FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ST. GEORGE

St. George, July 31—The Lord's Cove Dramatic Club gave an interesting and pleasing presentation of the drama "Valley Farm" on Friday evening last. The proceeds were for patriotic purposes and the large hall was filled to overflowing.

The company was under the management of F. C. Lord and the acting of Misses Kathleen O'Halleron, Hazel Dines, Kate Stuart, Rhoda Stickney and Jenny Adams and Harriet McLaughlin together with the support given them by Messrs. Pendelton, Stuart, Morany and Trecartin proved entertaining and was fully appreciated by the large audience present.

The party came from Lords Cove by motorboat returning after the performance.

The Upper Bridge, on the main line of travel, from St. John to St. Stephen, is undergoing repairs. Automobiles are obliged to use the bridge below the Falls.

Atmospheric conditions on Sunday gave rise to many startling stories. Green grass was blue, and houses green, the water was a peculiar color and whispers traveled fast. Parties crossing the bay and about the shore were bothered with afflicted eyes and many were terrified. Old residents say in '55 during the Siege of Sebastapol the same curious conditions prevailed—one summer's day.

The baseball team of boys went to Milltown on Friday last and played a border team—the score was 7 to 2 in favor of the home team. The players had a good trip and enjoyed themselves. Lieut. Roy McKay, of the 195th Highlanders, Nova Scotia, and Everett McKay, of the N. B. Telephone drafting staff, St. John, spent the week-end at home.

Miss A. Spencer, trained nurse, is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Spencer.

Miss Helen McMillan, of the post office staff is visiting relatives at the border towns, Miss Julia McMillan taking her place in the office.

Mrs. C. C. Reynolds, St. John, who has been the guest of Miss Etta Maxhall, returned to her home yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Murphy and children are visiting Calais and Red Beach.

Miss Minnie Parks left for Norwalk yesterday.

The rapid rise of water in the river Friday last caused a break in the boom of logs in the main river and many went through the canal into the lake.

Messrs. Patterson and White will finish sawing for the pulp company this week.

C. H. Lynott, of the preventive service, left Monday for Montreal.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, July 30—At the annual meeting of the Women's Institute of Albert held at the home of Mrs. T. Jones there were fifteen present, ten of whom answered the roll call by paying their dues for the next year. By unanimous vote Mrs. H. D. Cleveland was re-elected president and Mrs. I. C. Prescott, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Ennis Williamson was elected 1st vice-president, and Mrs. Emma Smith, 2nd; directors, Miss Jones, Mrs. Beaumont, Mrs. Crocker; auditors, Miss Bray and Mrs. A. T. Downing; finance committee, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Porter and Mrs. C. Williamson; entertainment committee, Mrs. Gideon Prescott, Mrs. Ople, Miss Mildred Murray, Miss Jennie Prescott and Miss Lillian Barbour. Mrs. Cleveland, the president, was elected delegate to the convention to be held at Fredericton in October and Mrs. Crocker, substitute. It was decided that the collections taken at the weekly meetings to help purchase a fire engine for the village be discontinued until a public meeting could be arranged and all property owners invited to help.

Music lovers will have an opportunity to enjoy a treat on Friday evening, Aug. 4, the second anniversary of the declaration of war, when W. T. Morgan, known as "the Welsh tenor," who is filling the pulpit of the Presbyterian church during the summer vacation, will give a recital in the Riverside hall, the proceeds to go wholly towards patriotic purposes. Mr. Morgan possesses in a high degree the musical talent so characteristic of his race, with a beautifully trained voice, and this, coupled with the worthy cause for which the recital is arranged, is likely to ensure a large attendance. Mr. Morgan's kindness and deep interest in patriotic work here is much appreciated.

The women of the Patriotic League of the Hill gave a nice entertainment in the hall last evening. The programme, which was all too short, included solos by Miss Mary Russell, Mrs. A. H. Peck, Mrs. Peacock, of Fredericton, and Mr. Morgan, and readings by Miss Lynds, of the provincial normal school staff, and Miss Ella Rogers. Miss Ada Russell, president of the league, presided. The accompanists of the evening were Mrs. A. H. Peck, Mrs. J. E. M. Carnwath and Miss Celia Peck. After the programme and the singing of the national anthem, refreshments were sold, the sum of $26 being realised.

