FARMERS' INSTITUTES.

Two Meetings Held by the East Middlesex Organization.

AT ILDERTON.

ILDERTON, Ont., Jan. 15.—A meeting of the East Middlesex Farmers' Institute was held here on Jan. 13 and 14. On Jan. 13 a paper was read by T. B. Scott, local farmer, on wheat growing; Mr. A. E. Shuttleworth gave an excellent address on the practical feeding of live stock, and Mr. W. L. Carlyle on general mixed farming, with particular reference to dairying. At the evening session an address was given by C. H. Simmons. Mr. D. McRae read a paper on "Direct taxation as it would affect the farmers." Music, vocal and instrumental, was interspersed by Miss Telfer and others.

At the morning session, held on the 14th, a paper was read by C. H. Simmons on "Clean Cultivation;" on "Cross breeding for beef and mutton," by D. McRae. In the afternoon a paper was read by W. L. Carlyle, on "Hog raising, where and under what circumstances it can be made to pay in this Province," a subject which is particularly interesting to the farmers of this section. An address was given by A. B. Scott on breeding heavy draft horses. The several addresses drew forth considerable discussion, and a lively interest was manifested. There was a fair attendance considering the weather, all being pleased with the results of the meeting.

AT SHEDDEN.

SHEDDEN, Ont., Jan. 16.—The annual meeting of the Farmers' Institute of West Elgin was held here Jan. 14. The Hon. G. R. Drury, ex-Minister of Agriculture, was present and delivered two excellent addresses. The subject for the afternoon session being "Stock Raising," the different kinds of stock and manner of feeding was very ably discussed. The embargo on Canadian cattle was referred to, the majority present thinking the restrictions will benefit the Canadian trade. The subject for the evening session was "Farming as an Occupation." This subject was well handled by Hon. Mr. Drury. The farmers' sons were given a few fine illustrations on the different professions and their success or failure in the large cities. Mr. Drury considers the farmer's life the most healthy, happy and most independent life of all the industries, and brought strong argument to prove this theory. The meeting was largely attended and great interest was shown by the farming community. The meeting closed at a late hour, and a stronger feeling of contentment was manifest.

EPPS'S COCOA—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING —"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage, which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—[Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets, labeled—"JAMES EPPS & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, London, Eng. zyx

No man ever offended his own conscience but first or last it was revenged on him for doing it.

Why will you allow a cough to lacerate your throat or lungs and run the risk of filling a consumptive's grave, when by the timely use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive syrup the pain can be allayed and the danger avoided? This Syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing all affections of the throat and lungs, coughs, colds, bronchitis' etc.

Adversity is the trial of principle; without it a man hardly knows whether he is honest or not.

Untold Misery—What a Well-Known Commercial Traveler Suffered, and How He Was Cured.—Gentlemen,—About five years ago I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time traveling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but all to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine, and when the third bottle was finished I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of dyspepsia. (Signed.) T. S. McINTEE. 4

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT APPLICATION will be made by the Corporation of the City of London to the Parliament of Canada, at its next session, for an act to authorize the leasing of the London and Port Stanley Railway to an individual or individuals, or to a company, and for other purposes.

Dated at London this fourteenth day of December, A. D. 1892.

4ia s C. A. KINGSTON, City Clerk.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT application will be made by the Corporation of the City of London to the Legislature of Ontario at its next session: 1. LONDON, CANADA.

London and suburbs have a population of 35,000 persons.

London is situated in the garden of Canada, midway between the Niagara and the Detroit Rivers.

London is the center of nine different lines of railway, giving easy access to the whole continent, and to the lakes and seaboard.

London has direct connection with the three great Canadian lines of railway—the Grand Trunk, the Canadian Pacific, and the Michigan Central.

London controls a line of railway from the city to Port Stanley, on Lake Erie.

Each day more trains arrive at and depart from London than arrive at and depart from any other Canadian city in the same time.

London's public water supply is obtained from never-failing pure springs four miles from the city. Their yield is practically unlimited. London has the best drinking water on the continent.

London is an excellent health resort, as it has a lower death rate than any city of its size on the continent, and it has magnificent white sulphur baths within its limits.

London has 1 opera house and 4 public halls.

London has 13 public schools (and a number are under contract), not including kindergartens; 3 R. C. separate schools, 2 ladies' colleges, and 1 collegiate institute.

