THIRTEEN MEN KILLED

AND SIXTEEN OTHERS BADLY MANGLED.

Terrible Explosion in a Chicago Refinery.—Only Six Bodies Recovered From the Ruins.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 27.—Thirteen men were killed and 16 were frightfully mangled in an explosion this evening in the annex of a big sugar refinery at the foot of Taylor street. The building was blown to pieces, and a great pile of wreckage fell upon the deck of the steamship William Chisholm, which was anchored in the river near the refinery. The explosion occurred in the starch department of the annex, where nearly 50 men were at work. Windows were broken for blocks around, and several persons who were walking in Taylor street were prostrated. Flames sprung from the ruins and engines and ambulance hurried to the wreck. Truckmen who plunged into the ruins as soon as the fire was extinguished, drew a blackened body from a heap of timbers. Then the shreds of a body were found. The victim had been torn to pieces. One arm and both legs were gone, and the face was so frightfully mangled that even the foreman, who escaped injury, could not recognize it. A terrific wind and sleet storm set in just as the firemen reached the ruins, and raged with such fury that a careful search of the ruins was impossible.

The following bodies were recovered:

Franz Graf, laborer, of South Union street.

——Tideman, laborer, of 194 DeKoven street.

One unknown.

The wounded are:

Dr. Arnold Behr, general superintendent of the refinery, face, hands and neck terribly burned, and supposed fracture of the skull.

Henry Hebeldt boss of the starch house probably fatally burned.

John Smith, fatally burned.

Oscar Schoetz, face neck, and arms burned.

Petrie Gerhardt, cut by flying brick.

Bernhard Dishelm, burned and bruised.

Martin Stork, burned and bruised.

Wm. Eisengham, terribly mangled, may die.

Thomas Holmes, probably fatally burned.

Joseph Fries, blown through a window and slightly injured.

Frank Batisk, burned and bruised.

Tolby Hellock, probably fatally burned.

William Hellock, fatally burned.

Joseph Oswell, slightly burned.

Fred Graft, slightly burned.

Michael Partie, slightly bnrned.

Charles Hayden, burned and bruised.

Night engineer, name unknown, burned and bruised; will die.

Fireman, name unknown, blown to the edge of the river, slightly injured.

A 14-year-old lad escaped from the building as it was crumbling. He was bleeding and groaning, but refused to give his name. The explosion was probably the result of carelessness. The starch house was a two-story building that stood between the huge refinery and river. It was built about nine months ago upon the spot where a similar structure had been torn to pieces by an explosion during a storm such as has been raging here to-night. In one corner of the room was a chamber used for drying powder, which, when dry, is as dangerous as powder. Early this evening one of the laborers about the building saw that the thermometer hanging upon the wall registered an abnormal degree of heat. He ran to Dr. Behr, and warned him of the danger. Then he tried to check the steam. Dr. Behr opened the door leading to the drying room, and with the assistance of some of the laborers, attempted to check the steam; which was pouring through the pipe and sending the temperature to a still more dangerous point. One of the men suggested that the drying room be closed, but the doctor rebuked them for expressing their fears. Five minutes later the explosion came. A cloud of dust arose from the drying room, followed by a flash of fire and then came the concussion which tore the building to pieces. Dr. Behr was blown 50 feet through a door into the driveway between the main buildings. Besides him was Foreman Hubeldt, gasping for breath and bleeding at the nose and mouth. Not far away were two laborers who were crying piteously for help. Others were staggering helplessly through the smoke and dust.

The flames ran over the runs like a flash, and through the light the spectators saw men and boys waving their arms from the wreckage and struggling desperately to free themselves. Courageous acts were performed by hundreds of spectators, who dashed into the fire and smoke and drew many of the wounded from the ruins. The injured, many of them burned to the bone, and all of them screaming with pain, were borne to the third floor of the refinery. Here they lay in long rows on the floor, with surgeons bending over them and women and children, relatives of the men in the wrecked building, pressing into the door and crying to be admitted to the room. Engineer Mike Partel and Fireman Francis were looking at the machinery when the explosion came. Instinctively they sprang through a window to the ground, and then started to a place of safety in the dense smoke and pelting storm. They plunged into the river. William Elsenham was blown through a window into the mud in Taylor street, and when he was picked up the sash was still clinging to him. The building is a complete wreck. Not one brick stands upon another.

