SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dr. Ryerson, the famous specialist, of Toronto, will be at the Tecumseh House on Saturday, Dec. 5, for treatment of all eye, ear and throat cases. bt

The Dorenwend Electric Belt.

We would strongly advise all suffering from any form of muscular, nervous or chronic troubles to examine the Dorenwend Electrical Appliances. Mr. J. J. Barker, the representative of the company, will be at the Grigg House on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 3 and 4, with a full line of them. Drop in and them. 4-itwtxw

Nature's Curative Powers Surpass all the arts of man. Fearless of contradiction St. Leon Mineral Water has proved its superiority. Used freely as a table water it absorbs those secretions that quench life; also, St. Leon soothes, feeds and tones up the nerve and vital forces, is so full of that mysterious life, sustaining fluid can be ignited. The charmed, refined feelings that flow steadily on when St. Leon is imbibed those only can tell who try it well.

The Best in the World.

The oil of the Norwegian Cod Liver is nature's grand restorative, and is only found in its entirety and purity in Miller's Emulsion. It is the most palatable and wholesome preparation of Cod Liver Oil in the world, and is now being taken by invalids, particularly those afflicted with consumption, with the most astonishing success. It is the greatest blood and flesh maker in existence, and is a life saver to consumptives. In big bottles, 50 cents and $1, at London drug stores.

No other Baking Powder in the market is superior to Strong's. Test its merits by securing a free sample at STRONG'S Drug Store, 184 Dundas street. 47-tf

Housekeepers Notice.

All good housekeepers will look to their furniture before the rush of house cleaning and have it repaired and varnished and made to look as good as new for a trifle. Drop a card or telephone. W. J. BRYANTON, 123 King street; telephone, 479. Goods sent for and returned. ywt

Children's Portraiture.—Frank Cooper's portraits of children are greatly admired. If there is one department in our profession we have got down finer than the others it is the portraiture of children of all ages, from the little "cherub" of 3 months up to the lively boys and girls just entering their teens. The children! Yes; bring the children, singly or bring them on in groups. F. COOPER, artistic photographer, Dundas street, near Richmond. t

Can dyspepsia be cured? Yes! K. D. C. is "a positive cure," a "safe cure," "a complete cure," "a marvelous cure," "the best cure," "a thorough cure," "the only cure," and a guaranteed cure.

It is told of a certain minister, not in New York, that on Sunday morning he preached his sermon with the following notice: "Brethren, I have forgotten my notes, we shall have to trust to Providence; but in the evening will come better prepared."

Why will you allow a cough to lacerate your throat or lungs and run the risk of filling a consumptive's grave, when by the timely use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive syrup the pain can be allayed and all danger avoided? This Syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing all affections of the throat and lungs, coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc.

Ball Supper—Cause and Effect—Girls of the period—Indigestion? How unromantic! You can never have been in love. Yes, of the period—On the contrary, it is love that gives me dyspepsia.

WESTERN ONTARIO.

BRANT.

The marriage took place in Brantford on Thursday of W. M. Benett, of New York, third son of J. Benett, of Brantford, to Miss A. E. Wye, youngest daughter of the late J. Wye. Rev. Mr. Mackenzie officiated, and the bride was given away by her brother, Rev. George Wye.

BRUCE.

In consequence of the heavy rains at Teeswater the dam at the flax mill broke away and flooded the mill ponds lower down, damaging property on the river bank.

After the recent storm there was some perilous railroading in Bruce. It rained and snowed constantly on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, and trains between Stratford and Wiarton had many narrow escapes, the track being submerged in water in some places two feet, ties floating about, culverts being washed out and embankments washed away in numerous places. The road master has been kept very busy ever since.

ESSEX.

Mrs. George Leslie, Malden, is now so weak that she is not able to be removed from her room. She has not been able to move herself either in bed or in her chair since she had the stroke of paralysis, more than eight months ago.

Harry M. Misener has bought the timber known as the DeCew, Langwith & Morris estate, for which he paid $15,000. It is his intention to move his stave mill thereon this winter.

Edward McMahon, husband of Mrs. McMahon, who gained considerable notoriety last summer over a suit which was caused by her actions in Sandwich a year ago, has died in Chicago.

ELGIN.

Albert E. Foster, formerly of Fingal, convicted of bigamy last fall and sentenced to three years in Kentucky State Prison, has had a new trial. Judgment was reserved, but it is thought Foster will again be convicted. His first wife and her sister gave evidence against him. The original marriage license and the return of the marriage to the registrar-general were produced.

Over $100 has been subscribed towards starting a band in Mount Salem.

