RAILWAY MAIL CLERKS

Banqueted by the Brethren of the London Division.

The Annual Convention in London—List of Delegates—The Toasts and Replies—Cold Water the Beverage.

The fifth annual convention of railway mail clerks in Canada was held in the Foresters' Hall Tuesday and Wednesday. Tuesday evening the delegates were entertained to a banquet at the Grigg House by the members of the London division and their friends.

Those present were: D. W. Blackwell, London; Wm. H. Skinner, London; R. P. Wright, London; S. Houston, Ottawa; A. C. McKenzie, Barrie; J. E. McLeod, Toronto; J. D. Anderson, Montreal; W. Richardson, Toronto; Geo. F. Burns, Toronto; J. W. McLaren, London; Dr. Roome, M.P., London; E. T. Essery, mayor, London; B. G. McWhinney, London; A. B. Munson, London; D. J. Batzner, London; J. Houston, London; Capt. Kerr, London; J. Treleaven, London; W. D. Tye, Goderich; H. E. Hudon, Quebec; F. D. Sharman, Wiarton; S. R. Jack, St. John, N.B.

After the edibles had been "sorted" by the practiced hands of the clerks and their friends, the chairman, Mr. James McLaren, read letters of apology from W. R. Meredith, M.P.P., Geo. Moncrieff, M.P., Joseph H. Marshall, M.P., Chas. S. Hyman, M.P., Inspector R. W. Barker, Inspector Barwick, Toronto; Deputy Inspector G. A. Burnam, Toronto; Chief Clerk C. J. H. Winstanley, Toronto; Wm. Gibson, M.P., Ingersoll; Dr. Beemer and Conductors E. G. Reynolds, Hastings, Furness, Crawford and Poole.

The attendance of clerks of the London division was not large, duty preventing their taking part. The toasts were drunk in pure, sparkling Springbank water.

THE TOAST LIST.

"The Queen" was honored by the assemblage rising and singing the National Anthem.

"The Dominion Government was coupled with the name of Dr. Roome, M.P. The doctor said Canada's postal system was the best in the world, and with her endless resources she was bound to go ahead and prosper. He entered into figures, favorably comparing the system at federation—when there were only 3,500 postoffices—with the present, when 8,300 are in existence.

A capital song from Mr. W. H. Skinner followed.

"Our Forest City," "the place we love so well," said the chairman in proposing the toast. To it was coupled the names of Mayor Essery and D. W. Blackwell. The mayor extolled the city, its pretty surroundings and its incomparable water. School Trustee D. W. Blackwell also had some words of love for the beauty of the city. He lauded her school system that attended to the mental hunger of over 5,000 children, many of whom passed to the high school at the early age of 12 years. He advised all present with children to move to London and get the benefit of their splendid schools.

"Our Railways" was responded to by Mr. J. Houston and Mr. D. J. Batzner. Both made short and happy speeches, and were vigorously applauded.

"The Postoffice Department" was honored with the name of Mr. A. G. McWhinney, chief railway mail clerk of the London division. Mr. McWhinney's experience with the system is a wide one, extending over 37 years. He referred to the hardships and vicissitudes of the railway clerk's life, which, he claimed, entitled them to much more consideration than they receive either at the hands of the public or the Government. Canada had taught her railway postoffice system to the United States and also the money order system, and not vice-versa, as was generally understood.

"The Gentlemen Who Look After Our Comforts" was the name of the toast that brought Capt. Kerr, superintendent G. T. R. car shops, and Mr. J. Treleaven, foreman of the down-town repair shops, to their feet. The former had found some difficulty in fixing a car to suit any two clerks, but when he had only to deal with one at a time he could generally strike a happy medium. Mr. Treleaven had a bone to pick with one of the clerks, but as he was not present that lucky clerk had his bones untouched as yet. Some clerks were always too hot or too cold, he said. The internal arrangements built for one would not suit another, but taken all around, the railway mail clerks were a jovial, social lot of men.

Mr. W. H. Skinner favored the company with a song.

"Our Delegate Guests" was coupled with the names of Messrs. Anderson, Montreal; Jack, St. John, N. B., and McLeod, Toronto. Mr. Anderson said that railway mail clerks were ever learning; they could never forget—for when they did forget they got a little note from the chief clerk. (Laughter.) It was Mr. Jacks' first visit to Ontario and to London, and he was loud in his praise of the grandeur and beauty of Western Ontario. Some reminiscent tales of queerly-addressed letters that are so annoying to mail clerks were told by Mr. McLeod, of Toronto.

"The Gentlemen Who Lay Us Out" was answered by Mr. A. B. Munson, train dispatcher, city. Railway mail clerks are laid out by others than undertakers. The dispatcher does it sometimes, and "lays them out" at side stations for an hour or so with dinner waiting half an hour's journey further on. Mr. Munson made a capital speech.

"The Ladies," or "The Friends of the Mail Clerks," was ably responded to by Messrs. W. Richardson, Toronto; A. C. Mackenzie, Barrie, and S. Houston, Ottawa.
