THE LATEST PROJECT.

The C. P. R. Securing an Entrance Into New York.

Construction to Begin Very Soon—Shortest Route from the St. Lawrence to New York.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The Times says: "A railroad project is being quietly pushed along which is designed to let the Canadian Pacific Railway into New York independently of the other trunk lines which terminate here. Men with money and credit behind them have organized the New York-Canadian Pacific Railway and Hudson Docking Company, with a capital of $10,500,000. Surveys have been made and most of the right of way secured for a line of railroad from Ogdensburg via Schenectady to points on the New York and Newark bays, and it is proposed to begin the work of construction very soon. The New York, Ottawa and Northwestern will be made the connecting link. The new line will be a New York extension of the Canadian Pacific Railway from Prescott, Ont., just across the river from Ogdensburg. The distance from Ogdensburg to the terminals in New Jersey is about 350 miles, which will be much shorter than any other route from the St. Lawrence River to New York City.

DRUNKARD'S DEMONIAC DEED.

A Miner Kills His Wife and Sister-in Law, Mutilates His Child and is Lynched.

ALBIA, La., March 23.—William Frasier was a drunken miner living with his wife and babe at Carbondale, near here. A few days ago, on account of Frasier's drunkenness, his wife taking her babe, left him and went to Hilman to stay with her sister, Mrs. Smith. Monday he walked into the Smith house and plunged a knife into his wife's heart, killing her. Mrs. Smith was entering when Frasier, with a cry of a demon, drove his knife to the hilt in her breast. She died in a few minutes. Frasier then nearly severed one leg from the body of the child and cut it in other places. He was captured and lynched by a mob of miners.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

Fire in J. McInnes' empty house caused $300 damage to-day.

A monster home rule gathering will be held in New York on March 26.

The troopship Jelunga arrived at Halifax with a new British regiment to-day.

A severe blizzard at Duluth, Minn., has blocked the streets. Telegraph lines are down.

Winnipeg Irishmen have forwarded a second contribution of $100 to Edward Blake in aid of home rule.

Carlyle W. Harris, the convicted poisoner of his wife, Helen Potts Harris, has been taken to Sing Sing for electocution.

A new stone memorial church will be erected at Roxbury, N.Y., by the children of the late Jay Gould, in memory of their father. It will be presented to the Presbyterian congregation, whose church was burned a year ago.

Shippers and brokers in New York are said to be in trouble because the Standard Oil Company refused to sell them oil or to quote prices to them. The brokers have orders from abroad, but cannot fill them. It is thought that the Standard Oil Company intend to monopolize the foreign oil trade.

The town of Purvis, Miss., was utterly destroyed by incendiaries on Wednesday. The conflagration was the result of a bitter feeling between the white people and the negroes, growing out of the arrest of a negro preacher. The negroes fired the town in revenge.

A Prison on Fire.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 22.—A big fire is raging across the river in Jeffersonville. The South Indiana prison is reported to be burning.

FANCY DISHES.

Mrs. Ewing's Sixth Cooking Lesson—All Sorts of Palatable Dishes.

That the above lesson would prove popular was fully demonstrated yesterday. When the vote was taken between "roasting" and "fancy dishes" nearly the entire class signified their preference for the latter by rising. Certainly the large attendance verified the wisdom of the choice, and as the dishes were not specified, the mystery that surrounded the lesson all were eager to solve, and expectation was high.

Fully two hours before the time the best seats were being rapidly filled, and every movement of the enchantress who turns the most commonplace articles of diet into food for the gods was eagerly scanned. Mrs. Ewing proved herself also mistress of this department of her art, and "chicken croquettes," "rice" ditto, "creamed potatoes," beautifully shaped into little balls, "mock terrapin," "mock bisque" and various sauces were in turn manufactured as Mrs. Ewing only can, and submitted to the growing fastidious taste of the class. The practical general information that Mrs. Ewing manages to dovetail in between the various dishes is marvelous, and the perfect silence and unanimous attention when she speaks attests the weight that is given her every word.

Mrs. Ewing says the making of "puff paste" properly is "high art" in cooking. Delicate deserts will be taken up on Friday, and Saturday will be given to cake, coffee, omelette souffle, etc., which will finish the present series.

