EDUCATION.

THE School for the Education of Young Ladies, Queen's Square, conducted by Miss FOULIS, will re-open after the Easter recess, on Wednesday the 14th instant.

As the Spring period is the most advantageous for the introduction of new pupils, Miss F. will be happy to receive, during the present month, a few Young Ladies, to fill up the vacancies which usually occur in her classes during winter.

The success which has attended her endeavors as a Teacher during the last Ten Years, it is hoped, affords sufficient evidence of the efficiency of her system of imparting instruction.

Pupils are allowed, as heretofore, to make up the time lost by School vacations or serious illness, at the end of each Term, without additional charge.
April 10th, 1852.
