IT'S NO SECRET

That our Rightly made Clothing is Economical for any Man or Boy to wear is a fact. The dollars it costs divided by the months, it wears shows the actual worth. When you come right down to the wearing value of a garment saying nothing about the Style or fit, which our garments Possess. Some unscrupulous competitors are fond of calling us High-Priced and of comparing their prices for their kind of clothing with the Prices we ask for our kind. If you make a ratio of Prices to the quality our Prices are the Lowest every time.

We are building up a business on Rightly-made Clothing and Gents' Furnishings and the rapid growth of our business, has been phenomenal, and to keep pace with this growth, we shall open the fall trade with the finest line of Ready-Made Clothing and Gents' Furnishings ever brought into Brockville.

Mrs. Clarissa Moles, for many years a resident of this village died at her residence church St. this morning. Funeral to-morrow at 10 a.m. to Lansdowne Church.

Lyndhurst fair appears to be a popular institution with Athenians, as every available rig in town was pressed into service to convey visitors there on Friday last.

Mr. Robt. Poole, of Poole's Summer Resort, favored us with a call on Friday last. Business at the Resort during the past season has been good, and Mr. Poole is taking a well-earned holiday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church, Athens, will hold their annual anniversary services and tea on Sunday and Monday Oct. 18th and 19th. Bills will be issued in a few days giving full particulars.

Mrs. Owen in returning thanks for the very liberal patronage that she has received from the ladies of Athens wishes to intimate to her old customers and the public generally that after the first of Oct. her charge will be one dollar per day.

On Saturday night a valuable horse in the livery stable of N C Williams was taken seriously ill, and for a time its life was despaired of. But Dr. Johnston was called in and under his skillful treatment the animal was brought around all right. Mr. Williams, himself an experienced horseman, feels safe in recommending Dr. Johnston as a skilled veterinary.

Dr. Harte and Fred Pierce, the well known landlord of the Gamble House, are earning for themselves reputations as first-class wedding witnesses. When timid grooms and blushing brides arrive within the environs of this classic village on business intent, almost the first questions asked are "Is Dr. Harte at home?" or "Can you go with us, Mr. Pierce?" Of course, these gentlemen are always ready and willing to see their friends through this trying ordeal, and having had experience of their own as well as having witnessed numerous happy events of the kind, they are like walking encyclopedias of marriage etiquette. Last week they officiated on two impromptu occasions.

Lyndhurst Fair.

Lyndhurst fair was the best this year that it has ever been. The hall was well filled with a first-class lot of exhibits while the show of cattle, sheep, swine, poultry was fully up to the average. The display of horses was good, and as the track was in good condition, this part of the show drew a large crowd. The principal attraction in the horse ring was for the prize of $15 offered by Jas. Berney, Esq., proprietor of the Berney House for trials of speed between colts 3 years old. Joseph Ganford received 1st, C. Haskins 2nd, and Wm. Davis 3rd. Everything passed off very agreeably and every one seemed satisfied with the Judges' decision. The only objection we heard expressed with the management was the number of fakirs allowed to ply their games on the grounds. Wheels of fortune, sweat boards, etc., were allowed full swing, and not a few lost a good portion of their hard earned dollars by being too confident in the ability to cheat those nimble fingered, glib tongued rascals at their own game. For it is a well known fact that all those fake games are now solely in favor of those manipulating the "masheen."

At the Presbyterian Sabbath school last Sabbath a song service was held, at which the pastor Rev. D Flemming, was present, and in the church in the evening a special service for the children was held.

No fewer than 109 election protests are on the docket for trial, 47 of them in Ontario, 35 in Quebec, 16 in Nova Scotia, and the othe 11 in New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Manitoba. In this province also 17 cross petitions have been filed.

The Messrs. Jones, of Brockville, hunted on Wiltse lake last week under the skillful guidance of Albert Morris. Hunters from a distance say that the ducks are not at Wiltse lake this fall; but, all the same, Messrs. Jacob, Morris, Smith and other local sportsmen have bagged a large number.

The weather of the past week has been simply torrid. The heat had a wonderfully revivifying effect on flies that had hung themselves up for the winter and these, added to those that had not yet gone out of business, have made it extremely uncomfortable for cattle.

The Auxiliary of the Missionary society will meet at Mrs. W. Taplin's on Thursday next. It is proposed to create a fund for expenditure at Fort Simpson, B. C.—the mission at which Dr. and Mrs. Bolton (nee Ella Blanchard) are located. Those who may be desirous of helping may send their contributions to Mrs. G. W. Beach.

One day last week Jas. Flynn, head miller in M. S. Denant's mill, Delta, dressed one run of stone and ground 65 bushels of grain in nine hours, and some of the grain was damp at that. Jimmy is small in stature but a hustler and gets there just the same as larger men. If any of our country millers can beat this let us hear from them.

Last spring the J. O. Wisner, Son & Co., agricultural implement manufacturers, of Brantford, Ont., offered a number of elegant prizes to the agents who would send in the greatest number of accepted orders for seeders during the season of 1891. The prizes were awarded at the Toronto Industrial, and Phil. Halladay, of Elgin, received the first prize, a fine gold watch, valued at $75, in competition with sixty-four other agents of the company. Phil values his prize highly and will take it along on his annual deer hunt this fall, to tell what time to wake the "b'hoys."