At 11 o'clock tonight, the firemen, who have not yet begun to search the biggest heaps of wreckage, had recovered six bodies. All were burned so terribly that they could not be recognized. They were placed in an ambulance, and taken through the blinding storm to the morgue. Chief Sweeney says that seven more men are in the ruins. There is no hope that one of them is alive, for the fire raged furiously over the wreckage in which they are known to be buried. The officers of the refinery refused to give the police a list of the men who were at work in the starch house when the explosion occurred. They also refused to give any information to the newspaper reporters. The search for the dead will be continued all night by a detachment of firemen. It is not thought, however, that they will reach the other bodies before morning. The property loss will amount to $10,000. If the big 11-story refinery had been destroyed the loss would have been $1,000,000. There is no doubt but that the disaster was caused by the rise in temperature in the starch house. This was the fault of the men who regulated the heat, and who were supposed to watch the thermometer almost constantly.

FLOODS AT VICKSBURG.

A Crevasse 100 Feet Wide at Huntington and ten Feet of Water in the Streets.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 29.—Crevasses have occurred at Huntington and east of Mississippi, and settle, the fate of all but the highest portions of the Yazoo delta.

The crevasse at Huntington, nearly opposite, was 300 feet wide at the last accounts, and the Easton is 100 feet wide.

At Skipwith the break is 600 feet wide and 15 to 20 feet deep. The town is covered with water to the depth of ten feet or more.

Nothing is to be seen of some houses except the peak of the roofs, while others have turned over and are being tossed about by the surging water.

THE TORNADO'S WORK.

IT VISITS TENNESSEE, ILLINOIS AND INDIANA AFTER KENTUCKY.

It Works Death and Destruction as it Moves Along—The Wounded Number Many Hundreds—Some Snow at Louisville Last Night.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

LOUISVILLE Ky, March 29.—The loss of property will be nearly doubled if a heavy rain falls within 48 hours. There was some snow last night but not enough to do any damage. The principal single item of property in danger is tobacco of which $100,000 worth is exposed.

A special from Evansville says the Fullton street brewery was wrecked by storm Thursday night. One man was killed three others are still imprisoned in the ruins. It is believed they will be rescued alive. The mail line wharf was wrecked and 200 tons freight damaged. The house of Amos White was destroyed and his wife and baby perished. White became insane. Advices from Grand River, Ky. say that 8 or 10 buildings there are completely destroyed. Three persons were killed and 17 others seriously injured.

The new iron bridge near Kuttawa was wrenched from the piers, and thrown into the river. The storm also passed through Eddyville, where it struck a negro settlement, and killed two persons and wounded 19 others.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 29.—The tornado struck Graysville, Georgia, last night, doing considerable damage, and causing the loss of several lives.

GALLATIN, Tenn., March 29. — After sweeping up the Roganna, the storm took a northeast course, and for 25 miles carried everything in front of it. All the houses beyond Bledsoe up to Englia, in Macon county have been blown into atoms. Fully one hundred people are crippled in that section.

Many people were horribly mangled at Roganna and only one house remains in the town.

METROPOLIS, Ill., March 29.—This town was visited by a fearful storm yesterday resulting in the wounding and death of a portion of its citizens and the wholesale destruction of property.

There was nothing peculiar or striking in the appearance of the skies that occurred to forewarn save the green cast of the heavens. Suddenly there came upon the Southwest a rolling ball, apparently born of a union of two clouds in mid-air, which in a moment, swooped down into the Ohio river, and on lifting there followed it a column of water estimated all the way from fifty to 200 feet in height.

