VANCOUVER TERRORIZED.

Highwaymen, Burglars and Firebugs Overrun the City.

Vancouver, B.C., Dec. 28.—Citizens of Vancouver are terrorized by the visit of a gang of highwaymen, burglars and firebugs, who have found their way to the city by way of the sound. People are held up and robbed at all hours of the night. For three successive nights, under cover of a fog, the thieves have set fire to crowded wooden buildings in the business portions of the city. Prompt action by the firemen has prevented the city from being destroyed by fire as it was eight years ago.

Jersey Breeders Meet.

A meeting of Jersey cattle breeders was held at the Albion Hotel yesterday. Amongst those present were: D. Duncan, Doncaster; Mr. Reesor, Markham; J. C. Snell, Brampton; Smith & Sons of Highfield, Smith & Sons of Grimsby; Capt. Rolph, Markham, and J. McLean Howard of Toronto. The officers for 1895 are: J. McLean Howard, Toronto, president; vice-president, J. C. Snell, Brampton; sec.-treasurer, Capt. Rolph, Markham. The president and secretary were appointed delegates to the Industrial Exhibition Board. A constitution was also adopted, and other matters of interest to Jersey breeders were discharged. A communication was received from Mrs. Jones, Brockville, she being unable to attend herself, containing some valuable suggestions, which were read to the meeting.

Why the Cars Were Delayed.

In regard to the storm of Thursday, the Street Railway Company says it was an exceptional one. It was not the quantity of snow at all that bothered the company. It was the groove in the rails that caused the whole trouble. As soon as the snow fell it blew into the groove and the first car that came along packed it down, and fresh snow falling packed on top of that, until the groove became completely filled and it was impossible for the cars to make any speed, or in fact to run at all. There was only one such storm last year, and the company does not anticipate another such this year. No appliance they can think of would be of any more service than what they have now in use. Such is the explanation of President McKenzie when seen yesterday by a World reporter.

To get the best is always the cheapest. That is why every one should use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

At Prospect Park.

With the advent of winter skaters have rejoiced. The frost of the past two or three days has put Prospect Park Rink in first-class condition. Skating has been indulged in by hundreds each day. The pleasures of the rink are augmented by the music of a good band. Prospect Park maintains its high position as one of the best rinks in Ontario.

Under the auspices of the Catholic Young Ladies' Literary Association, a select audience last evening listened to an admirable recitation of the Relationship of the Kindergarten to Art. The lecturer was Mrs. Caroline M. C. Hart of Baltimore, formerly of the Kindergarten Department of the Normal School, Toronto. Vocal music was given by Mrs. Percival Talbot Green and Mrs. McGann of the Conservatory of Music, and Gilonna's orchestra played a number of selections.

Henry A. King & Co.'s special wire from Lehenburg, Thalman & Co., New York: The street appears to have made up its mind that nothing worth attention is likely to happen till after Jan. 1. To-day consequently was extremely dull. The announcement that $750,000 gold would be shipped to Europe to-morrow was not unexpected, though at the moment the working of exchange rates both here and at the Continental centres does not apparently justify such transactions. To-day's engagements, indeed, had the appearance of being made with reference to expectations of a higher exchange market after Jan. 1, and to the consequent export of considerable amounts of the yellow metal. About all that can be mentioned in today's trading was a little further bearish pressure in Reading and J.C., and a moderate improvement in Sugar, though the movement in that stock was on the whole unimportant. On the whole the market was firm to strong, and appeared to respond to covering by bear traders, who found the proceedings too narrow to allow the contracts to remain outstanding. The close was exceedingly dull and featureless, there being no pressure on the market from any quarters.

Henry A. King & Co.'s special wire from F. G. Logan & Co., Chicago: Wheat ruled moderately weak and drooping in spite of slightly bullish advices, such as smaller Baltic and Indian shipments, very small receipts and very fair clearances. The lower cables are regarded as is expected next week, possibly enough to make an even 90,000,000 bushels. Corn dull and somewhat easier. The only strength shown was early on the announcement that the Roumanian crop was 40,000,000 bushels less than last year. The strength disappeared when it was remembered that the Roumanian shortage early in the season was put considerably higher. Cables lower. Seaboard clearances 86,000 bushels. Receipts 142 cars. The estimate for Saturday 210. Clear and milder weather. The sort predicted is expected to increase the movement somewhat. The cash situation continues unfavorable. Provisions dull and barely steady early, but local covering started an advance, which lasted till the close, which was strong at best prices of the day. There was less liquidation of long stuff and offerings from all sources were small until after the bulge, when packers and early buyers sold freely. There was a decided increase in the volume of outside business, which was mostly on the buying side. The rally is a natural one and the course of the market for the remainder of the month will largely depend on receipts of hogs following the recent storm.

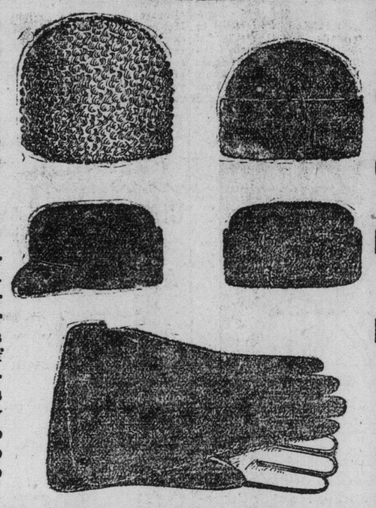
MEN'S FURS
AT GENUINE WHOLESALE PRICES!



HOW IT'S DONE:
We buy our skins in large lots for cash and choose the best. We manufacture our own furs and sell for cash. Thus we can sell at lower prices than ordinary wholesale firms who do business on a system of credit. A comparison of other retailers' goods and prices with ours will convince you of the superiority and cheapness of our furs. We have everything that's fashionable in furs, but to-day we advertise men's furs.

CAPS
Persian Lamb, Beaver, Otter and Seal.
GAUNTLETS
Persian Lamb, Beaver, Otter and Seal.
COLLARS and CUFFS
[adjustable] in a variety of fashionable furs.
FUR COATS
At all prices in Seal, Beaver, Persian Lamb, Astrachan, Coon, Wombat and other furs.
FUR-LINED COATS
The best in Canada. Shells made by the best King-street tailors, lined and trimmed throughout in the most tasteful manner, with selected skins, in Mink, Nutria and other favorite furs, with collars and cuffs of Otter, Beaver and Persian Lamb. Our prices for fur-lined coats are the lowest in Canada.

largely reflective of our sudden decline of yesterday. There was a fair amount of liquidation by holders who had become discouraged or unable to hold on any longer. Fluctuations have been narrow, and towards the close some fairly good buying was observable on local account to provide for sales previously made. Corn ruled easy all day, with fair business doing, elevator interests were buyers and the local scalping interests the principal sellers. Low grades, while about 1-4 lower than yesterday's best prices, were relatively higher than the May, and the demand was good, with some indications of Eastern business being resumed.

Schwartz, Dupee & Co., Chicago: Continued liquidation by New York at the outset of the market made wheat particularly weak. Buying against "puts" and the closing of a little cash business recovered part of the early decline. A lot of 70,000 bushels red wheat was sold to go to the seaboard at the op
