Toronto, Jan. 24. — Inquiries have been made from time to time as to whether the advances made to the Sault Ste. Marie companies on account of wages claims have been repaid. It is now learned that every dollar advanced has been repaid, and the Ontario Government is entirely relieved from its guarantee in connection with the wages claims.

What Is Anti-Pill?

A Somewhat Peculiar Name Explained—How Dr. Leonhardt Came to Call His Famous Prescription "Anti-Pill."

Dr. Leonhardt found in his practice that chronic constipation and its kindred complaints were the result of a dried-up condition of the mucous membrane lining of the stomach and bowels. He investigated further and found that this condition was invariably brought about by the use of cathartics, which all contain a certain amount of resinous matter.

After the first action of such medicines a resinous residue remains behind and this has a drying effect on the lining of the stomach and bowels.

He made up his mind to produce a medicine for all stomach and bowel derangements which would be entirely free from all resinous matter.

After much experiment he succeeded, and to emphasize the difference between his treatment and the old-fashioned treatments, he gave it the name "Anti-Pill."

Anti-Pill will cure dyspepsia, biliousness, or constipation perfectly and for ever—cure to stay cured—with no pill habit left to be overcome later.

SLAY ARISTOCRATS, WORKMEN'S CRY

Proclamation Calls for Death of Czar and Court.

STRIKE IS RAPIDLY SPREADING

Tens of Thousands Out at Moscow—Men of Other Cities Are Following Suit.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24. — 11:10 a.m. —The night was quiet. There are no signs of undue excitement this morning although thousands of workmen are strolling unrough the streets.

A number of Government printers resumed work this morning.

Moscow, Jan. 24. — 11:15 a.m. — The strike is spreading rapidly. All printing works have been stopped. No newspapers will be issued tomorrow. Thus far there have been no collisions with the police.

London, Jan. 24. — A dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg timed 12:21 p.m. today says: "Crowds of strikers are again concentrating on the Nevsky Prospect.

"The situation is so tense that many inhabitants of St. Petersburg are sending their wives and children to Helsingfors and elsewhere for safety.

"A meeting of 350 barristers and solicitors has passed a resolution of solidarity with the strikers, protesting against the action of the Government in provoking bloodshed, declining to plead in the courts, and deciding to open a subscription in aid of the propaganda."

A Bold Proclamation.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24. — 2 p.m. — St. Petersburg wears a less martial aspect today. Everywhere troops have been drawn into court yards. Only pickets are left outside, and small squads of Cossacks are patrolling the streets. The stores along the principal thoroughfares are mostly closed and barricaded.

The correspondent of the Associated Press drove up to the Nevsky Prospect, and with the help of daylight realized that the damage done to store fronts was more considerable than appeared last night. A large number of business premises were wrecked, the mob having devoted its attention principally to confectioners and pastrycooks.

Enormous crowds of strikers and many sightseers encouraged by the mild weather, were promenading the sidewalks this morning, and the street cars were again in operation. All is quiet up to this hour.

The correspondent of the Associated Press noticed several men distributing proclamations. The people were formerly shy of accepting such documents, but now they are eagerly accepting them, and have nicknamed them "Lastotcke" ("Swallows"), an allusion to the spring, which has become a synonym of evolution. The correspondent secured a number of copies — they are all signed by "The Russian Social Democratic Labor Party." One proclamation dated Jan 22 reads:

"Comrades: So long as autocracy exists no improvement in our condition is possible. Therefore we continue to inscribe on our banners the following demands:

"The immediate cessation of the war.

"The summoning of a constituent assembly of representatives of the people elected by universal and equal suffrage and direct, secret ballot.

"The removal of class and race privileges and restrictions.

"The inviolability of the person and domicile.

"Freedom of conscience, speech, the press, meetings, strikes and political operations."

"It was the Emperor, the grand dukes, the ministers, the generals, the nobles of the court. They are the murderers. Slay them.

"To arms, comrades. Seize the arsenals and the arms at the depots and at the gunsmiths. Lay low the prison walls. Liberate the defenders of freedom. Demolish the police and gendarmerie stations, and all the Government and state buildings.

"We must throw down the Emperor and the Government, and must have our own Government.

"Long live the revolution.

"Long live the constituent assembly of representatives of the people."

A third proclamation appeals to the people not to attempt to injure private propery.

A second proclamation, dated Jan. 23, says:

"The proletariat of all countries are united.

"Citizens, you yesterday witnessed the bestial cruelty of the autocratic Government. You saw blood flowing in the streets. You saw hundreds slaughtered, defenders of the cause of labor. You saw the death and heard the groans of the wounded women and defenseless children. The blood and brains of workingmen were spattered around where their heads had been laid.

"Who directed the soldiers to aim their rifles and fire bullets at the breasts of the laborers?"

Kovno Joins Strike.

Kovno, Russia, Jan. 24. — Work has been stopped at all the factories and railroads here.

Kovno is the capital of a Russian government of that name and has about 500,000 inhabitants.

Moscow, Jan. 24. — Employes of the Bachrushin, Michailoff, Linder and Schraeder factories have joined in the strike.

Moscow, Jan. 24. — Employes of the tanneries who are out on strike remain quiet.

The police have ordered all arms to be removed from the windows of the gunsmiths. A majority of them have closed their shops.

The strikers here at noon today totaled ten thousand.

Moscow, Jan. 24. — A body of strikers at noon today forced their way into the works of the firm of Hopper and compelled 500 men to join the strike. Simultaneously factories and other works were closed throughout the districts adjoining Daniloff street.

Vilna, Russia, Jan. 24.—A strike has commenced here. The town is quiet.

No Fighting Monday.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24. — An official account of yesterday's events is as follows: During Monday there was no collision between the rioters and the trops. Detachments of soldiers had no need to use their arms, as the crowds dispersed when the troops appeared. In the course of the day an attempt was made to attack Gostinny Dvor market, but it was repulsed.

Workmen at the electric stations joined the strike in the evening, then some groups, taking advantage of the darkness, began to break windows in the shops; but order was everywhere quickly restored. No person was killed or wounded on Monday. The exact number killed Sunday was 96, wounded 333, of whom 53 were treated at the ambulance station.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23. — General Prince Vasilchikoff, commander of the guards, has not yet announced the stringent rules usually accompanying a state of siege, such as forbidding persons to leave their houses after 10 p.m. without special passes, and the extinction of all lights in private houses, after that hour. The authorities evidently are still confident that they have the situation well in hand.

There is no confirmation of the report that the Emperor, the Empress and their children are going to Copenhagen, or on the other hand that the Emperor has decided
