Woman's World...

Devoted Specially to the Interests of our Women Readers.

Conducted by Katherine Leslie.

That women love a red coat was proven beyond a doubt last night in the Temple Building. The portraits on the wall looked down upon a perfect crush of fashionable women, in smart evening attire, women in tailor suits and hats, women in silk bodices and hats, civilians in evening dress, officers from the various city regiments, and upon twenty filles du regiment, all looking more or less smart and saucy in their military attire. These young ladies were: Mrs. Gibson, Miss Merritt, Miss Thompson, Miss H. Thompson, Miss G. Crombie, Miss Falconbridge, Miss Cassels, Miss Elmsley, Miss Scott, Miss Seymour, Miss James, Miss Helen Armstrong, Miss Elsie Mortimer Clark, Miss Annie Michie, Miss Lucy Maclean Howard, Miss Walker, Miss Eva De'amere, Miss Marion Barker, Miss Wornum. The hostesses were all charmingly gowned in evening dress and were: Mrs. Alfred Cameron, Mrs. Delamere, Mrs. Forrester, Mrs. Campbell MacDonald. Buglers announced the numbers from the platform, and the only military aspect of the affair lacking was an ambulance corps, which became almost a necessity when eight of the filles du regiment, representing the Royal Canadian Dragoons, went through a sword and lance exercise, and succeeded in giving a lady a nasty scratch in the eye.

Captain Boyd's song and chorus, "Soldiers of the Queen," was enthusiastically received. Mr. Wyly Grier was in good voice and sang with much style "Best of All," by Moir. Captain Barker's song, "I Want to Join the Army," was most effectively sung, and the "Highland Fling" dancing with bagpipe accompaniment was a feature of the evening.

Some of those present were: Mrs. Arthurs, Lady Thompson, the Misses Thompson, Mrs. Mortimer Clark, the Misses Mortimer Clark, Mrs. Rigby, Mrs. M. W. Mills, Mrs. H. Burrows, Mrs. Nesbitt, Mrs. H. Cawthra, Mrs. MacMaster, Mrs. McRae, Mrs. Vankoughnet, Mrs. H. Sutherland, Mr. W. Goulding, Mrs. Goulding, Captain Benjamin, Mrs. Benjamin, Mr. Beardmore, Mrs. Ellis, Miss Ellis, Mrs. Brouse, Mrs. W. Ince, Mr. Herbert Mason, Mrs. Victor Cawthra, Mr. V. Cawthra, Mrs. Florence Blaikie, Mrs. E. Ryckman, Mrs. Wallace, Miss Langmuir, Mrs. Widmer Hawke, Miss Kennedy, Mrs. Covert Moffatt, Mrs. Elliot, Mrs. Hemstead, Mrs. Dignam, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Walker and others.

To-night's affair promises to be of unusual attraction. The entertainment will be under the auspices of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society, and the program will be filled by such well-known artists as Miss Smart, Miss Ronan, Miss Ryan, Mr. Blight, Mr. Benrose and Miss Burns. Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Fred. Cox will be hostesses and the following ladies will assist: Mrs. J. W. Drynan, Mrs. J. S. King, Miss Cox, Miss Evelyn Cox, Miss Helen Strange, Miss Enid Wornum, Miss Lillie Lee, Miss Edna McNaught, Miss Agnes Young, Miss Mamie Palmer, Miss Taylor, Miss Ethel Taylor, Miss Alice Houston, Miss Helen Boomer, Miss Ethel Suckling, Miss Ethel Wright.

Lady Tilley of St. John, N.B., one of the patronesses of the Woman's Art Association, in company with her niece, Miss Holland, was a visitor at the Art Loan Exhibition yesterday afternoon.

Discussing the problem of "Occupation for College Women" before the Alumnae of Toronto University at its annual meeting, Miss Jeanette Street, B.A., in an admirable paper, advocated the branching out of college women into other lines of work than teaching. The increasing number of college graduates has overcrowded the teaching profession and the overcrowding has lowered the grade of salaries. Miss Street thought that instead of making teaching the universal goal women graduates should branch out and seek other lines of work more especially adopted to individual ability. The choice or refusal of work should be based on genuine taste and inclination. Practically the whole field of employment is open to women. Statistics gathered from various sources show that where other things are equal, such as an insight into principles, a grasp of life, and the personal qualifications which make for success, the college woman has a great advantage over the woman not college bred.

