of the criminal rolled on the scaffold than an unheard-of incident horrified the spectators. A man stepped up with a glass in his hand, filled it with the blood of the decapitated man, and swallowed it at a draught. The man was an epileptic, and imbued with the idea that drinking a glass of warm human blood was his only remedy.

Kossuth has contracted for 400,000 muskets, at two dollars a piece. They are also, which had been condemned by the United States' Government.

THE SNOW-STORM AT NEW ORLEANS.—The recent snow storm at New Orleans—a novel feature in her sunny life—seems to have excited the most curious sensation. The newspapers are filled with flowing verse, and comments both merry and solemn, upon the "first snow." Among the incidents of the day the Picayune records, as a fixed fact, the rush made by a small Creole negro into his master's room at an early hour of the morning, followed by the exclamation: Oh Monseurf regardez donc! la cour est plene de sucre blanc! "Oh, Sir, look the yard is full of white sugar.

The Senate Committee on education, in the Rhode Island Legislature, has presented a report accompanied by a bill abolishing the penalty of death, and substituting imprisonment for life. At the same time, says the Providence Journal, it guards against the abuse of the pardoning power by a provision, that no person sentenced to imprisonment for life, or for a term not less than five years, shall be released, except upon the concurrent vote of three-quarters of all the members elected to each House of the General Assembly.

SOUTH AMERICA.

TEMENDOUS BATTLE IN CHILI—2,000 MEN LEFT ON THE FIELD OF BATTLE, KILLED, AND WOUNDED—WAR CLOSED—TREATY OF PEACE SIGNED.

The news from Chili is interesting and important. The movement of Gen. Cruz against the government of President Monte has been entirely suppressed, and an amicable treaty has been arranged between the contending parties.

The Valparaiso Mercantile Advertiser of December [illegible] says:

In the South events of a grave [illegible] are in the issue of which the woe or weal of the entire republic depends. One of the bloodiest battles on record in the history of Chili was fought on the 8th December, on the plains of Longomilla. Its duration, the close engagement of the troops, and the great number of dead and wounded on both sides, for the comparatively small number of combatants, will give this battle a prominent place in the history of the country.

A victory was gained by the troops of the government after seven hours' fighting, but the victory was dearly bought, and the laurels gained by the country are spotted with the blood of its own children; and when gained, a farther resistance and a further fight would have demanded a greater sacrifice, and more shedding of blood. General Bulnes, therefore, consented to accept the conditions of an honorable surrender on the part of Gen. Cruz.

A treaty was concluded, which will secure to the republic years of peace, and a continuance of prosperity.

On the 8th Dec., at 7 o'clock in the morning, the troops of the government under Gen. Bulnes, and the insurgents from the South under Gen. Cruz, met near Longomilla, after weeks of retreating and manœuvring on both sides, to obtain the most favourable position.

Gen. Bulnes, with a reinforcement of 1500 men from Talca, under Col Letelier, had about 4000 men in the field; and a similar number of insurgents were commanded by Gen. Cruz. The battle lasted from 7 o'clock in the morning, until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Nearly 2000, or one-fourth, were left dead and wounded on the field.

The strength of Gen. Cruz at the commencement of the battle, consisted in his cavalry, amounting to about 1,200 men. The cavalry of both armies opened the battle, but the superior artillery of General Bulnes, combined with his cavalry force, soon broke the enemy's ranks and routed them. Then followed the engagements of both infantry forces, which lasted nearly six hours, and its result we have stated above. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Gen. Cruz, totally beaten, retreated to a farm (Casa de Reyes) and Gen. Bulnes to his former position.

General Cruz submitted to honorable conditions, and a treaty of peace was entered into.

AN UNCALLED FOR ALARM.—A correspondent of the Methodist Protestant relates the following story:—

"A very sensitive preacher in a certain village not more than a hundred miles from Baltimore, was discoursing with great warmth on the uncertainty of human life. To give the greater effect to his remarks, after assuring his hearers that they might die before another hour had elapsed, he said: 'And I, your speaker, may be dead before another morning dawns.'

'Amen!' was the audible response of a pious and much beloved brother in the congregation.

The preacher was evidently disconcerted for a moment. He thought the brother must have misunderstood his meaning. Pausing awhile, he repeated the declaration with still greater emphasis, 'Before another hour, your speaker may be in eternity.'

'Amen!' shouted the brother before him.

It was too much for the sensitive man; and, stammering out a few additional remarks, he sat down, before he had finished his discourse.

'Brother ——,' said the preacher next day to his kind-hearted friend of the Amen corner, 'what did you mean by saying Amen to my sentiments last night? Did you wish I was dead?'

'Not at all,' said the good brother, 'not at all. I thought if you should die, you would go straight to glory, and I meant Amen to that!'"

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7 Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY:

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favor of your astonishing Pills.

(Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Welch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, has been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period, she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredibly short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.—August 2, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

(Signed) HENRY COE,
North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE TRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heydon, Esq., Sidney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

SIR,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a settler at Lake George, was for a considerable time seriously affected with a complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required.

(Signed) Wm. JONES, Proprietor of Goulburn Herald, New South Wales.

WONDERFUL EFFICACY OF HOLLOWAY'S PILLS IN CASES OF DROPSY.
