FAVORITES WIN FIVE RACES OPENING DAY OF AUTUMN MEET

Rockville and Hodge Are the Surprises of the Day—Plate Glass and Southern Maid the Beaten Choices.

Favorites won five of the seven races on opening day of the Ontario Jockey Club's autumn meeting Saturday afternoon at Woodbine Park. The weather was ideal, sun shining and almost warm, and the track fast. The attendance was large. Rockville, in the first race, and Hodge, in the third, were the surprises of the day. Plate Glass, favorite in the first race, finished third, while Southern Maid, favorite in the third, ran second to Hodge. It is a coincidence that the two beaten choices were from the stable of Mr. R. Davies. Watts was the winning jockey of the day, landing Cogs and Ondramon. Hearts of Oak would have dumped the talent, but Ondramon, his stable companion, was there for the rescue.

Conditions pleased the horsemen so well that only three were scratched in the seven races, Melos and Wickson in the steeplechase, and Lord Lucre in the seventh.

Off on Scheduled Time.

The six carded to start paraded shortly before the scheduled time. The iron men had a busy time, with every starter backed. Plate Glass and First Sight, the Davies entry, were most in demand. Ella Bryson, Rockville and Rifle Brigade had supporters about in that order.

The half-dozen went off in a line, Ella Bryson's nose showing to the stretch, with Panzareta next, and then Plate Glass. Rockville came up rounding the turn, and, soon taking command, won with a lot to spare by 1½ lengths. Panzareta a half-length before Plate Glass, Ella Bryson was close up, the first of the also-rans, followed by First Sight and Rifle Brigade. Plate Glass had no excuses, but could never get better than fourth position. The victory was popular, the president's colors being heartily cheered as the handsome chestnut came home with the nice margin.

In the second race, a distance affair for all ages, Cogs received the play, with Dynamite and Merry Lad having lots of support. The other six were hardly more than nibbled at.

Watts kept Cogs in the straight road and he just stayed long enough to win by a neck from the fast-coming Merry Lad. The latter was shut off coming into the stretch, or he would have won. Henry Ritte was the pacemaker to the stretch. Golden Treasure made his run rounding the turn and then shut up. Merry Lad was last of the lot rounding the turn and had to make up a lot of ground. Dynamite was prominent thruout, beating Golden Treasure over a length for the show.

The public backed Southern Maid as if there was nothing else in the two-year-old race, forgetting Surprising and Hodge, also Silent Pilot, that completed the quartet, in what the sharps expected to be the hardest race of the day, and so it was. Southern Maid at the rail and Hodge at the outside were first out of the chute. The cherry and black went out for a two-length lead, and Hodge stayed second to the stretch. Skirvin sat down entering the straight and went to the whip. The Maid responded, but was unequal to the task, Hodge gaining the verdict by a good lead, both driven to the limit. Surprising third and Silent Pilot last, all around.

The Chief Feature.

There were seven starters in the Toronto Autumn Cup, the chief feature of opening day. Geo. Hendrie's Great Britain was played like it was all over. Donerail had some support and Kingly a little. Calgary attracted an odd speculator in the $2 mutuels, while Airey and El Oro were almost neglected. It was 3.50 when the field paraded and entered the chute with El Oro on the rail, G. M. Miller next, Donerail third, the favorite fourth, Kingly fifth, Airey sixth and Calgary at the outside.

Jockeys Gray and Peak could not make the weight and Airey and Donerail each carried three pounds over. Great Britain won in sensational style. Off behind and trailing his field until rounding the last turn, Obert did not have to use his whip. The game Commoner colt ran round the field like he knew it was merely on the program. He beat Calgary a length, the latter a half in front of Kingly, and Airey fourth, four lengths away, the first of the also rans, then G. M. Miller, Donerail and El Oro. Calgary and Kingly raced like a team out in front down the back stretch. Kingly entered the straight in front, with Calgary beside his flank. Great Britain came up close on the outside, while the field was away back. Obert rode a great race on a game horse and the crowd gave the combination a hearty cheer when they returned to the paddock.

