The annual meeting of the Toronto Scottish Football Club will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 17. All members and intending members are requested to attend.

A very exciting game of football was played between the Binghamton and Star Football Clubs, resulting in a victory for the Stars by 1 to 0. Post, the goalkeeper of the Stars, played one of the finest games ever seen in goal. He stopped innumerable shots and undoubtedly saved the Toronto boys. Rannie, the Binghamton centre-forward, played a rattling game and had good support. The return match will be played next Saturday.

RAIN MADE IT A DRAW.

The Englishmen Had 20 Runs to Make With Ten Wickets to Fall When Play Ceased.

The heavy thunderstorm on Saturday afternoon prevented the completion of the cricket match Canada v. Cambridge and Oxford at Rosedale. The English team terminated their innings for 189, and then Canada's eleven went to bat, but in two hours the innings was over for 86, their entrances and exits being processional.

Terry made the top score (15) and appeared in excellent form, but was run out through the hesitation of Goldingham, his partner, in running after a hit to the off. The intervention of the storm postponed the game to 3.40, when the Englishmen sent in Mitchell and Hill, and when the former was warming to his work Laing took his wicket with a Yorker for 10. Studd succeeded him, and had received two balls, when the storm, coming on with renewed violence, caused the game to be drawn.

Practically the result is a victory for the visitors, as they required only 20 to win and had 10 wickets in hand. Scores:

SHAMROCKS BEAT CAPITALS.

But Ottawa's Twelve Are Still at the Top of the League.

Montreal, Sept. 8.—The championship match between the Shamrocks and Capitals on Saturday was a pretty exhibition of skilful lacrosse all through, without the usual manifestations of foul play and roughness, and resulted in favor of the Shamrocks by 6 goals to 2, but the result does not oust the Caps from the top. The first five games were decidedly interesting, the Shamrocks having the best of the score, but the Capitals, with their reinstated men, Carson and Carleton, put up a clean, steady and strong game. After the fifth game the play was, however, very languid. The teams were:

Shamrocks (6)—McKenna, goal; O'Brien, Stinson, Dwyer, Moore; Kelley, centre; Hinton, Danaher, O'Meara, Wall and Tucker.

Capitals (2)—Crown, goal; Sparrow, Devine, Hugh Carson, Binks, James, George Carson, Carleton, Murphy, Ketchum, Smith and Powers.

Messrs. W. Bramley and C. H. Clendinning were umpires, and Harry Brophy referee.

The summary follows:

1—Shamrocks (Danaher)	2.17
2—Shamrocks (Danaher)	6.33
3—Capitals (Carleton)	10.30
4—Shamrocks (Wall)	1.30
5—Capitals (Powers)	15.30
6—Shamrocks (O'Meara)	4.30
7—Shamrocks (Wall)	1.30
8—Shamrocks (Wall)	11.30

Lacrosse Points.

The Elm Lacrosse Club are desirous of arranging a game to be played outside the city some day this week or next Saturday. Address F. C. Waghorne, 58 Terauley-street, Toronto.

The senior C.L.A. match at Hanlan's Point Saturday afternoon between the Tecumsehs and Fergus was witnessed by a very small crowd, and was won by Fergus by 4 goals to 2. The result does not alter the standing in the league.

Although the Elms were beaten in the home-and-home matches with the Talngoos of Newmarket for the championship of two districts, they feel that they made a splendid showing against such clever players as Craig, Clark and Vansickle, well known in Barrie, and Eaton, late of the Torontos. The score at old C.C.C. Saturday was 5 to 5, the game being played on a wet field. Owing to irregularities, the Elms have decided to protest the game.

International Golf.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Sept. 7.—The International golf tournament closed to-day with the ladies' single competition. There were several competitors in this event, which finally simmered down to a contest between Mrs. Hobart Chatfield Taylor of Chicago and Miss Geale of Niagara. The struggle between these two was a notable one. Miss Geale finally won by a score of 95 to 71.

Sporting Notes.

