D. Dowsley of Frankville, has lost none of his old time popularity as an auctioneer as the following brief extract from a letter shown us a few days ago amply testifies * * * You will find the sum of——for your services, I never had a job of work done that pleased me any better, and I know you are the man born for the business of an auctioneer. Thanking you for the able manner in which you handled my sale, believe me, yours &c. GEO. K. STEVENS, Delta, Feb. 27, 1891.

Sign no paper without reading it. In these days of education, enlightenment and progress, such a caution would hardly seem necessary to any person in the full possession of his faculties; yet it is astonishing how many people there are, including good business men, who attach their signatures to papers or documents the contents of which may have a serious bearing upon themselves or their affairs, with scarcely a glance at their contents. Carelessness in failing to acquaint themselves with the contents of paper before signing it has worked incalculable harm to thousands of well intentioned people. It is a good thing, therefore, to bear in mind continuously the above advice, particularly with respect to such papers as express or imply anything in the nature of a contract or a legal obligation.

Last September one of our "Devils" thinking to better his condition shouldered his grip and started for the "Away out in the West." On Saturday last we received a letter announcing that he had located in the town of Blair, Nebraska. We make the following extracts from his letter for the benefit of those who knew him in Leeds County * * * I am now working in the office of the Blair Courier, a Democratic paper. There are also three other papers published here, one Republican, Independent, and Alliance. The Courier office is the largest and best equipped in this city. I have now been working there for three months and like it very much. Wages are better here than in Canada. I am getting $5 per week with the promise of a raise shortly, this is pretty good for a boy who has only stood at the case for 10 months. I think this is a very healthy state and a person is likely to get along well if he only behaves himself. Since I came here there was a murder committed within sight of town and the murderer was brought in and lodged in gaol. A son of the murdered man and a crowd of farmers took him from the officers and strung him up to a tree. The tree they hung him to is within sight of where I am now writing. That is about the way they do business here. It is reported that last Saturday night two masked men entered a house in town and held a woman down with a revolver and went through the house. They got $22. We are having nice weather here now. There has been scarcely any snow in this county but people here conside it is quite a lot. This part of the state of Nebraska is a rolling prairie well adapted for stock raising as there are plenty of nice streams running through nearly every quarter section. A great many cattle have been bought in the drought stricken portions of the State and sent down here, where feed is abundant. We get a good deal of wood in this section from across the Missouri river in Iowa. The Missouri river and State of Iowa are within sight of this town. Wood is sold here at reasonable prices, averaging $3.75 per cord for four foot wood. The timber here is not much good for lumber as the only kind large enough to be sawn is cottonwood and that is terrible timber to shrink. I heard a man say a few days ago that a board 12 inches wide would shrink 12 inches in 11 years. Things don't all shrink in this way here, if so I am afraid I would not like to live here. As soon as the spring opens I will take a run out into the country and will give you my opinion of this portion of the State from an agricultural standpoint for you know I have followed the plough and handled the hoe in Canada and have an idea of what good farming is. Fair quality Cedar Shingles, $1.25 per M, at W. G. Parish's lumber yard.

The Recorder claims that the most unblushing bribery was practiced by some of Mr. Woods supporters, and there is strong talk of a protest being entered.

Under the head of election notes the Gananoque Reporter has the following:—"The table at Turners Opera House, Thursday evening, resembled a bank counter. Numerous large rolls of money were displayed as having been won from Mr. Taylor's supporters in bets on majorities."

The Journal of the same place says:—"The result in South Leeds shows a largely decreased majority for Mr. Taylor. In this the Grits find their satisfaction, and also in the fact that the sporting part of their party won largely in betting on the result, the Conservatives having given too great odds." In Athens the sports bet heavily and as a result they are correspondingly elated or dejected, according to the weight of their purses. It is almost unnecessary to add that the losses were nearly, if not quite, all on the Conservative side. We notice a marked improvement in the gait of a few of the loosers. One man is said to have gone to work for the first time during the winter, presumably to make up for the loss of the $10 he lost on 300 majority for Taylor. Another was anxiously enquiring where there was any fat cattle for sale cheap, while the all around man consoled himself with the remark that he did not care a——as long as the government and the country was safe.