Truman Fitchett, Gladstone, has a broken leg.

Isaac Kingswell, Gladstone, has leased 200 acres near Woodstock at $500 a year.

For assaulting Harry Branton, of the Balmoral, St. Thomas, Daniel Desmond, of the car wheel works, has been fined $13 35.

The West Elgin Farmers' Institute will meet in Dutton on Dec. 2.

Nicholas Groshaw has rented 50 acres from Mrs. Tibbitts in Yarmouth for three years.

It is understood the counsel in the East Elgin election trial, which opens on Wednesday, Dec. 2, will be: For the petitioner, Walter Cassels, Q.C., and A. B. Aylesworth, Q.C., and for the respondent, George Tate Blackstock, Q.C.

Over 100 people were turned away from the St. Thomas Opera House on Wednesday evening on the occasion of the "Business Men's Jubilee," and the entertainment was repeated on the following evening. Every business was represented by a little girl in costume, who recited a verse or paragraph in description thereof.

HURON.

The stores of Richard Pickard & Son, of Exeter, were broken into a few evenings ago. The office was ransacked, but as there was no money, nothing was missed save a few postage stamps.

KENT.

The East Kent Farmers' Institute has chosen the following officers: James Brown, president; James Crookshank, first vice; A. Shaw, second vice; G. Langford, John Hogg, James Hornell, Peter Blackburn, Wm. Vance, Ed. Brien, directors. It was resolved to hold winter meetings at Ridgetown and Kentbridge in January and at an early date in Zone town hall, Blenheim, Highgate and Dawn Mills.

W. R. Hickey, barrister, of Bothwell, is laid up with an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism, and his condition is considered very critical.

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Chatham Loan and Savings Company, H. F. Cummings was appointed vice-president, and Dr. T. K. Holmes was elected a director of the company, to fill a vacancy on the board occasioned by the death of the late Mr. Thomas H. Taylor, who has occupied the position of vice-president since the formation of the company.

Mrs. Thomas Fields slipped on the sidewalk in North Chatham and fell and fractured her arm.

LAMBTON.

A camp of the Sons of Scotland was organized at Alvinston the other evening by Organizer Robert Nimmo, of Toronto. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. Rae, chief; Wm. Irving, chieftain; R. P. Tait, past chief; Rev. J. McMillan, chaplain; A. McTaggart, secretary; D. Sinclair, financial secretary; G. Gray, treasurer; M. McIntyre, marshal; A. Campbell, standard bearer; J. Beatty, senior guard; Hugh Cameron, junior guard; Dr. A. MacKinnon, physician; E. L. Mott, piper.

Amos Carrothers, Dawn, has bought 50 acres in Westminster from Neil and Angus McCallum for $5,000. Mr. Carrothers will move to it in the spring.

James Gamble, Inwood, while in Toronto recently, was relieved of his gold watch. James Conlin and Henry Boyle were arrested on a charge of robbery, and the latter, an old offender, was sent down for eight months, while the former got off with 30 days.

The flood has done quite a lot of damage in the vicinity of Alvinston. Quite a number of the farmers along the river have lost some of their stock pasturing on the flats of the river. Mr. McIntyre, just south of the village, lost five sheep; Mr. Burford had six acres of corn in the shock taken away, and Mr. McKeller lost one colt or more, besides all the fences along the river swept away by the flood.

Miss Maggie McElheron, eldest daughter of Mrs. William McElheron, of Sarnia, was married on Thursday to Thomas Fitzgerald, of Port Huron. The marriage rites were solemnized in the Roman Catholic Church, the Rev. Joseph Bayard officiating.

MIDDLESEX.

Good prices have been secured for several carloads of potatoes shipped from Mount Brydges recently.

The Belmont Methodists realized $63 from their late anniversary collections.

James F. W. Roberts, of Parkhill, druggist, was married on Thursday to Miss Lillie Stanley, eldest daughter of William Stanley, J.P., Lucan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Shaw, the incumbent. Frank Hutchins, of Parkhill, son of W. H. Hutchins, M.P. for North Middlesex, acted as groomsman, and Miss Agnes Fox, daughter of John Fox, president of the North Middlesex Liberal-Conservative Association, waited upon the bride. After the breakfast at Mr. Stanley's the happy couple took passage on the G. T. R. express to Toronto and other points. Mrs. Roberts will be much missed by her numerous associates in the village, especially so by Holy Trinity Church choir, of which she was a leading member for a number of years.

Dr. D. H. Cline, formerly of Belmont, has located in Grainsville, Arkansas.