The cricket match Saturday between St. Cyprian's and St. Mathias', played on Trinity campus, was won by St. Cyprian's by an innings and 7 runs. Score: 68 to 51 and 10. For the winners, Hillard made 23 and Worsfold 17, and for the losers F. Perrin 19 and Holland 12.

TO THE ARGONAUT FOUR.

COMPLIMENTARY ADDRESS FROM THE LONDON R. C.

Messrs. Thompson Bros. and Muntz Bros. Declared to be the Most Plucky and Popular of all Trans-Atlantic Oarsmen—Additional Praise for the Sculler of the Crew.

London, Eng., Sept. 7.—The team of the Argonaut Club of Toronto which took part in the last Henley Regatta rendered themselves so popular in every way during their recent visit to England, and rowed such splendid races, that, having regard to the fact that by their non-success they have no memento of their doings, a few of the leading members of the London Rowing Club suggested that an address should be forwarded them, expressing the good-will of English rowing men, so that they may have something recording their prowess to hand down to future generations. Mr. H. Ellington, London Rowing Club, has the management of the affair, and the testimonial is being signed by the chief amateur oarsmen of the United Kingdom. Some delay has been caused in the matter because of the holiday season, so many being out of town. Here is the address:

"To Messrs. G. H. Muntz (bow), E. A. Thompson, F. H. Thompson and R. G. Muntz (stroke), of the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto, Canada: We, the undersigned, past and present amateur oarsmen in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, cannot allow your visit to this country during the season of 1895 to pass without expressing our great admiration of the manner in which you have rowed as a four-oared crew and Mr. E. A. Thompson has sculled in the contests in which he has been engaged.

"We are, of course, gratified that our countrymen have been able to defeat you, and we are sure that you are too good sportsmen not to appreciate properly our feelings. To be beaten by the narrow margin by which it has been your lot to lose is the next best thing to victory. Never before have crews come from your side of the Atlantic and fought races out to the bitter end as you have done, the usual practice having been for them to stop before completing the course, as soon as they were led; therefore, your race in the first heat for the Stewards' Challenge Cup at the Henley Royal Regatta, when you were beaten by two feet, only after a most desperate finish with a four-oared crew of the London Rowing Club, the ultimate winners of the cup, caused us to hold in the highest estimation your abilities as oarsmen and your pluck and determination as opponents.

"It was unfortunate for you, Mr. A. E. Thompson, that later in the day you had to meet an opponent in the second heat for the Diamond Challenge Sculls who was quite fresh, but that the winner of your heat in the end secured the trophy may have been some consolation to your feelings.

"Your race with Rupert Guinness for the London Challenge Cup at the Metropolitan Amateur Regatta, when he was again successful, your other competitors being Guy and Vivian Nickalls and H. T. Blackstaffe, still further heightens our admiration for your sculling, and it would have given us all satisfaction if in your contest in the final heat for the senior sculls at the Moulsey Amateur Regatta, with the last-named sculler, you had been able to secure a trophy to take home with you to Canada, instead of being one more beaten by two feet only after a splendid struggle.

"In conclusion, we can only express the very great pleasure we have derived from your visit to this country. It has given us the opportunity of becoming acquainted with you, and we hope that it may not be long before we again have the pleasure of being visited by the most plucky and popular trans-Atlantic oarsmen who have ever tried conclusions with our best amateurs."

Expected Yet to do Her Duty.

London, Sept. 7.—The London clubs are deserted just now, the professionals and other sportsmen being scattered in all quarters at this season, but the general public received the news of the defeat of the Valkyrie with feelings and expressions of regret that Lord Dunraven's pluck was not rewarded. However, it is generally believed that the Valkyrie will do better in the remaining races.

Skiffs in a Heavy Breeze.

