CHICAGO CUBS WIN FROM THE TIGERS

Prendergast Beat H. Coveleski in Pitchers' Duel—Ty Cobb Does Some Sprinting.

The exhibition game between Chicago Cubs and Detroit Tigers had all the earmarks of real championship baseball. They played for 60 and 40 per cent. of the gate, and looked like it. The Cubs came from behind and won by 2 runs to 1. The afternoon was fine and ideal for the pastime, and the record crowd of 9,000 thoroly enjoyed the well-played contest. The rival teams sent two of their best men to the mound, Prendergast for the Cubbs and Harry Covaleskie for the Tigers. The Chicago twirler had a long margin in the duel. Detroit went ahead in the fourth inning after Cobb and Veach had been retired, when Heilmann, a right-hand hitter, slammed a liner to right-field that went into the bleachers from a bound for a home run. Chicago scored two in the sixth just after Manager Mitchell was presented with a wrist watch by His Worship Mayor Church. With two down Doyle doubled and Merkle and Williams followed with triples for two runs. Sam Crawford batted for Covaleskie in the eighth, and Jones went in and finished the game. To show the control the league umpires have in exhibition games Connolly chased Flack in the seventh innings for throwing his glove over his head at the official. This necessitated a change in the Cub line-up, Merkle going to left-field from first base and Mann moving from left to right field and Zeider from third to first base, and Deal was the new man in the game, going to third.

Ty Cobb was at his best. He received a great hand in coming to the plate in the first inning. He dropped an ordinary single in left-centre, and by his own incomparable running slide turned it into a two-base hit. He also poled a nice single thru the pitcher's box in the sixth, and attempted to steal, but was thrown out by ten feet.

First Inning.

Detroit—Bush bounced a slow one to Kilduff, who made a fast throw to Merkle to get the batter. Vitt lifted a fly to right. Cobb hit past shortstop for an ordinary single, but turned it into a double by a slide around second, the Doyle had the ball ahead of him and on the bag waiting for Cobb to slide. Veach was passed. Heilman fanned. One hit.

Chicago—Flack singled to left-centre, fast fielding by Cobb holding him to one base. Mann popped to second. Doyle lifted a fly to short. Merkle hit in front of the plate, and Yelle threw him out at first on a fast play. One hit.

Second Inning.

Detroit—Burns was safe at first on Kilduff's wild throw of his grounder, but was nailed trying to make second on the error, Merkle to Doyle. Young out to Merkle, unassisted. Yelle was thrown out by Zeider, who made a fine one-hand stop.

Chicago—Williams popped to Doyle. Kilduff bounced a slow one over the pitcher's head, but Bush came across fast from shortstop and cut him off at first on a brilliant pick up and fast throw. Zeider singled to left. Elliott forced Zeider at second on a grounder to short. One hit.

Third Inning.

Detroit—Covaleskie grounded to short. Bush popped to Zeider. Vitt out to Williams.

Chicago—Prendergast rolled to third. Flack bounced an easy one to Young. Mann was thrown out by Coveleskie on a slow hit ball to pitcher.

Tigers—Cobb was thrown out a mile by Kilduff. Veach popped to Doyle. Heilman hit one into the right field bleachers on the bounce for a home run. Merkle made a sensational running catch of Burns' foul near the right field area, catching the ball over his shoulder. 1 run, 1 hit.

Chicago—Doyle's line drive hit Covaleski on the pitching arm, but he recovered the ball and threw the batter out. Merkle was thrown out by Bush. Williams popped to Burns.

Fifth Inning.

Tigers—Young fanned. Yelle walked. Covaleski fanned. Bush bounced an easy one to Merkle.

Chicago—Kilduff grounded to short. Zeider singled to centre. Elliott also hit safely to left. Zeider being held at second. Prendergast hit into a fast double play, Bush to Young to Burns. Two hits.

Sixth Inning.

Tigers—Vitt grounded to short. Cobb singled over second. Veach out to Mann in deep left. Cobb out stealing, Elliott to Doyle. One hit.

Chicago—When the Cubs went in to bat in this inning. Manager Mitchell was presented with a wrist watch by Mayor Church on behalf of Toronto fans. Flack hit over second, and Bush made a sensational stop and threw him out at first on a very close decision. Mann bounced an easy one to pitcher. Doyle doubled down the right field foul line to the fence and scored on Merkle's lusty triple to right centre. Merkle scored on Williams' long drive to right, which hit the fence after Heilman lost it in the sun. Kilduff popped to Young. Two runs, three hits.

Seventh Inning.

Detroit—Flack was put out of the game by Umpire Connolly for disputing a decision, so the Cubs were shifted around. Merkle went to left field, Mann to right, Zeider to first base, and Deal to third base. Heilman and Burns were thrown out by Kilduff. Young walked. Deal fell as he fielded Yelle's hit, but threw the batter out by a step.

Chicago—Zeider was thrown out by Vitt. Elliott rolled to the pitcher. Prendergast bounced to short.

Eighth Inning.

Detroit—Sam Crawford, the veteran, got a great hand when he batted for Covaleski. He hit to Zeider, who beat him to the bag with the ball. Bush singled to right, but was thrown out trying to make third when the ball got away from Mann. Vitt lined out to Merkle in left. One hit, one error.

Chicago—Jones, a right-hander, now pitching for Detroit. Deal hit safely to centre and was forced at second by Mann, Young to Bush, on his grounder to second. Doyle hit into a double play, Young to Bush to Burns. One hit.

Ninth Inning.

Detroit—Cobb popped to Doyle. Veach grounded to short. Heilman rolled to second.

DUNNVILLE TOURNEY OPENS NEXT WEEK

Dunnville, Ont., Aug. 15.—The third annual tournament of the Dunnville Lawn Bowling Club will open at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 22, and a large entry list is anticipated. This year there are to be three competitions in addition to the Dunnville and Grand River trophies now held by Hamilton and Brantford clubs respectively. Mr. F. R. Lalor, M. P., has donated a third trophy, which is by far the most handsome and valuable put up for competition at any tournament in Canada. This trophy, which stands three feet high and cost $300, is to become the property of the club whose members win it most times in ten years. In case of a tie at the end of the ten years period play for it will continue until the tie is broken. Besides the trophies valuable prizes are provided for the winners and runners-up in each competition. A Scotch doubles competition will also be held for a trophy and suitable prizes. The Dunnville club, since last season, has acquired property adjoining that previously occupied by it, and has laid it out so as to provide ample green accommodation for the many rinks that are expected to come here and make an effort to carry off the Lalor and other trophies.

ERNIE SHORE JOINS UNITED STATES NAVY

Philadelphia, Aug. 15.—Ernie Shore, of the Boston Americans, who pitched a perfect game this year, left the team today for Boston with the announced intention of consulting with United States army officers. Manager Barry said that Shore had promised to report to him at Cleveland this week, but that he understood the pitcher intended to enlist in the army. In this case Barry said it would seriously affect his team's chance in the race for the American League pennant, as he was counting on Shore to win many games before the finish of the season.

Boston, Aug. 15.—Ernest Shore enrolled in the United States Naval Reserve as a Class 4 seaman today. He will be assigned to duty later.
