THE queer part of their success is they're selling on merit and not because we're rentless and creditless, and a few other "reasons."

RALPH Waldo Emerson had it right—the world will "make a beaten path" to the fellow who delivers the goods.

WHICH accounts for the cluster of footprints headed for Hickey's. We're upsetting all precedent and practice by the way we're delivering the goods in our clothes at $12.50

CIRCUIT RACES OPEN AT CHATHAM

Unsettled Weather Keeps Attendance Down—Racing of High Order.

By a Staff Reporter.

CHATHAM, Ont., June 29.—Threatening weather was the cause of the attendance not being as large as it otherwise would have been for the opening day of the circuit races at Chatham. From the morning it looked like there would be a rainstorm, and during the progress of the races it came down a steady pour, and two of the three races carded had to go unfinished until tomorrow.

The racing was of a high order. The fields were good no less than ten horses scoring for the word in the 2.24 trot. Jack K., ch.g., by Silver Finch, won with ease, after losing the second heat to Creosote. He was almost a prohibitive favorite in the auctions before the starting of the race, but when Creosote won a heat he sold even money with the field and won handily.

The 2.10 pace, unfinished, was a battle between The Indian and Eel Direct, with the latter having the better of it, when rain prevented the finishing of the race.

The 2.50 pace, half-mile heats, was quite a guessing race. Cap McRae of Wallaceburg sprang one in Rose Eel Dillard, a gray daughter of The Eel, and dam by Hal Dillard. She went out in front from third position and won eased up, with Billy M., a half-brother of Billy Brino, second, in 1.06. Rose Eel Dillard repeated in 1.05, but the driver of Billy M. did not appear anxious to win, as it was apparent to the public that he was under a strong arm. He finished second, with Hal Actor third, in 1.05¼. In the third heat, Hal Actor raced the mare from the wire and beat her thru the stretch in a whipping finish, with Daisy H. second and Rose Eel Dillard third. Time for the half, fastest of the race, 1.04¼. This race had also to be carried over. John Glassford of Chatham was starting judge, and got his fields away well in time. Summary:

TOUGH ON TALENT FAVORITES FAILED

Not One Public Choice Landed in Front at Hamilton The Results.

The books had a great day at Hamilton yesterday; of the seven races on the card not one favorite landed home in front. There was the regular week-day crowd present and several horses seemed to stand out on form in their fields. They failed to win tho. There were seven well-filled races on the card, with the fifth, the Grimsby Handicap, the feature. In this race Fountain Fay was made an even-money favorite and went to the post with more play than probably any two horses in the race. Fountain Fay went to the front at the rise of the barrier and set a good pace till well into the stretch, where Tactics, who is well suited on this track, closed very fast and won under a mild drive by a length and one-half. Fountain Fay hung on well and was an easy second.

Sir John Hendrie's province-bred, Slipper Day, made it two straight at the meeting when she took a shifty bunch of selling platers into camp in the third race and won under wraps by two lengths from the favorite, Deposit. Slipper Day was a five to one chance in the betting and raced out in front with Viley and Deposit at the rise of the gate. Coming out of the back stretch Viley was pinched off and McDermott was forced to pull up.

The Montreal horse, Lingar, graduated from the maiden class when she easily won the Maiden Plate for Canadian-breds. In this race the Toronto horse, Garish Sun, was made an odds-on favorite. Lingar set all the pace and won easily from Garish Sun by three lengths. Garish Sun was an easy second ahead of Harry Bassett II., who dropped into third place in the run home.

Another Hamilton horse won brackets when Single, a 20 to 1 chance, galloped home an easy winner after setting all the pace, in the sixth race. Broomsedge, the favorite, finished second, a length ahead of Yenghee.

Lucky George, from the half-mile tracks, a 10 to 1 shot, captured the last race of the day easily from Zodiac, who was second, a nose in front of J. H. Houghton. Fenrock, the favorite, was never a contender and finished away back.

Acting for Robert Davies, owner of the Thorncliffe Stable, Henry McDaniel purchased two yearling fillies at the recent sale at Sheepshead Bay. One is a bay filly by Glorifier—Picturesque and is a half-sister to Hamburg Belle. This was purchased from the J. B. Higgin estate. The other is a black filly by Glorifier—Belle Fleur and is a half-sister to Gaelic, being purchased from A. B. Hancock. Both horses will be shipped from Sheepshead Bay to the Thorncliffe farm.