A rather unique case came up before Squire Cauley last night. Two young men, Mr. Wm. Morris and Mr. Wesley Earl, had made a verbal agreement with Mr. Horace Booth to cut wood. They were to cut down and saw into two foot lengths, two elm trees, for this they were to receive $4 and their board. The work was completed, but when they came to receive their pay, Mr. Booth contended that the $4 was to be divided between the two, while the young men were just as much satisfied that they were to receive $4 each. As the matter could not be settled amicably between them, it was brought before our magistrate and was tried last night. Both parties swore positively to their different views of the matter, and as each seemed conscientious, the magistrate was placed in a quandary. The matter was compromised however, by Mr. Booth paying the plaintiff's $6, and they to pay their own costs, which amounted to about $2.75.

Yesterday morning a new man stepped into the foreman's shoes in the REPORTER office in the person of Geo. W. LeGard, late of Beaverton, Ontario. Mr. LeGard was the Junior partner of the Beaverton Enterprise, selling out his interest there to accept of a position on the REPORTER'S staff. The Streetsville Review in speaking of the Enterprise and its managers, says:—"Mr. Geo. W. LeGard the Junior partner is a clever young man hailing from Flesherton, Ont., a village which has sent forth into the outside world more newspaper men than any other place of its size in Ontario." Mr. LeGard comes highly recommended as a steady and reliable workman, gentlemanly in his deportment and well versed in the intricate workings of a printing office. He will have charge of the local department of the REPORTER and we bespeak for him the same kind consideration that has been extended to former employees of this office.

The Elections.

The elections are over and as the smoke or the battle clears away, we are able to get at the result. Although the returns are incomplete in several constituencies and there are two or three places where the elections have not yet taken place. Still there is no doubt but that the Government is sustained by a fair working majority. In Ontario and Quebec the Government lost heavily, while the Maratime Provinces went almost solid for them. Below we give a list of how the two parties stood, by provinces, at the time of dissolution:

	Conservatives	Liberals.
Ontario	56	36
Quebec	37	28
Nova Scotia	15	6
New Brunswick	11	5
Prince Ed. Island		6
Manitoba	4	1
British Columbia	6
N. W. Territories	4
	133	82
Con. majority,	51

As near as can be ascertained at the present writing the two parties will stand as follows, by provinces, in the next parliament:

	Lib.	Cons.
Ontario	45	46
Quebec	37	26
Nova Scotia	5	16
New Brunswick	4	12
Prince Ed. Island	4	2
Manitoba	1	4
Northwest	0	4
British Columbia	0	6
	96	116

Conservative majority, with Brome, Huntingdon and Algoma excluded, 20.

Although the official figures have not yet been made public in South Leeds and Brockville constituencies, the following may be taken as approximating the majorities in these two places:

	Wood	Derbyshire
Brockville		54
Elizabethtown	78
Ketley	148

Majority for Mr. Wood 172.

The following are the returns by majorities:

	Taylor	Turner
Gananoque	86
Ft. Leeds & Landsdowne	38
Rr. " "	129
South Crosby	52
Newboro	47
Escott		22
Bastard & Burgess		28
North Crosby		43
Front Yonge
Rear Yonge		68
	352	244

Majority for Taylor 108

Minard's Liniment sold every where.

Another person has yielded to the fascinations of the seductive "call," in the person of Rev. Mr. Edmondson, who goes to New Jersey after a service of thirteen or fourteen years in Almonte. He intends, like Rev. Mr. Carson of Kingston, to take up his abode a few weeks previous to the actual date of the contract so as to avade the provisions of the Alien Law. People are becoming more and more outspoken with respect to this business of "Calls," and do not feel any twinge of conscience in describing it in strong secuiar phraseology as that of a case of "going to a better sit."

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday March 11th at Mrs. Richard Arnolds.

Mrs. Letitia Youmans, so long and favorably known throughout Canada and the United States as an earnest and eloquent advocate of Temperance and Prohibition, has been for some time past in very feeble health. She is confined to her room, but her mind is clear. She resides at No. 19 Metcalf Street, Toronto, where she will be glad to see any of her old friends and fellow workers.

Address and Presentation.

At the close of the regular weekly prayer meeting on Thursday evening last in the basement of the Presbyterian church, the following address was read by Miss Clow, to Mrs. Jos. L. Gallagher, who is leaving Athens to take up her residence in Brockville, where Mr. Gallagher has been appointed to the general agency of the Singer Sewing Machine Company:

DEAR MRS. GALLAGHER, — Once more we are reminded that, in this world, friends must part.