Seven started in the steeplechase, Weldship had the support in the pool, then the African, Young Morpheus and Jack Dennerlin, with an odd taker for Bill Andrews and Foxcraft, and Laomedon neglected. Weldship and Young Morpheus raced together the entire distance, the Seagram castoff leading most of the time. Foxcraft was the first to go down at the club house bank, which is jump No. 9. At No. 10, Laomedon refused and at No. 13 the African took a bad fall, Jockey Wilson broke his collar - bone. Smith was knocked out for a minute. Jack Dennerlin and Bill Andrews were the contenders for the show. With three down, the rest soon strung out, Weldship winning by 6 lengths with Young Morpheus 8 in front of Jack Dennerlin, and Bill Andrews right there, the only one of the also rans to finish.

FOURTH RACE — Impression, Guy Fisher, Flamma.
FIFTH RACE—Penniless, Beaupere, Red Path.

The Dominion Handicap for Canadian breds had the biggest field of the day. The Oakville pair, of course, were the favorites, but the large weight of 132 pounds on Hearts of Oak to 90 on Seagram's Maid of Frome made them all look to have a chance and induced the speculators to consider everything. Lindesta was second in demand.

Hearts of Oak straightened away in front, getting the break from the rail, and raced with Amberite right around to the stretch. Maid of Frome and Rock Spring were prominent in the early stages. Lindesta came from fifth position like a wild horse up the straight and looked like a winner. The Montreal filly beat the King's Plate winner all right, but the stable companion was there in the pinch. Ondramon came up in the inside for the verdict by a half length from Lindesta, with Hearts of Oak between them for show money. Crystiawoga was fourth, Amberite, who pulled up lame, fifth; the rest strung out.

The successful first day wound up with the Chifney Purse, a selling affair of 1 1-16 miles, with seven starters, Lord Lucre being only the third horse of the day to be scratched. The play was divided between Spring Maid and Colston. Schaller had a small following. Spring Maid and Colston raced together out in front of the field all round, the former responding gamely to the final challenge. Lord Elam was away back third.

Thirty-Two Thorobreds.

Greatest Sale of Racing Blood Canada Has Ever Known on Tuesday Evening.

The greatest sale of thorobreds ever brought to Canada is to take place at The Repository, Simcoe street, on Tuesday evening in the big arena there. There are 32 in the lot, including 16 two-year-old fillies, one 3-year-old colt, three 3-year-old geldings and 6 brood mares. They are all from the celebrated Woodlands farms, owned by Barney Schreiber, who has long been noted as one of the most successful and most enterprising breeders on the continent. The two and three-year-olds are by such stallions as imp. Sorcerer, son of the mighty Ormonde and Cruciable by the late Sir Joseph Hawley's noted Rosicrucian; Bannockburn, by Hayden Edwards, (son of imported Prince Charlie), out of Bettie Blaise, by imp. St. Blaise, an Epsom Derby, winner of sensational fame; imp. Sain, by St. Serf, (son of St. Simon), out of The Task, by Barcaldine, a wondrous race-horse in his day; Otis, by Sain, out of Laura Agnes, a mare with three strains of the great Glencoe, the emperor of American stallions, and the foundation of the late J. R. Keene's marvelous racing and breeding success, and Nealon, another son of Sain, but out of Sister Josephine, by Hanover, out of a Lavity mare. The dams of the youngsters are all of equally aristocratic lineage, the best winning blood of both America and England being liberally represented. The six brood mares are all young matrons in foal to Bannockburn or Nealon, whose produce will be eligible for all province-bred and Dominion-bred races, including the King's Plate and that have been winners themselves and should produce their like or better. Sain is the sire of four and Strathmore and Foul Shot (son of Musket, sire of Carbine and Australia's greatest stallion) of one each. The horses can be seen at the Woodbine and catalogues can be had of the auctioneer, Mr. C. A. Burns, at the Repository.