The Royal Toronto Sailing Skiff Club's special 18-foot class raced on Saturday afternoon. At the time of the first gun, 2.30, a heavy rain and northwest wind set in, but cleared away shortly after, and the boats made ready to start. At 3 p.m., time of special class to start, Koko was the only one who responded. The 18-foot class started at 3.15, the following starting: Clipper, Algonquin, Ethel and Frou Frou. It was evident the race could not be finished, as the Algonquin carried away her jigger mast, as it was blowing a howling gale. All the boats were called in by this time, pending the decision of the Sailing Committee. T. Saulter acted as officer of the day, with A. R. Taylor as assistant.

Dons Finished Second.

Lake Ariel, Pa., Sept. 7.—The first race in the Lake Ariel regatta this afternoon was the senior four-oared shell, in which the Institute Boat Club of Newark, the Dons of Toronto and the Stars of Plymouth participated.

The Institutes won. Time 9 1-4 min. The Dons were one length behind and the Stars five lengths in the rear.

Second race, junior singles, six starters—Won by Gus Roehm, Vespers, Philadelphia; Tom Nelson, Dons, Toronto, 2. Time 13 1-5 sec.

The single-scull race resulted: Cresser of Philadelphia won, Aman of Buffalo 2, O'Connor of Toronto 3. Juvenile of Philadelphia 4. The water was rough.

Queen City Yacht Club.

The skiff class of the Q.C.Y.C. sailed a sweepstakes race on Saturday, and had a rough time of it in the thunder squalls and strong puffs. Four boats started. The race was won by Commodore Tyson in his proa Gryphon. Mr. Readman's skiff Vereld was second. Excelsior capsized while jibing on the second round of the course, and Sunbeam retired.

LONDON FLOODED.

Underground Railway Submerged by a Heavy Rainstorm.

London, Sept. 7.—The most severe thunderstorm in years swept over London this morning. The rainfall was so heavy that the district railways were submerged and traffic was temporarily suspended. Many of the streets along the Thames were inundated, making passage through them impossible. As far as is known, there were no fatalities.

New Wholesale Cigar and Tobacco Firm.

The opening of the exclusive wholesale cigar and tobacco firm of Steel and Honeysett, 54 Yonge-street, has met with the universal approval of the retail cigar trade. Mr. Steel's 10 years' experience as leading traveler in this line enables him to cater to the exact wants of the many dealers who have placed their confidence in his excellent judgment. A call at the above address will convince the dealers that they are in a position to fill all the requirements of the tobacco trade.

Mr. Honeysett's 15 years' successful retail experience is in itself a guarantee of his knowledge of the business. If you have not yet called upon them they tender you a hearty welcome. Satisfaction warranted.

To remove bad breath from catarrh, bad teeth, etc., use Odoroma.

A Generous Corporation

Owing to the recent break in the conduit and the consequent filthy state of the water, the St. Leon Mineral Water Co. announce a special discount of 20 per cent. to the citizens of Toronto. Their object in doing this is to place their world-renowned life-giving St. Leon Water within the reach of every one.

Considering the alarming amount of disease and death that must result from drinking city water, the generous announcement made by the company will, we think, be much appreciated by every citizen.

Children like using Odoroma, thus forming habits that will ensure them good sound teeth the rest of their lives.

A FARCICAL GAME.

How Baseball is Sometimes Played Over the Don.

About 800 braved the elements Saturday afternoon in anticipation of seeing two games over the Don. The rain made a late start necessary, and two games were out of the question. Rain came down again in the first of the fourth, and it looked as if there would be no contest. After half an hour, when Lake and Casey had left the grounds, it was agreed to play; so Dixon of Providence caught for Toronto, and was of material aid to the champions. The play was farcical, and the spectators hissed both teams, as they deserved. Score:

KICKED IN THE FACE.

Mr. George Edwards Badly Injured by a Horse.

About 3.30 Saturday afternoon, while riding on a bicycle near the eastern gate of the Exhibition grounds, Mr. George Edwards, a brother of the treasurer of the Industrial Exhibition, was kicked in the face by a horse and badly injured.

The gentleman was taken home. It is not thought that any very serious consequences will ensue.