* * *

The branches of work, for many reasons, seeming specially adaptable to college-trained women are teaching, library-work, journalism, positions as deans, registrars, tutors, and superintendents. Women graduates go in also to other work in law, medicine, nursing, and there can be no reason why a woman should not enter any work congenial to her. Here seems to be the point where women can broaden, not by keeping to a literary profession, but by bringing well-trained minds to improve conditions in other lines of work. There are opportunities in business lines, and where a college woman possesses good executive ability, and a desire for practical work, why should she not enter a business world? There are opportunities in the line of architecture, and women have already succeeded both in the constructive and artistic sides of architectural work. It is most necessary for good living and right thinking that women, well trained in scientific-domestic lines, be placed at the head of institutions such as residences, hospitals, and asylums. The positions as deans, registrars and superintendents, tho' comparatively few, offer the broadest fields of influence for women of culture. The needs of the present call into play more and more urgently the mental powers of women, as well as men, and it seems by no means improbable that women can render as much service in ingenuity and inventiveness as men.

* * *

Women's fitness for library work has been proven. A genius for organization, executive ability, and a knowledge and love of books are the requisites, and these may call into play the best energies of the strongest minds. The training course is generally two years. The salary of a graduate of a library school averages $900, and ranges from $450 to $2000. The number of positions in this line is limited in larger libraries. But the chance for sound educational work in smaller places is good. Just so soon as the public can realize the efficiency of college-trained librarians, then comes an outlet for fruitful university extension work. Settlement work and journalism were next touched upon. Journalism, said Miss Street, seems to be a fascinating life to women engaged in it. Many women are engaged as proof-readers, book-reviewers, and translators. As actual reporters women's work has been confined to reporting women's clubs, social functions, etc., which does not offer a very broad field. Neither is editing all women's columns as interesting as other parts of the work. The training necessary for journalism seems to be an education which shall be conducive to close observation, punctuality, perseverance, and a love of books. A writer in The Contemporary Review points out that college women must lose much of their desire for clear reasoning, and give way to more superficial work if they desire to succeed in the present demands for journalistic work. The college-bred woman is going into nursing. As tutors, governesses, traveling companions, good salaries are paid, especially among Americans; they range from $30 to $75 per month and expenses.

Mrs. Hetty Green, who is probably the richest woman in the world, having a fortune of $60,000,000, says the path to success is easy. It is because it is so simple that so many people miss it. For a woman to be successful, one of the most important things she must do is to learn how to mind her own business. It is next to impossible to be taking care of the affairs of some one else, and at the same time to keep your own affairs in good running order. Imitators seldom make successes. When a girl has a little money to invest, she should look out for herself, look at things from her own standpoint, and not be watching from morning till night what this or that other successful person has done. By waiting to find out what to do, this is, what others have done, she loses her opportunity.

* * *

Real estate is the best investment for a woman. She should keep her eyes open until she sees a chance to buy for $4000 a house she can soon sell for $5000, by making a few improvements on it. But she must be content with a profit whose size corresponds to the size of the amount of her investment. She should never refuse an offer where she can make money on her investment, even though the profit is not as large as she had hoped for in the first place.

The Demon Dyspepsia—in olden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by carelessness or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial. ed

A WOODSTOCK CASE.

Mr. Masa Willis Tells of His Escape From Kidney Disease.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him—He Used Other Medicines, But Got Little Good From Them—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Woodstock, Ont., April 10.—There has been a great deal of discussion in this city during the past two weeks regarding the truly remarkable case of A. N. Wideman of Duntroon, who was cured of inflammatory rheumatism by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after his doctor had failed to cure him, and his recovery was not expected.

During it all not one voice has been raised to say that the story of the Wideman case was not strictly true. Dodd's Kidney Pills have effected too many cures in Woodstock for that.

But the talk about Mr. Wideman's case has brought forward another grateful citizen, who boasts of having been cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

This gentleman is Mr. Masa Willis of 295 Dundas-street and he tells his story thus:

"For several years I suffered severely from kidney disease, pains in my back, etc. I used various medicines, but got little benefit from any of them.

"My son had used Dodd's Kidney Pills with excellent effect, and he advised me to try them. I acted on his advice and am happy to say I am thoroughly cured.

"I used only four boxes of this grand medicine, but I needed no more. Now I always keep a box in my room, as I believe Dodd's Kidney Pills are a first-class family medicine."

Dodd's Kidney Pills, the only sure cure for Bright's disease, diabetes, rheumatism, urinary troubles, female complaints and all other kidney diseases, are sold by all druggists at 50c a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by The Dodds Medicine Company, Limited, Toronto.

