Market Notes.

James Ross of Tilbury, one of the best-known men amongst the cattle dealers of Western Ontario, is dead. Mr. Ross had been in poor health for over a year. His many friends had hoped that he would recover, but, having caught a severe cold recently, he collapsed, and death came suddenly at the last. Mr. Ross took an active part in politics and was for many years reeve of his township.

Toronto University Orchestra.

One of the features of the first concert of the season to be given by the University of Toronto Orchestra, in Convocation Hall, on Wednesday, Dec. 8, will be the production of Emil Waldteufel's Reves de Bois. Mr. Graham, of the faculty of arts, a pupil of Dr. Torrington, has been appointed concert master.

Lightning Starts Big Oil Fire.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Nov. 9.—Lightning set fire to the Gulf Refining Co.'s 55,000 barrel tank of naphtha at Port Arthur. Another bolt of lightning set nine of the oil tanks of the Texas company on fire near Beaumont. They held about 325,000 barrels of crude oil. The total loss will reach $500,000. Six hundred employes worked thruout the night throwing up embankments to prevent the flaming oil from spreading over the fields.
