A good stock of fancy Christmas goods at Phil. Wiltse & Co.'s.

While other towns and villages are complaining of the number of vacant houses and the dull times, our village has not a half dozen vacant houses or shops of any description, while the majority of our business men wear that contented look which is only worn by those who are doing a good fair business.

Notice the change in Phil. Wiltse & Co.'s offer of a gold watch. He now gives one guess on every dollar's worth of goods bought, excepting sugar.

Frank Alguire of Kelly, Dakota, arrived in Athens on Saturday last. He says the faces of the people look familiar but the face of the village has changed wonderfully during the six years of his absence. He could scarcely believe that he was back in his old birth-place so great has been the change, which he thinks is decidedly for the better.

The anniversary entertainment in connection with the Athens Methodist Sabbath school was well attended, the fog and the mist that all too closely resembled rain proving insufficient to keep the friends of the school at home. The programme was one of the best ever presented in Athens at a similar gathering. Where all did so well it may seem invidious to particularize, but we are sure we will be excused for making special mention of the excellent singing of Miss Jennie Davison. The popular superintendent, Mr. Bruce Holmes, presided in an acceptable manner. The school was never in a more flourishing condition and the recognition by the public of the labors of the teachers, as testified by the large number present at the entertainment, must be very gratifying to all concerned.

Violins, accordeons, concertinas, guitars, banjo's, mouth organs, Jew's harps, flutes, fifes and violin, guitar and banjo strings, violin bridges and bows kept in stock at Ross' photo gallery, Central Block, Athens.

The annual entertainment of the Baptist Sabbath school was held on Monday evening and took the form of a cantata and that delight of all children—a real Christmas tree. The cantata served to introduce in a pleasing manner a number of fine songs and recitations, those of Miss Lou Earl, Miss Hartwell and Master Charlie Slack being particularly admired. The choir opened the entertainment with an appropriate anthem. Santa Claus was a very popular personage and his gifts brought smiles of pleasure to the faces of all.

We tender our sincere thanks to the large number of our subscribers who have called and paid or remitted their subscriptions for the Reporter during the past two wee'rs. The amount due by each is small, but the aggregate to us means hundreds of dollars, We hope at this festive seson that such as have not paid the printer will do so at once that our heart may be relieved of a load of care and anxiety as to the wherewithal to clothe and feed ourselves and family and pay pressing bills.

Died on Xmas Day

On Thursday last a telegram to Mrs. W. R. Merrick conveyed the sad intelligence that her daughter Ella (Mrs. Owens), residing at Niagara Falls, was seriously ill and requesting her presence. A half-hour later a more imperative summons came, announcing that Mrs. Owens was dying. The latter message proved only too true, but as Mrs. Merrick had promptly responded to the first call she was able to catch the afternoon train, and reached the bedside of her daughter a few hours before her death, which occurred at 8 o'clock on Christmas morning.

Deceased, prior to her marriage about a year ago, was well known here and was generally esteemed and beloved for her amiable, unselfish disposition and many christian graces. In the choir of the English church, of which she was a worthy member, her seat was rarely vacant, and in all departments of church work and in ministering to those in sickness or distress she was ever prominent. Throughout the village generally as well as within the circle of those who enjoyed the pleasure of her more intimate society, her death is deeply deplored. She was called in the morning of life. "Be ye also ready" is the lesson that her passing teaches.

The funeral took place on Sabbath last.

The Sabbath school entertainment at Addison on Christmas eve was very enjoyable and in every way highly successful. The pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Oliver, presided and introduced the different numbers on the program with a few appropriate words. The performance and elocution of the little ones evidenced careful training and preparation, and a Christmas cantata was presented in a pleasing manner. Quartettes, duetts, and solos were sung by teachers and friends of the school, Miss Ida Taplin performing the duties of accompanist very creditably. A temperance drama in three acts was well staged and performed by Mrs. C. Gray, Miss Arnold, and Messrs. O. Arnold, C. Gray, G. Taplin and H. Fields. The reports of the secretary, Mr. H. Moffatt, and the treasurer Mr. L. N. Brown, showed the school to be in a highly satisfactory condition, numerically and financially. A pleasing number, not on the program, was an address from W. Lewis of Toronto, which was a happy combination of instruction and amusement. Mr. S. Duclos as Santa Claus and Master Arnold as a bootblack added a welcome variety to the intellectual bill-o'-fare. The receipts amounted to over $24. We congratulate the superintendent, Mr. Geo. Patterson, and other officers on the progress of the school.