Another Incendiary Fire.

About 7 p.m. Saturday three G.N.W. messengers named Pierce, Cody and Dewey discovered some packing cases on fire in the rear of the Barber-Ellis Co.'s premises, 43 Bay-street. An alarm was turned in, but the boys had the blaze out before the brigade arrived. The fire was apparently of incendiary origin, and had it not been so opportunely discovered would soon have made good headway. Damage $10.

A burning chimney at 33 James-street gave the firemen a run on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. St. German on Tour.

The following is from a southern newspaper called The Pana Daily Palladium: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. St. German of North Toronto, Canada, uncle and aunt of Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols of this city, who are on a visit to their relatives and friends in Pana, return their sincere thanks to the Second Illinois Regiment Band for the distinguished courtesy extended to them and their friends last evening in serenading in front of Mr. Nichols' residence. May Professor Alexander and the members of his excellent band meet with all the encouragement and hearty support they justly deserve from the enterprising citizens of this city they are striving so to serve.

A New Hotel.

Mr. Henry Simpson, architect, of 9 1-2 Adelaide-street east, is preparing plans and specifications for a new hotel near the Grand Opera House for Mr. Jethro Worden, which he intends building on the site of his present hotel. The new building will be classic in design, of red pressed brick and cut stone, and will present a very imposing appearance. The interior is most conveniently arranged, and Mr. Worden thinks he will have the finest hotel of its size in the city, and all who have seen Mr. Simpson's sketch will bear him out in his opinion.

Ontario Ladies' College.

Owing to some unavoidable delay in connection with the putting in of new steam heating and electric lighting plants and the erection of new buildings for the Ontario Ladies' College at Whitby, it has been found necessary to postpone the time of opening till Monday, Sept. 16. The prospects of the college for the coming year are exceedingly encouraging.

Sir Henry Tyler Off for Peru.

New York, Sept. 8.—Sir Henry Tyler, representing men who hold £32,000,000 in Peruvian securities, is here on his way to Peru. Some time ago Peru defaulted on the interest. To the British creditors she made over certain railroads, guano beds and lands, and agreed to pay £80,000 a year. This agreement was ratified by Congress. The bondholders were incorporated as the Peruvian Corporation. Recent political troubles have made it necessary to test the soundness of the agreement, and perhaps to have it ratified by the present Government.

Dunraven to King William.

New York, Sept. 8.—"German Emperor, Berlin: Sir,—Apparently badly beaten yesterday; weather very fluky.—Dunraven." This was the text of a cable message sent by Earl Dunraven to Emperor William today.

FLOWERS AND FEATHERS AND KISSES.

Saturday before millinery opening half a dozen young gentlemen connected with the wholesale millinery trade, who were all pretty polite, polished and popular young men, agreed each with the other to steal a kiss during the milliners' visit to the city and take a note of it. The result:

London Girl—Mr. Jones, your conduct shocks me beyond endurance.

Hamilton Girl—Thanks, awfully, don't you know.

Belleville Girl—I'll pardon you this time, but you're fresh, my child.

Stratford Girl—Whoop-la!!

Peterboro' Girl—Oh, Harry, don't! Look at the balloon.

Chatham Girl—Break away, there!!

Port Hope Girl—Mr. Walker, I'm shocked—now, Harry, please don't.

Woodstock Girl—Dear George!!

Windsor Girl—The fireworks are lovely, but, Bob dear, you've crushed my frill.

Owen Sound Girl—I'm your sweetheart; you're my Joe. Oh, my!

Guelph Girl—Are you sure nobody saw us? Auntie's in the city, you know.

Collingwood Girl—Ah, there!

Kingston Girl—I'm going to Montreal next season. You Toronto boys are nice, but—oh, my! Yes, I like Toronto best.

Brockville Girl—Indeed, I couldn't. I'm engaged, don't you know.

Ottawa Girl—I came after bonnets, not kisses, but—there—let it go at that. Mum's the word.