We sincerely regret that this time the parting is with you who has been so long respected and loved by all of us. We shall constantly miss you from our Sabbath school, our church, and especially where a true friend is needed. It is not until you are gone that we shall fully realize what we now but see the shadow of the loss of you. It is not that we have any fear of being forgotten by you, nor for its intrinsic value, that we offer you this small token of our respect, but that it may be a momento of this, our last evening together, for who knows how long. But in our present sorrow we are cheered by the hope that we will often see you back among us to cheer us with your friendship and love.

With all sincereity, we are your friends,

PRESBY. SABBATH SCHOOL

The token of remembrance was presented by Miss McNeil and consisted of a beautiful silver fruit basket. Mrs. Gallagher responded briefly to the address, expressing her thanks for the kind wishes expressed and regretting the necessity of parting with so many warm friends, with whom she had been associated so long, but their kind expressions of regard and sympathy would have a warm corner in her heart and be treasured while life lasted. Mr. E. Tennant, the superintendent of the Sunday school, also expressed his sorrow at Mrs. Gallagher's departure from the village and the consequent loss of her able assistance in the school,

A Century of Methodism.

One hundred years ago Monday, at 10.20 a.m., the sainted John Wesley died. At that time he had 130,000 followers, but Methodism to-day numbers a host of between 25,000,000 and 30,000,000, building churches at the rate of four every day in the year, and establishing colleges and schools everywhere. In the American republic the Methodist church leads the forces of truth, with a membership of 5,000,000 communicants, and over 15,000,000 additional adherents.

On Sunday, Feb 20, Sunday, Feb. 27, and on Wednesday, March 2, 1791, Rev. Wm. Losee organized the first three classes formed in Canada on the shores of the Bay of Quinte. This was the beginning of the formal work of Methodism in Canada, though for 10 years previous there had been occasional Methodist preaching services in different parts of the country. Now over 1,000,000 of the people of the Dominion march under the banners of Methodism. The church has in Canada about 10 colleges, including two universities and a number of missionary schools. The communicants are increasing at the rate of 10,000 a year. In Manitoba the Methodists have doubled in number, within four years. In 1886 in the Northwest Conference there were 5,033 members; now there are 9,814, a gain of 96 per cent.

Attending the ten chartered colleges are 2,040 enrolled students. The erection of the college buildings has cost the church over $1,000,000 and their income exceeds $200,000. The annual congregational collections last year for educational purposes amounted to $20,000. The church gave a quarter of a million dollars to missions in 1890, besides $90,000 for the maintenance of superannuated clergymen. For the latter purpose they have invested a fund of $260,000.

The property of the church in Canada is valued at about $12,000,000, and the contributions annually for all purposes, total $3,000,000.

These are the results of a century's work in this country, and it is no wonder that such men as Goldwin Smith, Hon. G. W. Allan, of Trinity College, Toronto, Sir Leonard Tilley, Hon. O. Mowat, Rev. Dr. McMullen, (Presbyterian), and others, have in graceful terms paid homage to the genius of Wesley, and to the abiding great ess of his work.

The greatest spelling match on record is that offered by Our Homes Publishing Co., in which they will award the following magnificent CASH PRIZES:—One prize of $300; one prize of $200; two prizes of $100; four prizes of $50; eight prizes of $25; twenty prizes of $10; forty prizes of $5; one hundred prizes of $2; and two hundred of $1. These prizes will be awarded to the persons sending in the largest number of correctly spelled words found in the advertising pages of the February number of Our Homes, in which no letters occur but those found in the sentence: "Our Homes is Unrivalled as a Home Magazine." Special cash prizes will be given away each day and each week during this competition, which closes April 25th, 1891. Send 10 cents in stamps or silver, for a sample copy of the February number, with rules and regulations governing the competition. Address, OUR HOMES PUB. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Rev. J. C. Ash of Belleville, preached in the Methodist Church here last Sunday morning and evening. He has been sent out by the Methodist Church on behalf of Albert College, soliciting funds to carry on that institution. The Rev. gentleman gave some interesting information in regard to that college. With the Toronto University on one hand and Queen's College at Kingston on the other, yet it has turned out more graduates than either of them, although they have been longer established. Rev. Mr. Ash has given up his circuit and his home to enter on this work. In his sermon on Sunday morning, he alluded to the work as being the hardest task of his life, and although 60 years of age, he has never known a day's sickness. His sermon was logical and eloquent. The people of different Churches are responding nobly on behalf of Albert College.