Dec 26

Very many of our readers will be pained to learn of the sudden death at Lyndhurst on Sunday night last, of Henry Green, Esq. He had a stroke of apoplexy in the afternoon of Sunday, from which he never rallied. Henry Green was born on the Green farm, a couple of miles from Athens, on the Lyndhurst road. When quite young he was engaged as a clerk in the store of David Bews, at Charleston, leaving there he came to this village and started in the mercantile business. He also filled the position of councillor for the township Rear of Yonge and Escott, for two or three terms, and was the contractor for the erection of the Farmersville public and model school house. A number of years ago he purchased the water power and mills at Lyndhurst where he also ran a general store and the village post office. He ran as an independant candidate for the representation of South Leeds in the Local Legislature, against Wm. Richardson but was defeated by a narrow majority. He was three times married and raised a large family. Mr. C. L. Lamb and Miss Angie Green of this village being his daughters. D. W. Green, his oldest son, carries on an extensive milling business at Lyndhurst. Of a kind and genial disposition, he made friends and retained them and no man stood higher in the estimation of the general public.

Athens Nominations.

The annual meeting for the nomination of councillors and school trustees for Athens was held in the town hall on Monday evening, and a large number of ratepayers were present. The village clerk opened the proceedings at 7.30 and requested that nominations be made in writing. The hour following was a busy one and closed with these men in the field:

Reeve.—W. G. Parish, A. E Donovan, Dr. Harte, J. W. Kerr, M Halladay.

Councillors.—Bruce Holmes. J. P. Lamb, John Cawley, S. A. Taplin. John Wiltse, Thos. Berney, Wm Karley, M. Halladay, S. Boddy, B Loverin, H. W. Kincaid, Johnson Greene, M. A. Evertts, H. H. Arnold.

School Trustees.—John Mulvena Arza Wiltse, A. W. Blanchard J. H. McLaughlin, S. A. Taplin, Jas. F. Gordon, Johnson Green, Jas. Ross. Thos. Berney, Theo. G. Stevens, Ed. McLean, Ira M. Kelly.

A meeting was at once organized with Mr Loverin in the chair, and the list of nominees for reeve and councillors was first read. When the resignations and speech-making was at an end it was found that Mr. W. G. Parish had been re-elected reeve for a third term and that those in the field for councillors were Messrs. John Cawley, Wm. Carley, Bruce Holmes, J. P. Lamb, Johnson Green. The candidates for trustees were then given the floor, when all resigned but John Mulvena, Amos W. Blanchard, Thos. Berney, Theo. G. Stevens. Ed. McLean, Johnson Green.

The meeting was one of the livliest ever held in Athens. The speaking was not bitter, but it was pointed and personal, and however unpleasant it may have been for those immediately concerned, we think it will result in good to the village. Certain rumors of illegal expenditure on the part of the council and school board have been in circulatian for some time, and in speaking to his nomination Mr. S. A. Taplin enumerated these reports and broadly insinuated that they were true. His assertions had the effect of bringing forth explanations from all the parties concerned and many things were made plain that before were dark or not rightly understood. While the admission and assertions of of the speakers made it plain that the statute intended to secure the independence of municipal representatives had been violated by both the council and school board, it was declared by different members of these bodies that what had been done was altogether in the interest of efficiency and economy. Mr. Arnold's bill was shown to be for materials bought at the direction of the board in his capacity as secretary. Other matters were explained in a manner equally satisfactory. The whole question of illegality will likely to be considered by the council of '92 when they receive the auditors' report.

Many of the leading men of the village spoke very strongly in favor of supporting the Bullis & Sherman by-law to be voted on at the same time as for municipal representatives. Reeve Parish explained that the bonus could be paid without additional taxation, as the council would this year have sufficient money to do so independent of that required for ordinary expenditure.

The Bonus By-Law.

On Monday next, Jan. 4th, the freeholders of this village will be called upon to vote aye or nay on the by-law granting the sum of three hundred dollars to the firm of Bullis & Sherman. The REPORTER from time to time has told its readers of the progress made in putting up the required buildings. The work has been pushed forward with all the energy and haste consistent with a good job, and to-day is well advanced towards completion. The main building is of solid brick 30x66 feet, with stone basement for shafting and blacksmithshop; two storeys above with 9 and 10 foot ceilings and tin roof. The machinery will be driven by a 60 h. p. locomotive boiler and engine. Close by the main building they have also erected a storeroom 30x60 feet, two stories in height. Part of the first storey is already leased as a grain and pork warehouse. The company will on the carrying of the by-law furnish bonds to employ not less than eight men for nine months the first year and ten men for the remaining nine years, or forfeit and pay to the corporation the sum of $30 for each and every year they fail to employ the required number of men. All freeholders either in their own right or that of their wives can vote on this by-law, and as it requires the assent of two-fifths of all the ratepayers entitled to vote as well as a majority of the ratepayers voting on the by-law to render it valid, we trust that every voter will turn out and record his vote in favor of the by-law.

A Quarter of a Million Dollar Plant.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is now comfortably settled in a fine new building, which with its magnificent equipment cost a quarter of a million dollars, and the best of it is that it is paid for free from any sort of incumbrance. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is in an undoubtedly strong financial position.

A "Frog Story" as told by a Lyn farmer is unavoidably crowded out this week but will appear in our next.