An Editor's Wail.

The editor of the Aylmer Times rises to remark: "It is strange how closely men read the papers. We never say anything that anybody doesn't like but we soon hear of it and everybody tells us of it. If, however, we once in a while happen to say a good thing we never hear of that; nobody seems to notice it. We may pay a hundred compliments and give him a hundred puffs, and he takes it as a tribute to his greatness and never thinks it does him any good. But if we happen to say something this man doesn't like, or something he imagines a reflection on his character, see how quickly he flares up and gets mad about it. All kinds of evils are charged to us, but we never, apparently, get any credit for what we do."

Obituary.

One of the oldest and most respected residents of Athens passed over to the great majority yesterday morning (Monday) in the person of Ira Judson, Esq. Mr. Judson was in his 84th year at the time of his death, and was born near Elbe Mills where he always resided up to about twelve years ago, when he sold his valuable property there and removed to this village where he spent the remainder of his days in quiet retirement. He was a natural-born mechanic, being able to do almost any kind of work in wood or iron as well as many a man who had spent a life-time in acquiring the trade. His upright character and genial manner made him a universal favorite with his acquaintances, and he was often pointed out to the young as one whose deeds they should try to emulate. It was the writer's privilege to have a close, personal acquaintance with him from boyhood, and he never in all that time had reason to change his first impression, that he was as near perfection as it was possible for mortal man to be. A good man has fallen by the wayside. Peace to his ashes.

Delta Fair.

For the past three or four months the managers of Delta fair have been working like Trojans to make their fair a great big success, and they have no reason to feel that their efforts have not been successful. The new hall is certainly the finest building for fair purposes in Central Canada. The only objection to the building is that the light in the second storey is not sufficient to have the goods show off to advantage. This can be easily remedied by placing a few sky-lights in the roof, which will no doubt be done before another exhibition. The amount of stuff exhibited in this building was simply immense; in fact, there was more than could be shown to advantage, and as a consequence large quantities were not properly examined and pronounced upon by the judges, although they took until after noon on the second day to finish up their awards. Considerable complaint was made by both exhibitors and visitors at the poor arrangements for stock. The animals were poorly provided with bedding and no arrangements seem to have been made to clean up the refuse around the stalls. Consequently the animals did not show off to advantage. There were 86 head of cattle on the ground. A. D. Delong and P. K. Hill exhibited some fine Jerseys. Mr. Delong has a yearling heifer which he values at $125. Wm. Neilson & Son, Lyn, exhibited their herd of Galloways, which drew many admirers to that part of the grounds. H. E. Eyre had a fine lot of Ayrshires. Of sheep and swine the numbers on the ground were 122 and 27 respectively. Competent and unbiassed judges unhesitatingly state that the stock in no way compared with that exhibited at Unionville, either in quantity or quality, while the poultry was simply nowhere. The few coops of poultry shown were placed in the building used by the secretary and as a ticket office, and created a very unfavorable impression on those visiting that building. The races on the first day are said to have been spirited, but through some unaccounted for reason the races advertised to take place on the last day did not materialize, and there was a lot of kicking among the horsemen and a large portion of the visitors, who, having nothing to interest them on the grounds, mostly left before five o'clock.

MONDAY, Sept. 28.—Mr. G Duncan was the guest of Miss Cassie McDonald on Sunday.

Mr. John Murphy has become a citizen and is at present boarding at the Taylor House.

J Malcolm Monahon of Galveston, Texas, arrived home on Friday night. John generally makes it a point to visit the scenes of his boyhood about fair time and although he has made his pile, he can be approached quite as easily as in days of yore when he whistled the "Blackberry Blossom" for the amusement of his numerous pals congregated about the corner of Levi's tent. When the fair is over he will take his departure for Salt Lake City.

J R Wight of the Ottawa House who has been ill for some time is recovering.

Wednesday and Thursday next the great Kitley Fair will be held at Frankville, and already parties are being made up to attend. Everybody goes, because everybody has a good time at the annual assemblage of the Kitley Bleus. This year an unusually attractive programme of amusements has been arranged. It goes without saying that there will be a lot of fine horses and some good speeding on the track. In addition there will be a hurdle race, sack race, wheelbarrow race, etc. Lots of fun going on all the time. Wednesday and Thursday next, Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st.

Brockville Cheese Board

Special to Reporter.

ASHWOOD HALL, Sept. 24, 1891.

To-day we had the usual large attendance of gentlemen interested in cheese. The market was not what salesmen had looked forward to. That keen competition which characterized the market for a few weeks past was not displayed. Prices were slightly off what was freely paid a week ago.

The offerings were, white, 4,130; colored, 1,685; a total of 5,815 boxes. Sales made were, white, 1,407 at 10½c., 170 at 10 3/16c.; colored, 910 at 10½c., 300 10 3/16c. It is quite possible that with the few who would sell after the closing of the board that about half of the offerings would change hands.

Special cable report quoted cheese at 45 and 46 shillings on Liverpool market. The position of the cheese market is very much like that of last season, price paid to-day being just the same. There was, however, more cheese sold than then.

There is a serious shrinkage in milk, pastures being very short. The careful farmer is allowing the cow to get her living as best she can, with plenty of grain in the barn and corn in the field. She should have a full supply of choice food and water, especially so, when the milk is worth a cent per lb.