Orangeville Girl—My dear, what do you take me for?—a girl in bloomers or a new woman? Look at the rockets.

Barrie Girl—Oh, mamma! mamma!

Pembroke Girl—No, sir, I have a beau of my own, Micawber, and he does all the kissing I require.

The Charm of Grouse-Shooting.

What, then, is the charm of grouse shooting over dogs on a mountain or moor where there is plenty of cover? There is, first, the charm of watching the working of the dogs, the intelligence, the interest in the sport which makes skilled canine co-operation so fascinating to a lover of animals, as every sportsman must be. Then there is the pleasure of using one's knowledge of the habits of birds of the grounds they will frequent, deep heather or bracken cover in the hot middle of the August day, short heather, on which they feed, in the early morning or in the evening; of using one's knowledge of the moor in order that the ground may be so worked as to force the birds from all directions into strong holding cover, where they will lie close, and likely to lie well; the pleasure, in short, of using the stored-up experience that makes up what may, perhaps, be called moorcraft.

Then there is the walking which soon gets into hard condition the man who shoots over dogs and perseveres resolutely when, for the first two or three days, he feels the weakening effects of the sedentary life of the towns. It is only by the sportsman who does the necessary hard walking that the exhilarating effects of the mountain air are felt in full. This exhilaration has been compared to that of champagne, but it is more like the new sense of the mere joy of living that comes from a plunge in the sea after a long hot walk when one comes refreshed, light, alert, vigorous, and feeling as though by some magic the ~~tireless~~ activity of youth has been regained. The result of a few days' hard mountain walking after grouse is felt not only in lungs renewed and limbs made hard and vigorous, but in a brighter and healthier attitude of the mind towards life which makes it possible to draw into the inmost being the joy of the broad earth, and is as invigorating to the moral and mental as to the physical nature. The charm of the mountain is always there, but the marksman who keeps to the butts has not gained, as the fixed price of hard exercise, the state of body and mind in which to feel it. The keenness of the eye to see, the freshness and strength of the nerves to receive and enjoy, can be got only from active exercise, made possible by the excitement of sport which stimulates a man to exert himself, as he never do without it.—Saturday Review.

Deserters From Ships.

Jack Tar has an irresistible longing for the shore at times; and gratifies it if he can, even at the price of desertion. On a dark night, when the good ship to which he belongs is anchored in a home port, he climbs into the chains and slips out into the waves, determined to risk drowning for a few gills of fire-water. The guard sometimes give the alarm too late and the culprits get away and have a long cruise, the end of which they are put in chains and spend a few days 'tween decks, lying on a cold, hard floor. At the New York Navy Yard the other night two suspicious splashes were heard on the out-bound side of the New York, recently returned from the Kiel festivities. A boat was lowered and sent in pursuit of the escaping men, one of whom would have been drowned if an officer had not risked his life to save him. Desertions are fortunately becoming more rare of late, but there are always one or two adventurous ones, who will have shore liberty without asking for it, and who apparently cannot be deterred by the terrors of the regulations.—Once a Week.

Making Both Ends Meet.

Waiter—What will you have?

Shorts—Well, something cheap. I want to make both ends meet.

Waiter—Right! I'll bring you some beef tongue and ox-tail soup.

The Standard High.

Caddington—Well, I see you ladies have started your paper, The Advanced Woman. You've made application, I suppose, to have it go through the mail as second-class matter.

Miss Strongmynd (firmly)—Not we, indeed! The Advanced Woman is to be first-class in every particular.—Puck.

To Raise Drowned Bodies.

A St. Louis inventor has patented a device for the raising of drowned bodies from the beds of rivers and lakes, which has been applied with marked success in many places in the West during the present summer.

The old plan was to fire cannon over the surface of the water near where the drowned body is supposed to lie, the concussion causing the body to rise. The apparatus of the St. Louis man utilizes from four to eight sticks of dynamite in a machine box connected by fine wire to the electric battery on the shores from which is communicated the spark that fires the heavy charge resting on the river bed.
