communication between Richmond and the South.

Butler took the field in person at the head of the army on the Peninsula yesterday, and his host is marshalled by such leaders as W. F. Smith, Gilmore, Terry and Weitzel. An immense fleet of transports and a strong squadron of monitors and gunboats will convey it up one of those broad rivers to the gates or back door of Richmond, and perhaps the ironclads may once more try the strength of the rebel batteries that line the James, Pamunky and Rappahannock. The feeling prevails that there is desperate work before this army.

A despatch from Grant to one of the Generals here, says that forty eight hours would determine whether he was to have a battle on the Rapidan or whether under the works around Richmond. Grant's despatch was written yesterday.

New York, May 6.—The steamship Bavaria from Hamburg via Southampton, arrived to-day. News anticipated.

The World's Washington despatch says Burnside is acting as reserve to the army of the Potomac. When it will move to the front cannot be stated.

Herald's Special:—Cumberland, M. D., May 5. Rebel guerillas made a raid on the railroad line, and captured three trains and destroyed $200,000 worth of property belonging to the railroad company. The trains were captured at 7 o'clock this morning, two miles west of Piedmont. The road damage is trifling. Trains will be running as usual to morrow, and telegraphic communication westward opened by morning.

Cincinnati, May 5.—The draft in the first ward yesterday passed off quietly. Gov. Brough addressed the National Guard at Camp Dennison yesterday. 6,000 troops have left Indiana during the week for the front.

New York, May 6.—A copy of the Zaragoza, the Juarez journal of Matamoras, received here, says a grand banquet was lately given in that city to Maj.-Gen. McClernard, and Mr. Hamilton, the Union Governor of Texas, at which the names of Lincoln and Juarez were frequently introduced. Gov. Hamilton proposed as a sentiment—"The defeat of the French, and their expulsion forever from Mexican territory." This incident in the present condition of Mexican affairs has attracted much attention in Mexico.

Washington, May 5, 2 p. m.—The Republican has just issued an extra containing the following important intelligence:—Since it cannot now afford information to the enemy, that the army of the Potomac has advanced toward Richmond, and the struggle for the possession of the rebel capital is begun. Our army moved on Tuesday night, and has now crossed the Rapidan. The crossing was made at Jacob, Culpepper, Germania, and United States fords, and was effected without serious opposition.

Lee has been compelled to fall back from the strong position where he has held us at bay all winter whether he will make a stand this side of the defences of Richmond, we are not advised. It is the opinion of some that he will fight at Chancellorsville. Every hour may now bring us news of battle.

LATEST.

Tribune's special,—Union Mills, (Va.) May 6—6 a. m.—The Grand Army of the Potomac crossed the Rapidan on Wednesday. The 2nd corps moved on Tuesday to the Mills opposite Ellis ford. On Wednesday morning, at four o'clock, the cavalry crossed, and drove the rebel pickets from the opposite heights, meeting no opposition. A position was gained, and the corps moved on at seven o'clock, taking the road to Chancellorsville, at which place Hancock would establish his headquarters. The 5th and 6th corps crossed at Germania ford in the course of the day, taking the road to the Wilderness. On Wednesday night Warren headquarters were at the Wilderness, Sedgwick at his right. On Thursday morning the rebels pressed our pickets and appeared to be in strong force on our right. The 5th New York Cavalry, skirmishing on the Orange Court House Road, near Perkins Tavern, were driven in with a severe loss, leaving many wounded on the field.—Griffith's division now reached forward on our right about eleven o'clock to feel the enemy's position, and were met by the rebel Gen. Hill, supported by Ewell. A severe action took place, in which we captured about 300 prisoners, though it is reported we lost two guns. Meantime Hancock marched his corps to the right to connect with Warren, and had hardly got into position his left, resting on or near Chancellorsville, when he was attacked by Longstreet, with his full corps, and a part of Ewell's. General Hancock, with the assistance of Getty's division, of the 6th corps, under a musket fire of two and a-half hours' duration, in which his command suffered severely, inflicted much injury upon the rebels.

Other developments showed Lee to have his whole force in our front. This knowledge of their position was of course highly important, and was thus obtained only by the greatest skill in the handling of our troops. It not being the purpose of Gen. Meade to advance on the enemy, he ordered the line of battle to be held till morning. The position of our troops on Thursday night was parallel with and a little in advance of the road from Germania Ford to Chancellorsville. The two flanks resting on those points, and the general headquarters at the Wilderness. Meanwhile, in the afternoon the advance of the 9th corps crossed Germania Ford, taking position on our right flank. Burnside's rear arrived this morning. It was understood that a general attack was to be made this morning, and heavy cannonading had commenced when I left at five o'clock. Heavy cannonading was heard when I passed Kelly's Ford, about nine o'clock this morning, which leads me to believe that we had driven them to their defences, as no heavy guns could be brought into action in the former position.

Cairo, May 6.—We have important news from the south-west. On the 23th ultimo, a large train, consisting of 240 waggons, was captured by the rebels while returning to Pine Bluff, together with the escort under command of Col. Drake, comprising the 20th Iowa Regiment, the 77th Ohio and 43rd Indiana, with four pieces of artillery, captured by the enemy. Gen. Steele left Camden for Little Rock on the 26th ult., being out of supplies. On the 30th he crossed the Sabine river. Before crossing he was attacked by the rebels under Gen. Fagan, and during the evening a portion of the rebel cavalry crossed above there and proceeded within eight miles of Little Rock, causing great alarm.

RICHMOND.

There is a terrible panic at Richmond, owing to the apprehensions that are felt there of the capture of that city by Generals Grant and Butler; but it affects the rebels in a different way from the panic which was experienced at Harrisburg before the battle of Gettysburg. At Richmond money is plenty, such as it is, and business is lively. The stores are crammed with European goods which arrive via Wilmington. The bill of fare at the Spottswood House is quite as good as that presented on the tables of the hotels in many of the large interior towns in the Northern States. The streets are thronged with idle promenaders. The ladies wear the richest silk dresses, and crinoline of undiminished proportions. At night, the theatres and concert halls are well filled. New plays are brought out; new books are printed and published; even new magazines are issued and appeal for a share of public patronage. In fine, if a panic exists at Richmond, its effects are not visible to the naked eye.—Baltimore Cor. of the N. Y. World.

TORONTO NURSERY.

FARMERS and others having orchards, need not be disappointed any more in their endeavours to get them stocked with good fruit-bearing trees. For Canadians the best place from which to procure trees of any description is the Toronto Nursery, as they are selected with great care, and all grafted on Siberian Crab and other hardy stock. In transplanting no risk of dying attends them, as is the case with those from a distance and a different climate.
