

who said: "My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness." Amen.

Principal MacVicar thanked the members of the faculty, more especially the Rev. Dr. Barclay, for the assistance they had rendered during his absence from the city. He also announced the gift of sixty-six volumes from the Rev. Dr. Patterson of St. Andrews, Que.; and a bequest, by Mr. W. B. Hamilton, Crescent Street Church, Montreal, of $1.000 for the Scholarship Fund, and $250 for the general revenue of the College.

All joined heartily in the singing of the "Doxology," and bowed their heads to receive the benediction.