The High School Board held their regular meeting to-night, Mr. R. C. Jennings presiding. The by-laws were framed and in the last clause was a blank, which had to be filled by the name of the bank at which the board is to keep its account. The blank was filled with the name of the Molson's Bank, Mr. R. C. Jennings, manager of the Bank of Commerce remarking that being in the chair his mouth was closedh, but he would have the opportunity of opening it later. The matter of fencing the grounds and purchasing 125 chairs was left with the Management Committee.

East Toronto.

East Toronto, April 10.—(Special.)—The regular monthly meeting of the Public School Board was held to-night, Mr. Brown presiding. Inspector Fotheringham's report of the school, a very favorable one, was received and place on file. Miss McEachern, late teacher, asked the Board for a testimonial, but the Board considered that the inspector was the better person to give her a recommendation, and accordingly referred the communication to him. Principal J. Johnston forwarded his report, which showed 221 pupils on the register and an average attendance of 193. He thought that, in view of the fact that Empire Day, May 23, had been set apart as a national day, and certain exercises were prescribed, it would be well to have them in the open air and suggested the advisability of celebrating the afternoon in Morton's Park.

Rev. Dr. H. P. Welton closed his series of lectures in the Baptist Church to-night, taking for his subject "The Kingdom." It was very largely attended, as, indeed, all his lectures have been.

The young men of East Toronto village and Little York will meet in the Fire Hall, Little York, on Thursday evening next to complete the organization of a Young Men's Macdonald Conservative Club. Officers will be elected and Messrs. John W. Moyes, Thomas L. Church, John T. C. Thompson (son of Sir John Thompson), and E. F. H. Cross will deliver addresses. All Conservatives are invited. Mr. Jack Patterson is acting as secretary of the meeting.

Etobicoke Township Council.

Islington, April 10.—(Special.)—The monthly meeting of the Etobicoke Township Council was held in the Town Hall here to-day, Reeve D. L. Streight presiding. Charles Nurse, Charles Vint, D. Leash, Ed Coulter, J. H. Smith, Mrs. J. O'Neil and James Bownress were appointed poundkeepers, and Allen Betridge and Henry Barker were appointed fence viewers, to fill vacancies formerly filled by Peter Wardlaw and Andrew Barker. One hundred and four overseers of highways were also appointed, very few changes being made in the list of last year. Mimico is to be further beautified by shade trees, and Walter Burgess, the pathmaster for that division, was permitted to expend commuted statute labor for this purpose. Mr. Louis F. Heyd wrote to the Council, stating that Toronto capitalists contemplated spending $50,000 in paving brick works near New Toronto, which would employ between 50 and 100 hands, and the company is now negotiating with the Mimico Real Estate Company for right of way to extend the G. T. R. track south to their works, crossing the Lake Shore-road and the street railway tracks. The township is asked to consent to this; also to grant exemption of taxes for 20 years. In view of the fact that the Hamilton Sewer Pipe Company has been assessed at $6000 for ten years, the Ontario Sewer Pipe Company of Mimico ask that their assessment be placed at a fixed rate. The Bell Telephone Company will be requested to move their pole on the north corner of lot 21, concession B, further west, as it interferes with the road.

The Clerk of York Township yesterday received word from Terminal Inspector Morris of the G. T. R., expressing regret at any inconvenience caused by train shunting on the town line between Scarboro and York and promising to have the cause of the complaint remedied.

The Epworth League of Christian Endeavor held a most pleasant gathering last night. In addition to a short program, a discussion, "Resolved, That a union of the Protestant churches at the present time is desirable," took place. The affirmative was taken by Rev. E. A. Shaver, decided that the latter contingent were strongest in argument.

DOCTOR "POSTUM."

Some Coffee Experience in Mexico.

"Some years ago I went to a city of Mexico, where I increased my coffee allowance quite considerably.

"In about three months, my nerves became seriously affected. A sort of stupor seemed to possess me all day and I suffered great discomfort from dyspepsia. I kept on, however, with the black coffee until just before I left, when I could not keep it down any longer. Had to quit, and took up cold water and milk.

"When I reached New York City, a lady friend who used Postum Cereal Food Coffee regularly recommended it. I gladly tried some of her coffee and found it all the owners claimed for it, a very delicious beverage the way she makes it.

"I have been entirely cured and am in perfect health in every way. Am a regular missionary for Postum.

"Whenever I hear a man or woman complain of any pain or disorder that arises from the nervous system, I prescribe Postum. Several of my business friends dub me 'Doctor Postum,' because I have cured them of their indigestion and dyspepsia."
