LIVE STOCK MARKET

Heavy receipts of a medium quality of cattle at the Union Stock Yards yesterday failed to force down the prices, the market holding steady to strong thruout, and, in the opinion of some, with an advance ranging anywhere from 15c to 25c per cwt. Whether it was reflected in the price or not, the market was strong, as stated, with practically all the offerings well cleared out. A walk thru the alleys at four o'clock showed little standing over for today's market, tho a few loads of choice stockers and feeders came in too late to offer for sale.

There was a steady market and a good demand for heavy steers and heifers or cutcher cows, and breedy stockers and feeders; in fact, considering the heavy receipts, there was a mighty good trade all round.

Choice butcher cattle were not too plentiful and were wanted at the market. There was a pretty heavy run of inferior eastern cattle, but they, too, went out with the rest.

Milkers and springers were steady at last week's prices, running all the way from $80 to $115, according to quality.

Sheep and Lambs.

There was a good, steady market for sheep and lambs, the run, 3435 head, being a moderately heavy one. Prices ranged from 15¼c to 15½c lb. for lambs.

Calves.

There was a light run of calves, and all classes sold steady. Choice veal calves sold at from 14¾c to 15½c lb.; medium calves at 11½c to 12½c lb., and grassers and common calves at 6c to 8½c.

Hogs.

Hogs are scarce and firm, and sold 25c higher yesterday, at $19 fed and watered and as high as $19.10 was paid in one or two cases for choice lots.

The general feeling was, however, that the market was not too strong at the advance, with prospects for 25c off today.

Receipts.

Receipts were 266 cars—4821 cattle, 216 calves, 2117 hogs and 3435 sheep and lambs.