Wm. H. McRae left on Friday to visit his sisters in Lubec (Me.) and afterwards will proceed to Boston, the date of his return being indefinite as he is thinking some of locating in the States. Mr. McRae has been a good citizen and his friends hope he may decide to return.

Walker Perry, who has been living in Vancouver (B. C.), is visiting relatives at Albert.

Mrs. H. L. Brewster returned to Moncton yesterday after spending a few weeks with friends here and at Hillsboro.

F. G. Moore returned on Saturday from Moncton, where he was attending the semi-annual session of the Grand Division, S. of T.

R. C. Smith has been spending some days with relatives in Moncton, going up on Thursday.

Mrs. McLatchy, wife of Rev. E. B. Mcatchy, MoLacton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Russell.

Miss Nellie Rogers, B. A., has been offered and has accepted the principalship of an intermediate school in Minto (Man.), and expects to leave for that place early next month.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford, of Midway, Albert county, received the sad intelligence last week of the death of their daughter, Leoline, a teacher in western Canada. Miss Crawford has been teaching in the west about two years, and succumbed to an attack of diphtheria. The body was not brought home owing to the infectious nature of the disease. The deceased young lady was held in high esteem. Besides her parents, she is survived by a large number of brothers and sisters, one of the latter being Mrs. Trueman Stevens, of Memel. Two brothers are with one of the Canadian battalions now training for overseas.

Hopewell Hill, July 31—A recent issue of a Vancouver paper has the following item, of interest to Albert county readers, containing as it does, reference to former well known residents of this country. The article says: Mr. and Mrs. John Kyle, of 1554 Sixth avenue west, yesterday received many letters and telegrams from friends in various parts of Canada, congratulating them upon having reached the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. Kyle, who is a native of County Fermanagh, Ireland, came to New Brunswick with his parents, when seven years of age, and on July 10, 1866, was married at Albert to Miss Mary Woodworth of the same place, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. Robert Wilson, who was a life-long friend of Mr. and Mrs. Kyle, and who baptized their ten children. Mr. Kyle, after his marriage, engaged in business in Gibson, where he lived until the time of the big fire, which destroyed that town. He and his family have been worthy citizens of Vancouver for the past fourteen years. Six children are living: D. W. Kyle, of Moncton (N. B.); G. E. and L. C. Kyle, of Vancouver; J. Albert Kyle, of Victoria, and Misses M. E. and Hazel Kyle, who live with their parents. There are nine grandchildren, two of whom are serving on the battlefields of Europe—namely, John J. Kyle, of Moncton, who went overseas with the first contingent, and L. E. Kyle, who went with the Canadian Field Engineers from North Vancouver. In honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of the esteemed couple, all of the members of the family near, enjoyed a reunion in the form of a picnic.

Mr. Kyle, mentioned above, is well remembered by the older residents of Hopewell, where he lived as a boy. His wife is a member of the well known Woodworth family, whose homestead was near this village, and has yet many relatives here. Albert county friends will extend hearty congratulations to the respected couple and wish them still many years of life and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop, of St. Paul (Minn.), are visiting the former's relatives in this county. Mr. Bishop is a former Hopewell man and has been in the western states for upwards of thirty years. He is a brother of the late Judson Bishop, of Harvey, and Oliver Bishop, of Caledonia.

Isaac McRae, of Lincoln (Mass.), came to the village today to see his mother, who has been critically ill for some months. Mrs. McRae has twelve of a family, seven sons and fire daughters, scattered over different parts of the province and New England States, and all of them have been at her bedside, during her illness.

G. Moody Reid, of Albert, who suffered a paralytic attack some weeks ago, is reported gradually, though slowly improving, and is now able to sit up part of the time.

H. B. Peck, of St. John, visited his former home here this week.