This curious phenomenon swept onward striking like the sledge hammer of Hercules.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 29.—A special from Princeton Ind. says shortly before six o'clock last night a tornado swept over this county north and west of that city, doing a great amount of damage to crops, houses and barns. Details can not be given.

SCHOONER ISAAC BURPEE is to load piling at Dunn's slip, Carleton for New York.

ICE CHARTER.—Schooners Lizzie Dervey and E. Walsh have been chartered to load ice for New York. The Dervey will load at Rodney Slip, West end.

PARTIES REQUIRING elegant plate glass mirrors, handsome frames paintings and oleographs, fancy goods etc. should not fail to attend the auction sale every evening next week at Gorbell's Art Store, Union street.

TRANSPARENT ICE.—The ice which is being loaded into the schooner Wm. Jones at Carleton is claimed to be the clearest ice yet shipped from this port. The cakes which weigh between 600 and 700 pounds, are transparent. This ice is brought from Fredericton and is loaded into the schooner directly from the cars.

CUTS OF ST. JOHN.—The secretary of the Board of Trade has received the proofs of a number of excellent cuts of the city and harbor of St. John. The cuts are the property of the Board, but any member is entitled to the use of them. They make not only a neat and attractive heading for letter or bill paper bnt may be used in this way better than in any other way for advertising the city.

THE EQUITY COURT.—In re David Grant, assignee etc. vs Angus McQueen, Sheriff of Westmorland et al which was an application to dissolve an injunction preventing a sheriff's sale Judge Tuck in the Equity Court, decided that as under the circumstances a remedy can be had in a court of law, there was none in Equity. He held also that Section 24 Chap 19, con. stats. had not been complied with and therefore dissolved the injunction.

From the Capital.

OTTAWA, March 28.—The speaker took the chair at three o'clock.

Sir John Thompson introduced a bill to amend the supreme and exchequer court act. This is intended to place within the jurisdiction of the supreme court, without the doubt at present existing, appeals from the exchequer court decisions on claims referred to that court by the heads of departments and which cannot be described as suits.

Mr. Paterson of Brant, resumed the bndget debate. He complained that the taxes collected by the government was 25 per cent more than requisite and that the country was suffering from the drain.

Peter White of Renfrew said there seemed to be a policy of retrocession on the part of the opposition to the house and their allies in congress. The Hill resolution, with which Cartwright declared himself in sympathy last session, had since been modified, and in place of unrestricted reciprocity, pure and simple as asked for then, the resolution presented a few days ago merely asked for the appointment of a commission to inquire into the best method to securing more freedom in trader elations.

Charlton followed with a gloomy picture, declaring that the Canadians foreseeing the further depression, were fleeing by thousands from the wrath to come.

Ferguson of Welland roasted Charlton for his damaging statements respecting the farmers of Canada.

A SEALER RECAPTURED.

THE FAMOUS SCHOONER PATHFINDER DETAINED BY THE U. S. CUTTER.

She Was in Port for Repairs, and is the Vessel Which Escaped From the Prize Master Last Year.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

PORTLAND, Oregon, March 29.—The British sealing schooner Pathfinder, Capt. Arthur Morgan, of Victoria, was towed into port last night by the United States Revenue cutter, Corwin. The schooner was found at Neag's Bay, Washington, with her rudder disabled and she was taken into custody by the cutter. The Pathfinder is not seized but detained pending instructionr from the department at Washington.

The schooner is one of the British sealing vessels seized last year in Behring sea by the Cutter Richard Rush and ordered to Sitka in charge of one seaman as a prize master. She escaped to Victoria and has since been engaged in sealing off the American and British coasts till yesterday when she was compelled to go into the bay for repairs.

Captain Hooper of the Corwin holds the vessel pending the decision of the department relative to whether the vessel is amenable to the law regarding sealing in the Behring sea for which she was seized. The Pathfinder sailed for Victoria two months ago, and secured 150 seals off the coast of Vancouver and Washington. The particulars of the detention have been sent out to the secretary of the treasury at Washington and also to the department at Ottawa, Ontario.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Athletic.

