Pigeon Flying.

The Queen City Homing Club will have a race from Brockville, 208 miles, to-day. There will be nearly 30 birds entered by about 14 members, and no doubt this will prove one of the most interesting races of the season, as this distance is one that very few Toronto birds have flown from. Thirty-five birds were liberated at Kingston, June 2, at 11.30 a.m., and were reported early in the afternoon; over 30 are reported home to date. It is rumored that Mr. Tait of North Toronto, who is a member of the D.M.P.A., has offered to bet $5 that not one bird of the Queen Citys will return from Montreal. It will be covered immediately by one of the members, who believes that several birds will return.

Turf Gossip.

The largest horse in the world, King William, 27 1-2 hands high, weight 3024 pounds, died at Chesterton, Ind., Thursday night, while being shipped to Coney Island. Mr. Westlake, his owner, was offered $10,000 for him this week.

Horses in training, the property of Boyle & Littlefield, were sold at auction at the Morris Park track Thursday. The sale was brought about by a dissolution of partnership. The 24 head brought upwards of $30,000, most of the thoroughbreds being bought in by Mr. Boyle or Mr. Littlefield.

The probable starters for the Toboggan Slide Handicap to be run to-day at Morris Park are as follows: Dr. Hasbrouck 134, Stonenell 130, Dr. Rice 124, Sirrocco 120, Wah Jim 120, Correction 117, Glenmoyne 116, Merry Monarch 116, Helen Nichols 114, Derfargilla 110, Lizetta 110, Wernberg 104, Shelly Tuttle 102, Will Elliott, Lustre 100, Potentate 100, Stonenellie 97.

Daily America rules that Fireworks was not entitled to second money in the recent Red Coat race because the horse finished with a professional trainer on his back, which is against the new rules of the Steeplechase, Hunt and Pony Racing Association. Francis Trevelyan evidently was not aware that the O. J. C. steeplechases were not conducted under these rules, but under the old English regulations and the stewards were perfectly right in their decision.

It was reported in the city last night that the wife of J. G. Gaudaur had suddenly died yesterday. Everyone will sympathize with the champion in his sad loss.
