THE REPORTER.

FARMERSVILLE, MARCH 2, 1887.

FARMERSVILLE AND VICINITY.

Our Reporter's Note Book Turned Inside Out for the Benefit of the Public.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due to our old friends, Mr. J. M. Hicks, of Tacoma, Washington Territory, and Mr. C. D. Clow, of Wilson, Dakota, for copies of their local papers.

COUNCIL MEETING.—A special meeting of Rear Yonge and Escott Council was held on Saturday last, a report of which will appear in our next, when each ratepayer will be mailed a free copy of the REPORTER.

SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL.—The revival now going on in the Methodist Church is one of the most remarkable which has ever taken place here. The Rev. Mr. Savage is a most persuasive orator, and his efforts, ably seconded by the pastor and other earnest Christian workers, have been blessed by the profoundest conversion of over a hundred. The interest still continues, and the church is crowded nightly.

GRAND LINGE MISSION SOCIAL.—On Wednesday evening last, about seventy-five persons gathered at the residence of Thomas Hayes, Esq., the object being to raise a small donation in aid of the above mission. Refreshments were served during the evening and the Farmersville orchestra, assisted by Mr. Cornwell as pianist, rendered a number of choice selections. Rev. S. Sheldon read a short account of the rise, objects and present condition of the mission, which was listened to with much interest. A silver collection amounting to $14.50 was taken up and everything passed off very pleasantly.

AN AFTERNOON EPISODE.—What might have been a serious accident happened in town on Friday last. Friend Isaac, with a good and noble purpose, hitched up Brown Billy and gaily drove through the principal streets, until he pulled up in front of the lone widow's" residence on Victoria street. A basket of delicious apples was transferred from the cutter to the larder of the smiling widow, and with heart elate at having done a worthy deed, he touched up Billy with the lines preparatory to starting on his homeward trip. But instead of attending to his steed, Friend Isaac allowed his eyes to wander to the plump and comely form of the recipient of his bounty. The consequence was that in less time than it takes to relate it the horse had overturned the cutter, making a disastrous smash, and then started on the run, dragging our worthy friend, who kept firm hold of the lines, several rods before the powerful beast was brought to a standstill. The widow rendered efficient aid by very pluckily grasping the plunging beast by the bridle. Friend Isaac says he always considered himself good on a "hang on" and is satisfied that this proclivity stood him in good stead on this occasion.

West's Cough Syrup, the household remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, influenza, whooping-cough, consumption, and all throat and lung diseases, 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. All druggists.

OUR ADVERTISERS.—Interesting information will always be found in our patrons' announcements in the advertising columns of the REPORTER, and it will not pay the reader to leave them unperused.

SENT FOR TRIAL.—The young man Rich. Irwin who was taken to Brockville jail last week, was, as we surmized at the time, only laboring under the effects of a long debauch. On Monday he was brought from Brockville and arraigned before Justices White and Loverin, who after hearing the evidence of parties from whom it was alleged he had stolen a quantity of calf skins, a cow hide, and a goat skin robe, on the 13th of April last, as well as the admission by prisoner on the evening of his first arrest that he was guilty of the charges preferred against him, the magistrates had no alternative but to send him up for trial.

The best spring medicine is one of West's Liver Pills taken every night on going to bed. Just what you need. Sugar coated. 30 pills 25c. All druggists.

PRESBYTERIAN PROSPECTS.—The Rev. Mr. Kellock, of Spencerville, Convener of Home Missions, conducted the Presbyterian service on Sunday evening. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, there was a good turn out of the members and others. The sermon will be long remembered by those who heard it, for its eloquent and forcible exposition of gospel truth. At the conclusion of the service Mr. Kellock referred to matters affecting the prospects of the congregation here, which had been discussed at the recent meeting of the Presbytery. It was proposed to divide the five stations under Mr. Richards' care, putting Farmersville, Caintown and Malloytown in one charge, and Lyn and Fairfield in another. This was the plan he advised; but there were practical difficulties in the way, which must not be lost sight of. In the meanwhile Farmersville needed a more regular ministerial supply, which could only be obtained by the stationing of a student here for a time. A student who could be secured (Mr. Stiles, a graduate of Oxford, Eng.) will preach here on Sunday, the 20th..... We notice in the published reports of the Presbytery that the Rev. Mr. Richards reported that the old C. M. church could be bought for $3,000; but he advised the erection of a more modern structure.

A SAD AND TERRIBLE SUICIDE.

A YOUNG WOMAN OF ELBE MILLS CUTS HER THROAT WHILE INSANE.

The country for miles around was shocked last Saturday morning by the report that a daughter of Mr. Richard Tackaberry, a well-to-do farmer residing a mile and a half south of Elbe Mills, had committed suicide by cutting her throat with a razor, while suffering from mental aberration. A REPORTER representative was soon upon the scene of the tragedy, and found the report only too true. The facts of the case are substantially as follows:

Maria Tackaberry was in the 24th year of her age, and was a smart, intelligent girl, who until about a year ago enjoyed general good health. During the past twelve months she has been subject to occasional fits of sickness, and was at times out of her mind; but as she was very quiet during these attacks, the family did not consider it necessary to send her to an asylum. During the past month she has been getting gradually worse, and had labored under the hallucination that her father's sickness was caused by inattentiveness upon her during her spells of despondency. On Friday last she went out of doors for the ostensible purpose of getting an armful of wood. As she was gone somewhat longer than usual, her brother went out to look for her and found that she had started for the open fields. When caught up to she expressed a wish that she might remain out doors and freeze to death, and thus put an end to her existence. On Saturday morning Miss Tackaberry rose earlier than usual, helped her sisters to get breakfast, and seemed anxious that the work should be done quickly and well. Shortly after breakfast she went into the dining-room, and under the pretence of arranging her hair must have got possession of her father's razor, which was kept on a small shelf near the looking-glass. She then went up to her room and committed the fatal deed. About five minutes after she ascended the stairs, the family heard a noise as of something falling, and on going up to her room found the unfortunate young woman in the agonies of death, with a terrible gash in her throat, the jugular vein and windpipe being completely severed. Messengers were at once despatched for the neighbors, and the coroner was also summoned, who, on learning the particulars of the case, did not consider an inquest necessary.

The funeral service, which took place in the Methodist Church here on Monday, was largely attended, and on every hand the most heartfelt sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing relatives who have been in so melancholy and tragic a manner bereft of one of their loved ones.

Always keep West's Cough Syrup in the house for sudden attacks of cold, asthma and all throat and lung diseases. Best in use. All druggists.

For whatever spiritual good has been derived through the revival services we give God the glory, and will ever pray that those who have received Christ will be faithful witnesses of His power to save.
