Mr Geo. Pope, of the 2nd con., of Hullett, has a yearling colt by Kenilworth, that would be hard to beat anywhere.

14889 pounds of cheese were sold to Mr Hilbert, for Ayer & Co., of Montreal, by the Morris and Grey cheese factory. The price paid was 9¼ cents. The cheese was shipped last Saturday.

Local apiarists state that the prospect for the honey supply this year is bad. The long spring drouth cut off the supplies from the bees and unless the basswood trees come out well, honey will be scarce.

On Sunday last Mrs Emerson, of the 3rd con. Hullett, had the misfortune to fall down cellar, breaking three of her ribs close to the backbone; as she is up in years it will take her some time to recover.

The Post says: The law business must be looking up in Brussels, as a new lawyer came to reside here on Thursday of this week. The firm will likely be Sinclair & Sinclair. The younger member of the firm will probably officiate as "crier" in the Court for a while.

Last Friday Jno. McMullen, of Winthrop, for keeping liquor for sale without license, was, on information of J. R. Miller, License Inspector, assessed $20 and costs and his supplies destroyed. The case was heard by A. Hunter and reeve McCracken, J. P's E. E. Wade represented the Inspector,

Mr Geo. Thompson's steam sawmill, near Wingham was destroyed by fire at about three o'clock Tuesday morning, together with about 800 cords of hard and soft wood slabs, sawn for firewood. Insurance on mill is said to be $1000; loss about $3000. Mr Thompson and wife are in the Lower Provinces.

On Monday last, W. H. Baer went to his father's barn, Colborne, to take the binder out to start harvesting, and as he stepped his horse on the floor, he noticed a hole in a plank; he stopped the horse to cover it up, and in an instant the horse went into the cellar, a distance of 8 feet, sleepers and planks being rotten.

Some evil disposed person or persons have been amusing themselves by throwing stones at No. 9 school house, Tuckersmith. 53 lights of glass have been broken in the windows, and a panel out of one of the doors. The trustees have offered a reward of $10 for such information as will lead to the conviction of the guilty parties.

Mr John Thorp, of the 2nd concession Tuckersmith, had a valuable heavy draught horse die on Sunday last from inflammation. He had been offered $150 for this horse. As misfortunes seldom come singly, Mr Thorp has suffered another considerable loss in having about ten acres of flax completely spoiled by the drought.

Mr Nelson Bingham, (son of Mr W. Bingham) of Richmond, Mich., has bought the 60 acre farm on the 7th con. of Hullett, formerly owned by the late Wm. Wallace, paying therefor the sum $2,800. Mr Bingham spent five years in Manitoba, several in Missouri and Michigan, and finally concluded that there is no place like Ontario after all. He returned on Saturday last.

Last Tuesday evening Josie Hunter, Brussels, while assisting his brother paint a buggy on the high platform by their shop, fell a distance of 12 or 15 feet to the ground. He fortunately struck on his feet and although considerably shaken up was not seriously injured. The cause of his tumble was that the wheel he was working at came off the axle and fell with him to the ground,

Mr John Riley, 8th con., Hullett, had a serious fire the other day He was engaged in hauling hay, and while lighting his pipe a match fell on the stubble and set fire to it, and not being noticed for a while the wind blew it to some rakings, and it soon spread all over the field, and burned 40 rods of fence and two large stacks of hay, being the entire crop of fifteen acres. They had a hard time to save a field of wheat next to it.

Last Monday at Zurich, while Mr Henry Ortwine's horses were running out in the field one of his two-year-old colts attempted jumping accross a creek, when it suddenly slipped and unfortunately broke its leg. The animal is now under the treatment of Mr Harry Doan, the enterprising veterinary surgeon. He has treated such cases successfully before, and will likely make a good job of it this time.

Knox church Cranbrook, was moved to the north side of the lot on Thursday of last week by Dan. Zimmer. On Monday of this week there was a bee hauling stone from the river for the foundation. Ten teams were in attendance. Fifteen feet will be added to the front of the building, giving ample room for the large congregation. The masons commenced work on Tuesday. Wm. Dark has the job. When the veneering with brick is done, a new roof on and the inside and outside painted the congregation at Cranbrook will have very comfortable quarters.

On Monday last Mr Wm. Elcoat, who resides on the Alexander farm on the 3rd concession of Tuchersmith, met with a serious accident. While gathering fire wood on the river flats he left a little boy sitting in the wagon. The horses got frightened and started to run away. Mr Elcoat succeeded in getting into the wagon, but could only get hold of one line as the other had dropped to the ground. He pulled on this line, turning the horses round, and upsetting the waggon on him. The wheel of the vehicle passed over his leg and shoulder, breaking his collar bone and in other ways bruising him. The boy escaped uninjured. Notwithstanding his serious injuries, Mr Elcoat held on to the horses and prevented them getting away. He will likely be laid up for some time.

Ashfield.

Farmers are busy at their fall wheat and barley.

The oats will be short in this vicinity owing to the drouth.

Some person or persons have been amusing themselves by destroying school property, of School No 5. The trustees offer $20 reward to any person who will give such information that will lead to the conviction of such parties.

Leeburn.