London has 1 university and 1 medical School.

London has a Conservatory of Music and a School of Elocution.

London has 2 public libraries.

London is an excellent center for manufacturing and commercial enterprises. There are already established wholesale houses for groceries, hardware, drygoods, small wares, boots and shoes, drugs, crockeryware, etc. There are one or more manufactories of furniture, engines, boilers, stoves, furnaces, iron and brass foundries, carriages, burial caskets, agricultural implements, stamped tinware, railway cars, oil refining, leather, barrels, machine tools, clothing, cigars, office and school furniture, biscuits and confectionery, mirrors and beveled plate-glass, corsets, furs, beer, washing compounds, acids, woodwork of every description, etc.

London has two daily newspapers (morning and evening editions).

London has two public parks.

London has six banks and eight loan and investment associations.

London has six charitable institutions, two hospitals and seven public buildings.

London has a good street railway, which will be much extended in the next year.

London's rate of taxation is 18 mills, which includes all school rates, etc.

London's civic assets are $2,547,798 34, and the balance of assets over all liabilities is $422,861 19. The total assessment is $15,333,097.

London has 44 churches, almost every religious denomination of any importance being represented.

London has an excellent Entomological Society and exhibition, and some of the ablest entomologists to be found in Canada.

London has markets three times weekly, the best in the west. The great Western Fair is held for ten days in September.

Further particulars about the city may be obtained by applying to the mayor, the city clerk, the secretary of the Board of Trade, or the ADVERTISER.

AN OBLIGATORY REFERENDUM.

[From the Canada Farmer's Sun.]

Zurich furnishes the example of the cantons having the obligatory referendum. There the law provides: 1. That all laws, decrees and changes in the constitution must be submitted to the people. 2. That all decisions of the grand council on existing law must be voted on. 3. That the grand council may submit decisions which it itself proposes to make, and that besides the voting on the whole law, the council may ask a vote on a special point. The grand council cannot put in force provisionally any law or decree. The propositions must be sent to the voters at least 30 days before voting. The regular referendary ballotings take place twice a year, spring and autumn, but in urgent cases the grand council may call for a special election. The law in this canton assists the lawmakers—the voters—in their task; when a citizen is casting his own vote he may also deposit that of one or two relatives and friends, upon presenting their electoral card or a certificate of authorization.

In effect, the obligatory referendum makes of the entire citizenship a deliberative body in perpetual session—this end being accomplished in Zurich in the face of every form of opposing argument. Formerly, its adversaries made much of the fact that it was ever calling the voters to the urns; but this is now avoided by the semi-annual elections. It was once feared that party tickets would be voted without regard to the merits of the various measures submitted; but it has been proved beyond doubt that the fate of one proposition has no effect whatever on that of another decided at the same time. Zurich has pronounced on 91 laws in 28 elections, the votes indicating surprising independence of judgment. When the obligatory form was proposed for Zurich, its supporters declared it a sure instrument, but that it might prove a costly one they were not prepared by experiment to deny. Now, however, they have the data to show that taxes—unfailing reflexes of public expenditure—are lower than ever, those for police, for example, being only about half those of optional Geneva, a less populous canton. To the prophets who foresaw endless partisan strife in case the referendum was to be called in force on every measure, Zurich has replied by reducing partisanship to its feeblest point, the people indifferent to parties since an honest vote of the whole body of citizens must be the final issue of every question.

The people of Zurich have proved that the science of politics is simple. By refusing special legislation, they evade a flood of bills. By deeming appropriations once revised as in most part necessary, they pay attention chiefly to new items. By establishing principles in law they forbid violations. Thus there remain no prefound problems of State, no abstruse questions as to authorities, no conflict as to what is the law. Word fresh from the people is law.

Trying to Tangle Him.

She—I want you to answer me one question, and then I shall feel sure of you.

He—What is it, darling?

She—If you knew that I loved you as much as you do me, would you love me as much as I do you?

The National Medical Association awarded a gold and jeweled medal to Dr. W. H. Parker for the best essay on Nervous and Physical Debility, Exhausted Vitality, etc. The title of this essay is the "Science of Life." The medal was fairly won and worthily bestowed. "The Science of Life" is advertised in to-day's paper.