MR. BARKER GETS A SEND-OFF.

The St. John A. A. club held a special meeting last evening for the purpose of electing a secretary-treasurer in place of Mr. W. S. Barker, resigned. Mr. C. H. Ferguson was unanimously chosen. Before the meeting adjourned, president A. O. Skinner in a glowing address presented Mr. Barker with a gold watch, appropriately engraved, as a mark of the Club's appreciation of his past services. For some years Mr. Barker has been closely identified with the St. John A. A. club, and it is but fair to say that no one has done more for the organization or for athletics in St. John than has that gentleman. He has been energetic reliable, and has ever worked toward the best interest of all. With Mr. Barker it has been sport in its widest meaning. In his capacity as secretary he has endeavored to advance every branch of athletics, and to him is due considerable of the credit which the St. John A. A. club now gets for its excellence of standing amongst other clubs of Canada. Failing health has resulted in his resignation as secretary but he still retains his position as member of the club, and its best interests.

The New Tariff.

Mr. Robert Cruikshank, of the firm of Messrs Jardine & Co., speaking of the new tariff this morning said that some of the changes made by the government were partly in accordance with the views of the St. John Board of Trade. The increase of duty on meats, he thought, however, would put more pressure on merchants than the decrease on some comodities would remove. He believed that the duty on packages, especially on packages containing lard, would prove very objectionable, and he thought that it should never have been imposed. The changes in tariff, however, would effect the dry goods merchants to a greater extent, and would prove to them more severe than it would to other merchants.

The government had taken a step in the right direction in removing the duty from corn, but he regretted that cornmeal had not been reduced to 20 or 25 cents per barrel. Considering the conflicting and sectional interests with which the Finance Minister has had to deal, Mr Cruikshank was assured that the duties had been fixed on articles in his line of business as favorably as could be expected.

The Proposed Long Wharf Extension.

At the Council of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon a discussion was held on the question of the Long wharf extension to effect which a bill had been prepared some little time ago for the Legislature. Several of the members of the council spoke strongly against the proposed extension, and presented valid objections to the scheme.

A prominent merchant in expressing his views this morning to a GAZETTE reporter stated that not only would such an extension seriously interfere with navigation at this place but it would cause an eddy which in turn will bring down and collect debris. The upper end of the harbor would soon fill in and if not dredged continually would in a short time cease to be suitable for purposes of navigation.

An extension of Long wharf 410 feet beyond the harbor line would bring that wharf out as far as North wharf and would cut the harbor up to a considerable degree. "Our harbor is small enough," said the gentleman, "and such an extension as this would make it much smaller."

TRAIN LATE.—The C. P. R. from Montreal was three hours late to-day.

FURNESS LINE.—S. S. Ulunda will not leave Halifax until Monday, the work of discharging there having been delayed by the stormy weather.

FOR THE SPORTS.—Messrs. W. H. Thorne & Co. have presented the Beaver lacrosse club with a handsome silver cup for competition at their sports April 25th. Messrs Clarke, Kerr & Thorne have donated an alarm clock and Messrs J. R. Cameron & Co. a fancy lamp. A number of other merchants have promised donations for the sports.

STEAMER KEHRIVIEDER, of the Hansa line of Hamburg arrived here at 7.30 this morning from Halifax. She left Halifax Thursday night at about 10 o'clock and had thick fog and snow until her arrival at this port. The Kehrivider has about 1200 tons of general cargo, 300 tons of it being raw sugar for Montreal. The rest consists of glass, cement dry goods etc. for firms in this city. The cargo is being discharged at the Corporation pier.

PROBATE COURT.—The taking of testimony in re will of the late Thomas Harrison, in reference to which a caveat was filed by R. J. Ritchie, the police magistrate, on behalf of two of the relatives, and which was begun in the Probate Court yesterday afternoon, is continued this afternoon in the police court building. Dr. Travers has been occupying the witness stand this afternoon, giving testimony as to the capacity of the testator. The personal property involved amounts to $4,000.