LEAVING HERE FOR A TIME.—Miss Clutton leaves here for Edgar, to reside with her brother, Dr W. H. Clutton, where he has undertaken the practice of medicine. A large number of friends here will miss her in their social circle, and in the Sabbath school work an efficient, faithful teacher will be much missed by the infant class, which she has taught with great success for several years. The Band of Hope is also losing one of the chief leaders and earnest workers in teaching our little ones the benefits of temperance. At their meeting last week the juvenile workers in the good cause presented her with a a choice present, Miss Ethel Cumming making the presentation on behalf of the band, and Miss Kate Lawson reading the following address:

DEAR MISS CLUTTON.—It was with unfeigned regret that we learned of your intention of severing for a time your connection with us as a Sunday teacher and also as the superintendant of our Band of Hope, your pleasant face and kindly helpful work will be much missed by us all. We feel that we could not let you go from us without saying how much we appreciate your loving service. We would like you to accept this little gift to remind you of our good wishes, praying that He whom you serve may bless and keep you wherever you go. A suitable reply was given by Miss Clutton, thanking them for their kind present of a water set and autograph album, in which the names of 27 of the members of the Band of Hope at Leeburn, were neatly written in friendship by each little worker in the good cause of temperance.

Mrs D. Fraser and family are enjoying a pleasant visit here, the guests of H. Railton.

Miss A. Stirling is spending her holidays with her sister, Mrs Thos. Harrison, near Porter's Hill.

Mr Whiteman of Tuckersmith is visiting here, the guest of Mr Joseph Cook.

At the last meeting of the I. O. G. T. 214, the officers of this quarter were elected for the new quarter, commencing in August.

The new bridge built last fall on Butternut row by the township fathers, at the west end of Hope Farm, has been much improved by having the approaches on either sides plowed and graded, and scraper deepening the ditch on each side of it. This work having made the road somewhat higher the benedicts try now and make it an excuse that it is not safe for them to take the baby carriages along, as coming down grade they may have a spill by getting off the track, and until a railing is put up they won't perform this faithful duty. The fair sex are getting a petition on birchbark for the councilor in our section to give in at the next council meeting to endorse the married men's views that a railing is really necessary so that their street talks won't be interrupted by a sudden fall of their particular friend into the ditch when crossing the bridge. We hope the township fathers will remedy this by granting the railing.

Dungannon.

Mrs Kay and daughter, Miss Mary, of Lakefield, County of Peterborough, mother and sister of Mrs Hugh M. Duff, are visiting relatives and friends here. They seem to like this part of the country.

On Tuesday last we were favored with (what was very much wished for) a good heavy shower of rain.

Mr Simon Pentland, a student for the ministry in the Methodist body, occupied the Rev W. F. Campbell's pulpit morning and evening of last Sabbath. He will occupy the same pulpit on next Sabbath forenoon, and Rev H. Irvine, of the Nile circuit, will preach in the evening.

Mrs B. Crawford, and her son, have returned from visiting relatives in New York State, having been away for upwards of two months. She enjoyed the trip very much.

It is not every municipality can boast of as many ratepayers owning the cognomen Mac as the township of Ashfield; there are in the municipality some two hundred and four voters on this years' list, and of these No 7 subdivision has sixty one of that name.

Mr B. J. Crawford, of the firm of Crawford & Anderson, merchants, intends taking in the excursion to Manitoba and Northwest which commences on the 7th of August we wish him a pleasant trip and safe return.

Weather being very favorable farmers are, with but few exceptions, nearly through with harvesting fall wheat. Spring crops are progressing rapidly, oats and peas are looking well, and will be a pretty good yield.

Our deputy postmaster, has returned from a visit to relatives, friends and acquaintances down East. He enjoyed his trip very much and feels quite invigorated. We are pleased to see him home safe, and so much improved in appearance.

A scandalous scene took place in our usually quiet village on Tuesday afternoon. A set of rowdies from Port Albert being the actors in the disgraceful drama. We understand Mr Geo. Hawkins of the Port, the poundkeeper, in endeavoring to carry out the poundage law was assaulted by some parties who had cattle impounded, and wished to take them out of the pound by force, and in consequence of which was obliged to bring the parties up before Squire Mallough, who fined them for their conduct, after which one of the party again committed assault and battery on the person of Mr Hawkins and being promptly brought before the Squire, was further fined, which we hope will teach him to behave himself. I might here and now remark that I am informed that during the Scott Act regime there had not been any rowdyism or disturbance in this village, but since the license system there is a great change. We have a good lock-up here, and our constable would confer a public benefit, by putting disturbers of peace into it, and give them to understand that they have got to behave themselves, even though they do take too much whiskey, and thereby prevent any repetitions of such conduct on our streets.

Paramount.

Miss Dottie, of Kincardine, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs D. Potcher.

Miss Mary Doyle, of Detroit, is visiting at the old homestead.

Messrs Robert and J D Murray and family have returned to Detroit.

Miss M Caldwell, of Toronto, is visiting in this place.

Mrs W Murchison, of Toronto, is the guest of Donald Murchison.

Mrs D Murchison is visiting in the vicinity of Stratford.

Miss J Murdoch, of Wingham, is visiting at her father's, Mr A Murdoch.

Mr and Mrs E A McKenzie, of Belfast, are visiting in this vicinity.

Miss M Struthers, of Galt, who was visiting her brother William, has returned home.

Nile.

William Morrow is getting quite strong again. He was pretty low for a time.

Tuesday's rain has made the country look like Spring. The wheat is about all out and some of the farmers are drawing in.

Messrs Sharman and Reid, of Goderich, are doing a nice job plastering the new parsonage.

The second coat of paint on Mr Grumett's house looks fine.

Miss Lottie Holmes, of Ayr, spent a week in Nile recently with her sister Mrs H. Irvine.

Mr A. H. Manning, of Clinton, will preach the quarterly meeting sermon at Nile next Sunday morning. The Methodist church has purchased a beautiful communion set from a Toronto firm.

George Jackman is spending his holidays at home this week.

Sir Hector Langevin will lay the corner stone of the new public building at Joliette on Tuesday next.

The Newfoundland delegates are expected to arrive in Ottawa on September 10th, to discuss confederation.