CAPE BRETON'S COLLIERIES

Captured by a Syndicate of United States Capitalists.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 15.—The Provincial Legislature has been called to meet next Thursday for the purpose of sanctioning the sale to H. M. Whitney, of Boston, and other United States speculators, representing a capital of $17,000,000, of the Cape Breton collieries.

Mr. Whitney is a brother of ex-Secretary Whitney, of the late Cleveland Cabinet, and his scheme is said to be the outcome of the combination of anthracite coal carriers in February, 1892, and the anthracite men are believed to be backing the new deal to protect themselves against the competition of Nova Scotia coal in the event of the Democrats abolishing the coal duties.

THE GOVERNOR'S TOUR.

Lord Stanley Makes a Tour of Inspection at Brantford.

BRANTFORD, Jan. 15.—About 9:30 yesterday morning Lord Stanley was taken on a tour of inspection through the city, visiting the various industrial establishments and the Mohawk school and church. After lunch the party proceeded to the Ontario Institute for the Blind, where they were received and welcomed by Principal Dymond, after which they went to the Brantford Young Ladies' College (Presbyterian), where his Excellency was received by Rev. Dr. Cochrane. On entering the college drawing-room the young ladies greeted the Governor by singing "God Save the Queen." Rev. Dr. Cochrane, on behalf of the directors in a neat speech, welcomed Lord Stanley to the college. His Excellency replied, and afterward presented the Dufferin Medal to Miss Grace McIntosh, of Vancouver, B. C., who was the successful competitor in the university matriculation examination. The governess and teachers were then presented to his Excellency, the young ladies singing "The Maple Leaf for Ever." The party then proceeded to the station, and his Excellency left on the 4 o'clock train for the east.

PERSECUTION IN RUSSIA.

[From the Toronto Mail.]

The dreadful and harrowing accounts of the persecution of the Stundists—the Russian Protestants—add another black item to the portentous ledger account which the world is keeping against the Czar and his cold-blooded aristocrats. If the beliefs of the world are true a record is being kept elsewhere, and the cup of Heaven's vengeance against the ruthless domination cannot be long withheld. This persecution is all of a piece with that of the Jews, which began nearly two years ago, when, without charge of disloyalty, for no reason except a bitter popular hatred, the Russian Government decided as a matter of paramount State policy, on the expulsion of the whole of its Jewish subjects—that is of five millions of souls, men, women and children. These unhappy people were driven out of the cities into the villages, out of the villages into the western towns, to be huddled and starved and tormented until they welcomed the final decree which drove them across the frontier, even if the people to whom they were sent were inclined to consider them as bandits and thieves. It must by no means be considered that the Jews who were thus expelled and are being expelled now were all of them of the low class from which doubtful immigrants come. Many of them were persons of education and refinement. Recent information shows that of all the people in Russia the Jews were among those who took the greatest interest in education. When Alexander II. succeeded Nicholas, the Jews had their brightest day, and they took advantage of it by sending their sons to school wherever it was possible by labor and self-denial to get the needful money together. But with the pious Pobiedonostseff rose to power he managed, in the excess of his religious zeal, to get an edict passed whereby only a small percentage of Jewish boys were allowed to go to school. The Jews then petitioned to be permitted to build schools of their own. In a few instances they were allowed to do so. A technical institution and a mining school were built, rich foreign Jews coming to their rescue. But when they were opened the Government compelled their managers to admit nine Christian youths in one case and nineteen in the other for every Jewish pupil. How this kind of treatment ultimately culminated in unspeakable tragedies everyone knows.

Work This Out.

If experience makes fools wise, the man who is not made wise by experience cannot be a fool, and yet if he is not wise he must be a fool.

"When you go to bed think it is time to get up, and I guess you'll want to go to sleep."

Unanimity of Opinion.

It occurred at a London theater only Friday night, but we will not give the name of the actress. The author had unkind allotted to her in her part the line:

"Oh, how I wish I could act in this dilemma!

And the celerity with which a gentleman in the gallery responded, "And 'ow I wishes you could act, too!" insured to even greater celerity with which he left that theater for the Strand.

A Cold Day.

The best method to resolve doubt into certainty, if any such doubt exists as to the efficacy of St. Jacobs Oil, is to use it and be convinced. A cold day is a good day for experiment upon any form of pain, and for such St. Jacobs Oil has no equal.