Chas. Tucker, of Newbury, has received a contract to supply the G. T. R., with 2,000 cords of wood between London and Chatham.

Jas. Pole, ex-reeve of Ekfrid township, has been dangerously ill, but is now in a fair way to recovery.

Messrs. Coughlin and McMillan are candidates for the reeve's chairin Wesminster.

Wm. Hollands, for some years clerk at the Central Hotel, Parkhill, has leased the Queen's Hotel in Ailsa Craig, and moved into it on Wednesday.

Neil McCuish, of East Williams, a young man aged about 23 years, is home from the London Hospital, where he has been trying in vain to get cured of consumption. The young man is very low.

During the past two months Miss Effie Thompson, who lives near Appin, has been affected by some disease which has affected her brain. At first she suffered terrible pain, her eyes were both drawn inward, but a physician took out one eye-tooth, bored a hole through the cheek bone, and removed a large amount of matter. It was thought then that she would get better, but she is now lying in a comatose state, and is stone blind.

The Sauble River overflowed its banks at Ailsa Craig during the recent rain storm. Messrs. William and Peter Stewart, of East Williams, had 46 sheep pasturing on their river flats, and of these all but one were drowned.

The recent flood destroyed the bridge over Silver Creek, at Smith's tile yard, McGillivray; the MacVicar bridge, on the same road and on con. 6 the Foster bridge is badly dilapitated.

Wm. Baker, of con. 4, Westminster, who shot himself in the eye about two years ago, has now fully recovered the use of the optic.

D. Gilmour, Nilestown, has been killing rabbits and hare in Scotland by the scores. Of the former he secured 130.

A new I. O. O. F. hall will be dedicated in Mount Bridges on Dec. 17.

Miss M. S. Edwards has been re-engaged as principal, and G. Robinson as assistant of the Mount Bridges schools for 1892.

NORFOLK.

Two young men who gave their names as George Cooper and David Young, were detected raising a window in the residence of A. L. Swayze, Waterford, and stealing a fur cap. They were arrested and taken before the newly-appointed Police Magistrate Green, who sentenced them to six months' imprisonment in the common jail.

OXFORD.

Col. Monro, of Embro, has received notice inviting the West Zorra tug-of-war team to take part in a great international tug-of-war in Chicago on Dec. 7. The team will comply with the request and enter the contest. The prizes are $1,000, $500, $300 and $200, and a special prize of $50 to the best appearing team in uniform.

Rev. Robert Dennis, late of Alvinston and Drumbo, is lying dangerously ill at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Snell, near Tilsonburg.

Innerkip Presbyterians have a new manse.

At a recent auction sale near Princeton a horse sold for $2 50 and a team for $1.

Ed. McGuin has purchased Wesley Courtney's 75-acre farm near Princeton for $3,900.

Wm. Burgers, an old and respected resident of Blenheim, recently married the widow of George Swartz, near Princeton, and was treated to a charivari. These ancient methods of showing respect are out of date now.

Wm. Barker has been re-engaged as teacher at Princeton.

Stephen Hall, reeve of Blenheim and ex-warden of the county, will retire this year owing to ill-health, after a long incumbency in office. Deputy Reeves Kyte and Vickert will try to fill the vacancy.

At the opening of the new Methodist church at Beechville over $1,500 was collected, being within $200 of the amount needed to clear the curch from debt.

PERTH.

James Laing, of Stratford, locomotive fireman, who has for some years been on the run between that city and Wiarton, passed his final examination recently in London to become qualified as an engineer according to the G. T. rules.

The liquor case of Mrs. P. J. Loughnane, in Alvinston, terminated, when Inspector Taylor and Constable Armstrong destroyed the bottles and contents seized on Sept. 3 by throwing them against the abutments of the Sydenham bridge.

The barn of Mr. Witzel, blacksmith, Gadshill, was completely destroyed by fire recently, together with all the contents. A cow, a horse, two fat pigs and a number of geese and chickens perished in the flames. The loss will be considerable as there was no insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Walter E. Buckingham, Stratford, after the absence of nearly five weeks with his hurt ankle, from the Canadian-American football team in England, has rejoined his comrades and played at Walsall, where he signalized his return by making the first goal.

Every Time.

For the pains and aches of suffering humanity there is one great remedy, of which it is said, as in the following, that it cures every time. Toronto, Ont.: "I am pleased to say I have used St. Jacobs Oil St. Jacobs Oil for the various purposes of a family liniment, and can confidently recommend it as a very valuable preparation. It fills the bill every time, and truly conquers all pain." H. M. STEVENSON.