High School Concert.

An enjoyable time was spent last Friday evening in the Lecture room of the High school where the pupils gave a programme of choruses, recitations and readings. On account of the many meetings held in the village during the winter, it was thought best to set aside the usual literary entertainments of the kind given in the High school, until such time that the people might desire some entertainment of the kind in the High school. Believing the time to have arrived a programme was prepared for last Friday evening and was as followed: — Choruses — "Nearer Home," "Away with your Sadness," "Sparkling Water," "The Laugh of a Child," "Boating Song," "Three Bells," and "Long Ago"—all rendered in good style by the pupils; an instrumental solo by Miss May Berney; recitations by Herbert Sharmon, Bertha Gile, Lionne Halladay, Lulu Hawks, and Ada Sexton. The Journal was read by Mr. Kennedy and, as usual, proved one of the most interesting numbers on the programme. The following are taken from the last issue of the Journal:

We thought our friends would be interested in the work and welfare of our former graduates; many of them are filling important positions in schools throughout the county, some are pursuing their studies elsewhere. The reports we hear from all are to the effect that they are entering on their life work with zeal and earnestness.

Mr. S. Hill is Headmaster of Mallorytown school. We are of the opinion that the people there, are awakening to the fact that to have a good school, they must have a good teacher. He paid a visit to Athens a few days ago and enjoyed an afternoon's skating with the boys on the flats.

Mr. T. H. Crawford is considered an excellent teacher, though somewhat strict, a good characteristic in a teacher.

Miss Nellie Rodgers' school is near Portland, she likes it very much.

Miss Alice Tenhant is at Mitchell's school house, near Lansdowne; flattering reports reach us from time to time of her success.

Miss A. Scott is teaching near Addison, her home. She is diligent and painstaking and should be successful.

Mr. Witheril, Principal of the Westport school is an untiring and zealous student now preparing for the third years' exam. at Queen's. May his laurels never wither.

Messrs. Myers and Jas. R. Moore are both studying at Queen's University, Kingston. We are glad to hear of their success.

Miss Minnie Alford, of last year's graduating class, teaches the young idea at Glen Buell and it is said that her discipline is excellent and that since Xmas the improvement in the Glen Buell school is marked.

Miss F. Slack is at Caintown where she has a number of large pupils, and is preparing some for our High school. She likes teaching very much.

We were sorry to learn that Miss Hawks had not been able to teach this week, as she has been suffering from bronchitis; but she is now, if not well, at least convalescent.

Miss Effie Clow and Miss Maud Hill are attending the Ottawa Normal school and enjoying their work, we well know the value of the training they receive from such thorough and energetic masters as are found at the the Ottawa Normal.

Paulina Moore's dream of happiness is at last being realized as she performs her daily tasks in Wiltsetown. We are glad to see her beaming countenance home every week.

Henry Elliott has charge of a two-division school at Portland, he is very popular throughout the section, maintains excellent order and has the faculty of making the pupils learn.

We are pleased to chronicle the success of our High school pupils.

This is the first chance the Journal has had to offer its congratulations to the Board of Education on securing on the High school staff the services of so competent a teacher as Mr. Young. To Mr. Young we extend a hearty welcome to Athens and to the High school. We hope he may like our quiet village and our homely ways and find in us true friends we wish to be. Mr. Robert Young, B. A., is a graduate of Queen's University, Kingston. It was but last May that he received his sheepskin and left the halls of his Alma Mater to enter the more active walks of life. Having spent the requisite time at the Kingston Training school fitting himself for a High school teacher, he was appointed last Jan., to the position which he now holds on the High school staff Mr. Y. takes great interest in the school, takes pleasure in imparting knowledge, and is popular with all the pupils. Mr. Y. having joined the great army of teachers must now do as Puck says;

"Ram it in, cram it in, children's heads are hollow;
Slam it in, jam it in, still there's more to follow—
Hygiene and History, Astronomic mystery,
Algebra, Histology, Latin, Etymology,
Botany, Geometry, Greek and Trigometry,
Ram it in, cram it in, children's head are hollow."