THE MARKET.—The market this week has been rather poor and, with the exception of a raise in the price of butcher's beef, the rates remain the same. Following are the quotations:—butcher's beef, 6 to 8½ cents; mutton, 7 to 8 cents; veal 8 to 10 cents; chickens 90 to $1 per pair; turkeys, 18 cents, per lb.; butter, 18 to 22 cents; lard, 13 cents; eggs, 16 to 17 cents per doz.; potatoes, $1.40 to $1.50 per barrel; kidney potatoes; $2 per bbl.; turnips, 60 cents per bbl.; parsnips, $125 per bbl.; beets, $1 to $1·20 per bbl.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—A sailor who was rowing across the harbor this morning in a small boat had a narrow escape from receiving a ducking or perhaps being drowned. He tried too cross the bow of the steamer City of Monticello, which was going out, but she came to fast and struck the stern of the small boat and knocked her out of the way. The sailor pulled with all his might and succeeded in getting clear before any further damage was done.

[illegible] appropriate exercises will be held during the next four evenings at Brussels street church in commemoration of the fortieth anniversary of that institution. This evening Rev. G. O. Gates will deliver an address on "The stability of the Church." Rev. J. A. Ford and Rev. A. J. McFarland will also deliver addresses, on "The Gospel Adapted to the Universal Needs of Man," and "Anniversaries, and their Lessons" respectively. Mr. James A. Estey will read a paper on the growth and history of the church.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.—The meeting of the Board of Trade which is called for Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, promises to be worthy of a full attendance of members. A number of matters are to be laid before the Board including a discussion on the various proposed harbor improvements and Long wharf extension; the action of the Government regarding the subsidies for the Bay service; a proposal from the Imperial Federation League regarding general penny postage between Great Britain and her colonies; the election of a number of new members as well as considerable other business.

SUTHERLAND-WEEKS.—Of Mr. Sutherland M. P, P. husband of Mrs. Sutherland of the Sutherland-Weeks poisoning case, the Charlottetown Examiner says:

It is evident to all right-thinking men that Mr. Sutherland ought not to take his seat in the House of Assembly as the representative of the people who elected him until he has shown that the evidence on record against him is false and scandalous. It must be clear even to Mr. Sutherland, that if the damaging evidence of Mr. Nash and Mrs. Groom had been given and published before the election, Mr. Sutherland would not have been elected as the colleague of Mr. Peter Sinclair by the incomes-living electors of the First District of Queen's County.

AN ORNAMENT FOR A BONE YARD.—A horse, that would be an ornament to any well conducted bone yard, was to be seen on Germain street late yesterday afternoon, struggling under a load of "Strait Shore coal." The animal in question was of a dark hue, about twelve hands in height and was so thin that its ribs could be easily counted. The driver was trying to urge the poor beast to move on, but despite all efforts it could not haul its load. Several citizens gathered around and began to offer suggestions, such as: "Run him to the bone yard," "get Mr. Wetmore," &c. The driver was at last forced to take the horse around to South Market street and take the harness off him and get another horse to haul the load. The name of the driver should be ascertained and steps taken to keep the poor beast off the streets.

A FEW POINTERS.
Good Gloves should fit well, wear well, and be free from hurtful dyes. Every purchaser has a right to expect that these three qualities shall mark the gloves offered them. But these qualities should not call for extra price; and they do not at our store. We aim to keep a stock of gloves that shall leave no possibility of failure to suit customers, either on the score of sizes, shades, styles or prices. While we keep all grades of gloves, we keep nothing that does not give the buyer good and honest value for every cent of purchase money. You should try us when you want a neat and inexpensive glove.
Ribbons have been made much of as adjuncts of dress in recent seasons. The result has been a wonderful care in the production of these dainty goods. Our stock of them is large and varied; Ribbons to match anything; Ribbons to contrast; Ribbons to harmonize, gay Ribbons and sober, bright colors and neutral tints; you can find them all in our stock.
There is a great demand for plain Velvet, which is used for v