POOR OLD JOHN.

A Once Famous Indian Chief Committed to the Poorhouse—125 Years Old.

PORTLAND, Oregon, March 23.—John, the once famous chief of the Columbia River Indians, who has reached the age of 125 years, and has outlived the last of his tribe, was committed to the poorhouse yesterday. John was always a friend of the whiteman. He had the reputation of being a brave warrior and ranked high in the esteem of his tribe. He saved the ancestors of many prominent citizens from massacre.

A HIDDEN TREASURE.

Unearthed In Mexico—A Box of Gold Buried a Century Ago.

DURANGO, Mex., March 23.—While workmen were excavating here Tuesday on the property of Francisco Otes, near Durango, they came across a large earthen box buried five feet under the surface. The box was found to be filled with old Spanish gold coins. The amount of the treasure will reach fully $100,000. It is supposed the money was buried by a Spaniard more than a century ago, as a large colony of them were employed here in working the mines.

Another Kind of Combine.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 23.—Detectives of the Pennylvania and Big Four lines have uncovered a gigantic combine that has been robbing railroad cars and stealing thousands of dollars worth of goods in their transit through the States of Ohio and Indiana. As a result it is said W. H. Bailey, the leader of the Lake Erie and Western strike at Muncie, will be arrested as soon as his time expires at Noblesville.

Devoured by Wolves.

OTTAWA, March 23.—Alexander Belliveau, of Lower Town, has received information from Michigan that his son was eaten by wolves a few days ago. The unfortunate young man was foreman of a gang working on the construction of a railway in the northern part of the State. He and a friend while out hunting were attacked by a band of wolves, and although they discharged their rifles into the pack the wolves overpowered them. Belliveau's companion climbed a tree to escape them, and from there he saw his companion torn to pieces by wolves at the foot of the tree on which he was perched. For several hours the wolves kept around the tree and did not leave until a number of men from the camp came and drove them away.

Murder of a Mayor.

MOSCOW, March 23.—M. Alexejeff, mayor of Moscow, who was shot by a man named Adrianoff on Tuesday, died at 3:30 o'clock this morning.

A Victory for Peace.

LONDON, March 28.—The Daily News says, editorially, of the Bering Sea arbitration: "Both parties to the Bearing Sea arbitration will share in the glory of this victory for civilization and the cause of peace. As each of these great arbitrations offers its majestic spectacle to mankind, war loses a portion of that prestige by which alone it lives in defiance of reason, humanity and common sense.

Captured by Brigands.

MADRID, March 23.—Brigands forced their way into a house on the outskirts of El Viso, Province of Cordova, last night. Senor Fonseca, father of the family, was gagged, his wife and son were locked in the cellar, the house was plundered of jewels and silver valued at 5,000 francs, and the 16-year-old daughter of the family was carried off. A note left by the bandits demanded 15,000 francs ransom for her. Gendarmes and militia are searching for the bandits.

The Princess of Wales Visits the Pope.

ROME, March 23.—Pope Leo gave a ceremonial audience to-day to the Princess of Wales, her daughters, the Princesses Victoria and Maud, and her son Prince George, the Duke of York, attended by their suites. The royal visitors were received with all the honors due to sovereigns, and the occasion was made one of unusual splendor. The entire pontifical court was assembled in state array, and all the English prelates at present in Rome were present. In the throne room Pope Leo received them with the ceremonial known as private audience. His Holiness had a most courteous interview with the royal visitors. The Princess of Wales, her daughters and the Duke of York afterwards visited Cardinal Rampolli, the Papal Secretary of State.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil, is ear ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, in which the young are specially subject.

That cure of Geo. W. Turner, of Galway, N. Y., of scrofula, by Hood's Sarsaparilla, was one of the most remarkable on record.

J. E. Adkins, the enterprising jeweler of the East End, has leased that attractive store on the corner of Dundas and Elizabeth streets, and will soon have it nicely stocked. b

"My sweetheart is neither beautiful no young," said Downes; "but she is as good as gold." "Ah! it's the gold you're after!" said Bigbee.
